Arizona Diamondbacks
Media Guide

Good luck in your second season.

From one home team to another.

To the Diamondbacks: You've been in town only a year and already you've become a tradition. That's not surprising though. When you're the home team here, folks support you long after the final out. And that's how they've supported us. Ever since 76 and Circle K teamed up, families have made it a tradition to stop in for high performance 76 gasoline, while also meeting their on-the-go needs at Circle K. All in one quick and easy trip.

So Diamondbacks, we just wanted to wish you the best this season. And to let you know this town is pulling for you every step of the way

Your Home Team.

Jerry Colangelo

Managing General Partner

He is a man with a passion for athletics and the athletes who play, and the inaugural season and first off-season for the Diamondbacks were testimonials to that passion. Jerry Colangelo established his presence in the sports world via the NBA, and though his ties are still very strong with the Phoenix Suns, he has now carved a niche in major league baseball.

Frustrated by labor issues in one sport, he was undaunted in his efforts to improve a 65-97 expansion club, and like the Suns, also an expansion project in their day, he has provided the resources for an improved product on the diamond in 1999. The signing of prominent free agents that included Randy Johnson, Todd Stottlemire and Steve Finley, to name a few, were a direct result of the competitive nature with which Colangelo goes about his work on a daily basis.

"Losing" is not part of his vocabulary, which typifies his upbringing in the "Hungry Hill" neighborhood of Chicago Heights. As a youth he was one of the top pitchers on a team that also featured the talents of future New York Yankee Jim Bouton. On the hardwood, Colangelo captured All-State honors, leading Bloom Township to a 49-8 mark and two appearances in the Illinois State Tournament. His athleticism led to 66 college scholarship offers for basketball and seven for professional baseball contracts. He was remembered to the neighborhood with the dedication of the Jerry Colangelo Gymnasium at Bloom Township on November 10, 1996.

He initially selected the University of Kansas, but transferred to the University of Illinois after prospective teammate, Wilt Chamberlain, chose to sign professionally. A high school arm injury to Colangelo limited his playing career to just two seasons of baseball at Illinois, thus his athletic focus turned to hoops. He earned All-Big Ten honors for the Illini, averaging 15 points a game, served as team captain as a senior and was an eventual inductee in the Illinois Basketball Hall of Fame.

Colangelo's professional career in athletics began with the Chicago Bulls as head scout and director of merchandising in 1966. Just two years later, at the age of 28, he was the youngest general manager in professional sports, taking over the reins of the expansion Phoenix Suns. He held that role until October, 1987, when he led a group of investors that purchased the Suns franchise for $44.5 million, and he has served as the team president and CEO since.

In 1993, the same year he earned an unprecedented fourth NBA Executive of the Year award, Colangelo began assembling yet another group of investors that would eventually convince the expansion committee that big league baseball was not just a spring fling in the Valley.

The assertive and confident style of management that directed the Suns to seven consecutive 50-win seasons, and three appearances in the Western Conference finals, was now headed to another major sport. On behalf of the potential ownership group, he negotiated a deal with the Maricopa County Board of Supervisors that enabled the county to fund $238 million toward the construction of what is now Bank One Ballpark.

Baseball fans throughout the Southwest now have an opportunity to watch Jerry Colangelo operate the Diamondbacks in the same manner that made the Suns one of the most admired franchises in all of sports. He jumped at the opportunity to name Buck Showalter as the manager of a team that would not take the field for two more seasons. Never one to stand idle, Colangelo took advantage of the timing of the former Yankee skipper's availability and put him in Arizona pinstripes.

Under Colangelo's aggressive approach and watchful eye, the Diamondbacks jumped at the opportunity to sign free agents Travis Lee and John Patterson when they became available after the 1997 amateur draft. Hard work and a winning attitude has been a way of life for Colangelo, and those characteristics have been instilled throughout the Diamondbacks' organization. A tour of Bank One Ballpark or America West Arena provide insight at the first class way that Colangelo wishes his franchises to be perceived, not only by the athletes who call Phoenix home, but the opposition as well.

The respect and presence that Jerry Colangelo established in the NBA quickly surfaced around his brethren in Major League Baseball, as he serves on both the Legislative Committee and Equal Opportunity Committee.

A man who believes in commitment, not only professionally, but within the community, Colangelo has distinguished himself as one of the Valley's most active community leaders. The list of his "off-field" activities reads like a veritable who's who in the region. He is on the Board of Directors of the Phoenix Art Museum, Greater Phoenix Economic Council, Phoenix Community Alliance and Phoenix Suns Charities. He serves as vice president of the Phoenix Downtown Partnership and is chairman of Southwest Leadership Foundation. He is a lifetime member of the Phoenix Thunderbirds, an organization dedicated to the promotion of Phoenix through sports and the driving force of the Phoenix Open golf tournament, easily the most attended single sporting event in the country. He is a former president of Valley Big Brothers and is currently chairman of the board for the Christian Businessmen's Club. He is also a director and principal of Stratford American Corporation, a real estate development company.

Though his time is always at a premium, Colangelo and his wife, Joan, have also raised a family of four children that now includes eight grandchildren. The Colangelo family includes daughters Kathy Holcombe, Kristen Brubaker and Mandie Okyere, and son, Bryan, who also maintains the Colangelo name on the basketball side of the family, serving as the Suns' vice president of administration and general manager.

Jerry Colangelo assists 6-year old twins, Ashley and Richard Volpe, who were randomly selected from the stands (Section 331). They were called upon to deliver the ceremonial first pitches inaugurating the opening of the franchise on March 31, 1998.

Richard H. Dozer President

The man who oversees the day-to-day operation of the Diamondbacks was exposed to major league baseball as a youth, while his father was plying his trade as one of the top sportswriters in the country. It was under the umbrella of "family" that Rich Dozer got his first taste of "The Show," serving the Chicago Cubs and White Sox as a spring training bat boy, while his father, the late Dick Dozer, covered those clubs for the Chicago Tribune.

The family aspect has not been lost on the younger Dozer, who has instilled that quality on all who have joined the organization. His unpretentious, open-door way of leadership has made the Diamondback front office one of the most comfortable and successful franchises in sports.

Named the team President on March 9, 1995, Dozer only had to "cross the street" to begin his new duties. He was the perfect candidate for the job, possessing the knowledge of the inner workings of a Jerry Colangelo run sports franchise after serving for nine seasons with the Phoenix Suns. Dozer joined the NBA franchise in July 1987 as business manager, and climbed the corporate ladder to Vice President and Chief Operating Officer by June of 1989. Responsibilities varied from accounting, finance, ticketing, office administration, insurance, and arena financing and operations.

He was also the President of America West Arena and was involved in the facility's development.

Dozer is a Certified Public Accountant, spending eight years in the Phoenix office of Arthur Andersen, where he specialized as an audit manager for clients in sports, hospitality and retail industries.

Nothing could have prepared Dozer for one responsibility he would assume as Diamondbacks' team President. He has the unenviable task of making the call on opening or closing the roof on a daily basis. The decision is not as simple as deciding what conditions the game should be played under, but the comfort level of the fan, especially on those nights when the field level temperature is comfortable, but the upper reaches of Bank One Ballpark are not as fortunate. The daily timing of the roof closure is vital to ensure that enough sunlight reaches the grass to keep it growing, but the ballpark stays cool enough to allow the air conditioning to have made the ballpark comfortable by game time.

Much like Colangelo, Dozer's role is not just about the team, but about community as well. He serves on several boards, including Arizona Diamondbacks Charities, Phoenix & Valley of the Sun Convention and Visitors Bureau, and the Goodwill Industries Honor Board. He is an active member of the Phoenix Thunderbirds, an arm of the Phoenix Chamber of Commerce that stages the Phoenix Open each year as part of its commitment to promoting the city through sports. Dozer is also a member of the Phoenix Civic Plaza - Strategic Planning Task Force. He's also on the board of the YMCA, the Dean's Council of 100 for the Arizona State University College of Business, the Arizona Tourism Alliance and the Phoenix Community Alliance.

He possesses a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration from the University of Arizona, graduating in 1979. Rich, his wife Karie, and his daughter, Danielle (4/4/92), make their home in Phoenix. They are expecting another child during the '99 season.

Joe Garagiola, Jr.

Vice President -
General Manager

The completion of the 1998 season brought closure to an intense three years of preparation and dedication, while marking only the beginning of Joe Garagiola's career as a major league General Manager. After building a baseball operations staff from the ground up and evaluating literally thousands of scouting reports on potentially acquirable talent, Garagiola watched the fruits of his labor perform last season, then immediately went to the drawing board to upgrade the product.

A one-time player representative and very familiar with that phase of the industry, Garagiola spent a vast amount of the off-season burning the phone lines to current agents, inquiring about the availability of their clients. His efforts were rewarded with the D'Backs enjoying one of the more prosperous winters among major league clubs, signing the likes of Randy Johnson, Todd Stottlemyre, Steve Finley, Greg Swindell, Armando Reynoso and Greg Colbrunn. Joe was also able to lock-up both arbitration eligible cases, Omar Daal and Kelly Stinnett, to multi-year packages long before a hearing could be scheduled.

Invading the free agent market was not the only way that Garagiola worked to upgrade the club, as the need for a veteran outfielder was remedied with the acquisition of Luis Gonzalez from Detroit. It was the most recent in a series of trades executed by Joe, who pulled the trigger on four deals around the expansion draft, which included the arrival and subsequent signing of Matt Williams. Garagiola also changed the face of the club as the trade deadline approached last summer, swapping players with the New York Mets to acquire the services of veteran outfielder Bernard Gilkey.

Player turnover, which is high with any expansion team, has been a big factor in the early development of the Diamondbacks, as the club has only 12 players remaining from the '98 opening day roster. Despite the turnover, Joe and his staff can take pride in their preparation for the expansion draft, entering this spring with 15 players remaining from the 35 they selected. Included are seven first-rounders, yet of the 14 players picked in the initial phase of the draft, three others were dealt for players who make up the current 40-man roster.

Garagiola joined the Diamondbacks in March, 1995, when the franchise was awarded to the region, but it was his work on the Arizona Baseball Commission that served as a driving force in procuring major league baseball for the Valley. He served as vice-chairman of the Governor's Cactus League Task Force, and was a member of the Mayor's Professional Baseball Committee. From there he branched out to the Maricopa County Sports Authority, serving as chairman. Garagiola was also chairman of the Arizona Baseball Commission, the group best known for completing the task of convincing existing major league clubs that Phoenix and the region were ready to possess their own club.

His work in major league baseball dates back to the '70s, when he was the general counsel and assistant to the president of the New York Yankees. Garagiola made his move to the Valley in 1982, applying his law practice to the firm of Gallagher and Kennedy. His concentration was on sports law, and he was the chairman of the Phoenix Metropolitan Sports Foundation from 1985-87.

As is a constant throughout the Diamondbacks' organization, Joe also has ties within the community, serving on the Board of Directors of the America West Airlines Educational Foundation and the Phoenix Memorial Hospital. Joe also was the 1998 recipient of the prestigious Institute of Human Relations Award from the American Jewish Committee.

Joe Jr. graduated from Notre Dame University in South Bend, IN, earning a B.A. cum laude in 1972. He earned his law degree from Georgetown University Law Center (J.D., 1975), and is admitted to practice law in Arizona, California and New York. Joe and his wife, Noel, have four children, Meredith, Valerie, Natalie and Christopher, and make their home in Scottsdale.

Roland Hemond

Senior Executive
Vice President

When the Diamondbacks began piecing together their baseball operations department, they had the ability to hire one of baseball's top executives in Roland Hemond. He came to Arizona after an eight-year stint as general manager of the Baltimore Orioles. Now in his fifth decade in major league baseball, the veteran Hemond has been there to advise, assist and represent the baseball department in a variety of ways. Not only a valuable asset in the daily operation of the baseball department, he is a nationally known ambassador of our game and highly sought after speaker.

A three-time winner of major league baseball's Executive of the Year award, he was behind four of the greatest turnarounds in big league history, including Baltimore's 22-game improvement in 1992 and their remarkable 32 1/2-game jump, the third best in major league history, in 1989.

Hemond's career in baseball began in 1951 as a member of the front office of the Eastern League's Hartford Chiefs. Upon completion of his first season, he was promoted to the parent Boston Braves, then accompanied the franchise when it moved to Milwaukee. He was named the scouting and farm director of the 1961 Los Angeles Angels, following former Braves manager Fred Haney to the coast.

Hemond remained in California until 1970, when he took over as director of major league player personnel for the Chicago White Sox. At the same time, the Sox put Chuck Tanner in charge of the troops on the field as manager, after serving as the skipper for the Angels' AAA club in Hawaii, while Hemond was with California. The Hemond and Tanner tandem proved potent, as the Sox finished third and second, respectively, in their first two seasons on the job. The 87-67 record for Chicago in 1972 was strong enough to earn Hemond the first of his three Executive of the Year awards.

It was with the White Sox that Roland had the opportunity to work for one of the greatest innovators in baseball, owner Bill Veeck. The veteran Veeck promoted Hemond to vice president of the White Sox in July, 1973, a position he maintained until 1981, when Veeck sold the club. New owners Jerry Reinsdorf and Eddie Einhorn kept Hemond on board, promoting him to executive vice president of baseball operations.

The 1983 White Sox won the Western Division by a record 20 games, the largest winning margin in either league since the advent of division play in 1969, once again earning Hemond the Executive of the Year honor. In '85 the White Sox named broadcaster Ken Harrelson the G.M., thus moving Hemond into a consulting role. Seven months later he joined the commissioner's office for a two-year stint before heading to Baltimore.

It was with the Orioles that Hemond once again worked his magic, putting together a club that would struggle in 1988, but then produce the 32 1/2-game turnaround the following season. Roland left the Orioles after the 1995 season, having negotiated 135 trades involving at least 428 players.

Roland is a native of Central Falls, RI, and he and wife, Margo, have five children, Susan, Tere, Robert, Jay and Ryan. In marrying Roland, Margo was no stranger to professional sports, as her father, John Quinn, was a major league general manager for 28 seasons. Her brother, Bob, was the general manager of the San Francisco Giants through the 1996 season, and her other brother, Jack, was president of the National Hockey League's St. Louis Blues after serving in the GM capacity for the PCL's Hawaii Islanders and Vancouver Mounties.

Sandy Johnson

Assistant General Manager

When the Diamondbacks were looking to fill the role of Assistant General Manager, they looked no further than from within the ranks, naming Sandy

Johnson to the role. Originally on board as a major league scout and Special Assistant to the General Manager, he played an integral part in the preparation for the expansion draft, supplying his wealth of knowledge and scouting experience.

Signing out of high school with the Pirates' organization, Sandy played 10 minor league seasons. He joined the scouting staff of the Seattle Pilots in 1969, then managed for three seasons in that chain while they made the move to Milwaukee, which included a Midwest League title with Danville in 1971.

After serving as a full-time scout for the Brewers in 1973-74, Sandy joined the Major League Scouting Bureau, serving as the Eastern Supervisor until 1981. He then joined the San Diego Padres as their Director of Scouting working there through the championship season of '84. While with the Padres, Johnson's ability to recognize and sign talent began to show in earnest, with the signings of youngsters Benito Santiago, Mitch Williams and Sandy Alomar, Jr.

The who's who of signings continued as his career moved to Texas, working in a variety of player personnel positions, including Assistant General Manager. While with the Rangers, Sandy was instrumental in acquiring the likes of Juan Gonzalez, Kevin Brown, Pudge Rodriguez, and current Chicago Cub slugger, Sammy Sosa.

Raised in South San Gabriel, CA, Sandy was inducted into the RBI (Reviving Baseball in Innercities) Hall of Fame in February, joining other previous honorees including Duke Snider, Eddie Murray, Tom Lasorda and Ozzie Smith.

Sandy and his wife, Linda, have relocated to Phoenix. They have three children, Matthew, Bethany Gehrman and Dane, and a pair of grandsons, Stefan and Leo Gehrman. Sandy's younger brother, Tim, is the manager of the Toronto Blue Jays.

Mel Didier

Senior Assistant to the General Manager

After spending two years getting the minor league operation on its feet, Mel Didier enters 1999 with a new role as Senior Assistant to the General Manager. The organization will take advantage of Didier's 30 years of experience to evaluate major and minor league talent of other organizations.

Arizona's expansion experience was not a first for Mel, who was the Director of Scouting and Baseball Operations for two previous expansion clubs, the '69 Montreal Expos and the '77 Seattle Mariners. He then joined the Cleveland Indians for three seasons as their west coast scouting supervisor (1979-81). He followed that with a 15-year stint with the Los Angeles Dodgers as a major league and special assignment scout.

A star athlete at Louisiana State University, Didier played both baseball and football for the Tigers, then pitched in the Detroit organization until an arm injury ended his playing career. Mel proved his diversity by serving as an assistant football coach at LSU for head coach Charlie McClendon. He also served as athletic director and baseball coach at the University of Southwestern Louisiana (1981-82). While spending 15 years as a Louisiana high school coach in both baseball and football, Mel did double-time scouting for Detroit, Milwaukee and Atlanta.

A highly regarded motivational speaker, Mel donates his time to deliver the message about surviving prostate cancer, a disease he kicked a few years ago. His presentation, "A Moment in Time," is on behalf of the Walt Disney Memorial Cancer Institute at Florida Hospital.

Mel and his wife, Helene, make their home in the Phoenix area. Mel has four children, Mel Jr., Robert, Synthia and Lori, who have combined to provide 11 grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

Don Mitchell

Director of Scouting

Don Mitchell supervises a scouting department that was the focal point of the organization at the outset, establishing the roots of the farm system as well as evaluating talent in preparation for the '97 expansion draft. He joined the organization in 1995 and assembled a staff of over 40 scouts who scoured, not only North America, but worldwide, including Latin America, Australia and Japan, filing reports on an abundance of potential major league talent.

His efforts have been rewarded with the systematic progress of drafted talent, the likes of Brad Penny, Jason Conti, Nick Bierbrodt and Junior Spivey to name just a few. The drafting of major league caliber talent is nothing new to Mitchell, who has been a part of four organizations who have achieved post-season status.

Mitchell joined perennial powerhouse Atlanta as National Supervisor in 1993, then was named Assistant Director/National Supervisor for 1994-95. He also worked as a National Supervisor with Pittsburgh and Cleveland and was an area supervisor with Cincinnati, all franchises that have experienced post-season play in the 90's.

His professional career began as a minor league player in the Cincinnati organization, playing for three years after signing as an undrafted free agent infielder. A native of Paducah, KY, Mitchell played baseball at Paducah Community College, while earning an associate of arts degree, then walked on as a junior at University of Tennessee-Martin, earning a full ride to finish school there while posting team MVP honors. He was also selected the third baseman on the All-Gulf South Conference team in 1981. He received his bachelor's degree in civil engineering technology from UT-Martin.

Don and his wife, Michelle, have three daughters, Jennifer (14), Julie (13) and Jamie (7), and make their home in the Valley.

Tommy Jones

Director of Minor League Operations

The man who coordinates instruction and works closely with the minor league general managers, field managers, coaches and trainers comes from a diverse background in baseball. A field manager at virtually every minor league level, Tommy Jones recognizes the necessities of a minor league franchise and assists each individual club in their needs. Prior to moving permanently into Arizona's front office, he managed the Lethbridge club in 1997.

Jones came to Arizona after a 12-year minor league managerial career that included seven Manager of the Year honors.

After concluding a minor league playing career that spanned six seasons (1976-81), Tommy accepted a managerial position in the Kansas City organization. It was an eventful five years in the Royals' chain, from managing Bo Jackson in his first professional season at Memphis to being a member of the big league coaching staff the year that Kansas City won the World Series in 1985.

Jones' minor league travelogue also included stops in the organizations of the Yankees, Seattle Mariners, Milwaukee Brewers and Chicago Cubs, managing in each chain. He also got his first taste of serving as an administrator with the Cubs as their minor league coordinator.

Jones has a B.A. degree in pre-law studies from the University of Pacific, where he played collegiately. He and wife, Joan, have two children, Sarah and Tyler, and make their home in Phoenix.

Bob Miller

Assistant Director of Scouting

The newest member of the staff combines a minor league operations background with outstanding computer skills to take over the role of Assistant Director of Scouting. Bob Miller joined the organization last November, bringing 16 years of experience on the minor league level to Arizona.

Most recently, Bob was the Executive General Manager of the Amarillo Dillas of the independent Texas-Louisiana League, joining the organization prior to the '98 season, after a year as the Director of Baseball Operations in the league's Abilene (TX) office.

Prior to his work in the Texas-Louisiana League, Miller spent 14 seasons with the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues, serving in a variety of roles. He began with the National Association in 1983 as the Director of Records and Computer Operations, overseeing the free agent program, reserve lists, qualification register, approval of Rule 4 Draft signings, free agent signings and rules interpretations. In 1994, he was named the Executive Director of Business and Finance, supervising the Minor League commissioner's office finances. It was then that he developed the website, www.minorleaguebaseball.com.

A Florida native, Bob graduated with a B.S. in Finance cum laude from the University of South Florida, earning "Outstanding Student" honors of the graduating class by an alumni and administration committee. He and his wife, Chris, make their home in Phoenix.

Roger Riley

Director of Baseball Administration & Team Travel

Roger's role has expanded in 1999, as he continues to make all team travel arrangements, while also assisting the baseball operations department when the needs arise regarding player movement and computer work. He made the move to Arizona after eight seasons with the San Diego Padres.

While the sport of baseball uses the winter to relax from a long year, Riley is required to have all of the hotels and charter aircraft booked long before the season begins. He must also arrange for ground transportation in each city and make sure the hotel is prepared for the team's arrival with room keys in hand, regardless of the hour. Roger is also in charge of dispensing meal money to the traveling party, and handles player ticket requests both at home and on the road.

His role with the Diamondbacks also includes work on the schedule, and making sure that game times both at home and on the road are within the guidelines of Major League Baseball. Riley also works on the exhibition schedule with other Cactus League clubs and coordinates the travel plans for all players and staff members as they prepare for the six-week stay in Tucson.

Baseball was far from uncharted territory for Riley, who played college ball at the University of Kansas. It was there he began working as a statistician, and has spent the last 17 years with a variety of network television assignments. Upon joining the Padres in 1990, Roger was the Assistant Director of Media Relations, then for two seasons worked as both the Director of Media Relations and the Travel Director. He departed from the media chair after the '96 season and combined his travel responsibilities with Baseball Administration, working with the General Manager. He and his wife, Donna, have three daughters, Taylor, Shannon and Ashley, and make their home in Chandler.

Business Vice Presidents

Scott Brubaker

Senior Vice President of Marketing and Sales

Scott Brubaker made the trek "across the street" from America West Arena and with him came a successful marketing run that is now being applied to the Diamondbacks. His responsibilities feature the supervision in a variety of areas including overall management of the sales and marketing effort, corporate sponsorships, luxury suite sales, broadcasting, community affairs, Hispanic marketing and Tucson operations. None of Scott's chores are new to him, as he gained valuable experience during his time with the Phoenix Suns and America West Arena.

Brubaker held dual positions prior to moving to baseball, working as Director of Marketing for the America West Arena and Director of Operations for Phoenix Arena Sports. Talk about diversity, he was responsible for the marketing of the Arizona Rattlers in the Arena Football League, the NHL Desert Series "out of venue" hockey games, the World Championship Boxing shows and various other sporting events and exhibitions.

His current supervision of suite sales is nothing new, as he was responsible for marketing America West Arena's 87 luxury suites, the in-arena advertising and other premium seating. Scott originally joined the Suns in 1986 as a sales and marketing representative after graduating from the University of Illinois.

Brubaker stays active away from the office, serving as a member of the Fiesta Bowl Committee, the North Central Committee for Young Life of Arizona, on the board of Gompers Center for the Handicapped, the American Cancer Society Chairman's Circle and the Arizona Diamondbacks Charities board. An avid, and outstanding golfer, Scott and his wife, Krissie, have four children, daughters Hilary, Heather and Hannah, and son, Jayce.

Dianne Aguilar

Vice President of Tickets and Special Services

Dianne has brought over 20 years of ticketing experience to the Diamondbacks, which includes an impressive array of sporting events in the Valley. She supervised ticketing for Arizona State's 1987 Rose Bowl appearance, the NBA Finals, the opening of America West Arena and the NBA All-Star Game.

Born in Phoenix and a graduate of both Tempe High School and Arizona State University, her ticketing career began in the Athletic Ticket Office of ASU during her days as a student in 1976. While still a student, she was promoted to ticket manager and during her tenure, the Sun Devils played in the '87 Rose Bowl and Sun Devil Stadium was expanded to its current size.

In 1990, Dianne was named ticket manager for the Phoenix Suns and was later named Director of Ticket Operations for the move to America West Arena. One of her monumental tasks was determining seating assignments for season ticket holders from Veterans Memorial Coliseum into the new facility. This was a skill that came in handy during the seat selection process for the opening of Bank One Ballpark.

Dianne's favorite sport, baseball, was the one she had not worked and she jumped at the chance to join the Diamondbacks as V.P. of Ticket Operations and Special Services. Her responsibilities include supervision of all ticketing, the luxury suites at Bank One Ballpark, guest services and working with the ADA (American Disabilities Act) to ensure the stadium is handicap accessible.

Blake Edwards

Vice President of Sales

Blake joined the Diamondbacks during the initial start-up phase in March of 1995, joining the club as Director of Sales and Marketing, but his outstanding effort at the outset was rewarded as 1998 began with the promotion to Vice President of Sales. His primary responsibilities include working closely with Scott Brubaker in the supervising of corporate sponsorship sales, luxury suite sales, season ticket and group ticket sales and general team marketing.

Edwards spent eight years with the Phoenix Suns as a sales manager and account executive. His work was not exclusive to the Suns, as he also had responsibilities with the America West Arena, the Arizona Rattlers of the Arena Football League, the Arizona Sandsharks of the Continental Indoor Soccer League and the Phoenix Smash of World Team Tennis.

A native of Tucson, Blake made the trip up Interstate 10 to Arizona State University, earning his Bachelor of Science degree in Marketing in 1987 and a Masters of Business Administration in 1994. He is involved with various community activities including the Fiesta Bowl Committee, the Board of Directors of the Make-A-Wish Foundation and Phoenix Metropolitan Boys and Girls Clubs Executive Council.

Blake and his wife, Kendall, make their home in Scottsdale.

Thomas Harris

Vice President of Finance

Tom joined the Arizona Diamondbacks as the Vice President of Finance in July of 1995. The man in charge of the entire operating budget, Harris and his accounting staff work in concert with each department to maintain their individual budgets. He also supervises all general accounting activities, and ensures operations are in accordance with ownership goals and objectives.

Harris came to the Diamondbacks by way of the Phoenix Suns and the America West Arena, where he was the Financial Controller of the Arena for two years. Prior to entering the sports industry, he was employed by Gene A. Schwarzkopf, CPA, Ltd. for three years.

A native of Winslow, an Arizona town that the Eagles made famous in the song "Take it Easy," Tom graduated in accounting from Arizona State University, and earned a Master's in Taxation from ASU in December 1992. He began his professional career in 1985 at Arthur Andersen & Co.

Tom and his wife, Kathleen, have three children, Sean, Sarah and Kelly and make their home in Phoenix.

Public Relations Staff

Mike Swanson

Director of Public Relations

Now in his 21st year in the majors, the 1998 campaign marked the second time that Mike Swanson went through the start-up phase of a major league franchise. He joined the Diamondbacks after the 1997 season, departing Colorado after six years with the Rockies. Swanson has also worked in the Public Relations departments for the Kansas City Royals and San Diego Padres, also expansion clubs when they began play.

Though baseball is his passion, Swanson has had the opportunity to be involved in all sports throughout his life. His mother, the late Betty Swanson, worked for both the Kansas City Athletics and Chiefs over a 36-year span, and oftentimes had the younger Swanson tagging along, working in the equipment rooms for both franchises.

From there he became a "numbers nerd," and had the good fortune to work virtually every major sporting event in the country as a television statistician. It all began in 1977 with Keith Jackson on college football and evolved into stints with Monday Night Football, and the sharing of space in booths with some of the top announcers in sports. All totaled he has worked six Final Fours, six Super Bowls, four NFC Championship Games, five Sugar Bowls and six Cotton Bowls.

Swanson, 44, and his wife Renee, welcomed daughter, Rachel Elizabeth, on January 17, joining the family that also includes a yellow lab. They make their home in Chandler.

Bob Crawford

Manager of Media Relations

After serving the Valley for over 30 years as a sports-writer, Bob Crawford was named the Manager of Media Relations two years prior to the club's first game. He leaned heavily on his writing background to author the highly successful dual book project entitled, "We're in the Show" and "Diamond in the Desert," which chronicle the building of the franchise and of Bank One Ballpark, respectively.

A resident of the Valley for over 50 years, he began covering the Cactus League in 1960 for the Tucson Daily Citizen. He later joined the Phoenix Gazette in 1966 covering spring training, the Phoenix entries in the P.C.L. and served as official scorer.

In 30 years with The Gazette, Bob was a staff writer, columnist, assistant sports editor, sports editor and assistant managing editor. He was president of the Phoenix Press Box Association in 1972-73 and 1982-83, and he was chairman of the Arizona Associated Press News Editors in 1985. He won Arizona Press Club first place honors for sports writing in 1971, 1972 and 1994.

A graduate of North Phoenix High School and the University of Arizona in Tucson, Bob and his wife, Jo Anne, make their home in Tempe. They have a son, Robert III, and a daughter, Shauna, and a granddaughter, Brittany Crews.

This year, the Arizona Diamondbacks and their fans return to Bank One® Ballpark. It's the only sports venue with both a retractable roof and a natural grass field. So when the mercury goes through the roof this summer, we'll just close ours and turn on the eight thousand tons of air conditioning. Cool, huh?

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

BACK IN PINSTripES—After 28 months of preparation, Buck was once again at the helm of a major league ballclub, leaving a team that is famous for its uniform, with a long history, to manage a club that began making history on March 31, 1998...Showalter and his staff greeted 61 hopefuls at the outset of the inaugural spring training in Tucson, with 25 openings for the first Diamondback club that would represent the Southwest...the camp in Tucson and subsequent season climaxed a stretch that had Buck wearing more than the manager's hat...named to his post on November 15, 1995, he had spent the better part of 2 years scouting major and minor league talent, traveling throughout the U.S., Japan and Latin American countries, assessing thousands of scouting reports and logging an abundance of front office hours...while a majority of the focus was on preparation for the expansion draft, the ample amount of time prior to his first game as a manager allowed Showalter to familiarize himself and his staff with the organization's youth that will eventually feed the major league level.

A LOOK BACK AT YEAR ONE—Arizona's 65-97 record was the 4th best overall start for an expansion club, 5 fewer wins than the 1961 Los Angeles Angels, possessors of the best expansion start at 70-91...the D'Backs matched the Angels for best-ever streak by a first-year club, winning 7 in a row from August 28-Sept. 4, a skein that enabled Arizona to finish the year in a 15-12 run...Showalter's squad recovered from a difficult 8-31 start to go 57-66 over the remaining 123 tilts...combined with his 4 years at the helm in New York, the Diamondback skipper entered '99 with a lifetime mark of 377-366, a .507 winning percentage.

"THE WALK"—Probably the most talked about and scrutinized move in baseball in 1998 belonged to Buck, when he made the controversial decision to walk Barry Bonds with the bases loaded...the situation had the Diamondbacks clinging to an 8-6 lead with 2 outs in the bottom of the 9th inning in a driving rain...Showalter defied "The Book" and ordered Gregg Olson to walk the Giants' slugger, bringing San Francisco to within a run, before Brent Mayne ended the game with a line out to right...it was the first run-scoring intentional walk in 54 years.

NEW YORK, NEW YORK—Buck took over the reins of one of the most storied franchises in sports on October 29, 1991, becoming the 30th manager in the history of the New York Yankees...the youngest man at the helm in either league during each of his 4 seasons as the skipper of the Yankees, he compiled a 312-269 record for a .537 winning pct....his initial year in 1992 marked a 5-game improvement in record from the previous season, and he was selected as a coach on the American League All-Star team by Minnesota's Tom Kelly, the first time a Yankee manager was tabbed a coach in the Midsummer Classic since Earl Weaver chose Ralph Houk in 1970...Showalter's 1993 club posted an 88-74 mark, good for a 2nd place finish and 13-game improvement in the standings...the change in fortunes for the Yanks began to earn Buck recognition around baseball as he finished 2nd in the Manager-of-the-Year balloting to Chicago's Gene Lamont...that squad set a big league record by spending 18 days tied for first place in the A.L. East without ever holding the lead alone, and spent a major league record 93 consecutive days (June 18-Sept. 18) within 3 games of the division lead without ever sitting alone on top...the 1994 season could be viewed as the best and worst of times, as the Yankees compiled the best record in the American League and 2nd best in all of baseball, only to have the season and the fruits of labor taken away by labor, as the strike brought the year to a screeching halt...his '94 club finished with a 70-43 mark, a .619 winning pct., and a 6 1/2-game lead over Baltimore, the largest division lead by any club in baseball...though the year ended abruptly, the effort put forth by Showalter and his troops did not go unnoticed, as he was named the American League Manager-of-the-Year by the Baseball Writers Association of America and by The Sporting News, in a vote conducted among league managers...the 1994 Yanks were on a pace to win 100 games and win the first division title for the organization since 1981...a victory in Baltimore on June 13 made the 38-year old Showalter the 2nd youngest manager in Yankee history to win 200 games, 2nd only to Clark Griffith who won 200 affairs at age 35...his 1995 club went 78-66, qualifying for a playoff spot via the Wild Card, the first post-season action for the boys from the Bronx since 1981...Buck's 4 seasons as manager marked the longest consecutive time on the job for a Yankees' skipper since Ralph Houk took over during the 1966 season and stayed in charge through 1973.

TRI-DECADE YANKEE—The 1998 season was the first time since the 70's that Buck was with a club that was not related to the Yankee organization...drafted in the 5th round as a collegian in the 1977 June draft, his playing days lasted 7 minor league seasons from 1977-83, twice reaching the AAA level...he went directly into the field leader position, coaching for the Ft. Lauderdale Yankees in 1984, then accepting his first managerial position in 1985 with Oneonta...Buck managed that club for 2 seasons, compiling a 114-41 (.735) winning pct. while finishing first in each campaign, including the NY-Penn title during his initial season as skipper... the Oneonta clubs set NY-Penn League records in consecutive years, winning 55 games in 1985, then breaking that mark with 59 triumphs the following season...he continued the winning ways at Ft. Lauderdale in 1987, winning the Florida State League title, his 2nd championship in 3 seasons... Showalter remained in Ft. Lauderdale in '88, finishing 3rd, then went to Albany-Colonie in 1989, again posting a league championship with a 92-48 record...that title marked his final minor league managerial stint, opening the '90 season as the Yankees' "Eye in the Sky" for 2 months, then moving to 3rd base coach for the remainder of that year and entire 1991 season... all totaled in 5 minor league seasons as manager in the Yankees' chain, he compiled a .635 winning pct., going an overall 360-207, which did not include a 14-4 (.778) mark in post-season play...along the way, Showalter was named Minor League Manager-of-the-Year and Eastern League Manager-of-the-Year by Baseball America in 1989, as his club won 92 games, the most by a Yankee AA team since the 1980 Nashville Sounds of the Southern League, a team that Buck played on when it won 97 games.

AS A PLAYER—Buck finished his minor league playing career with a composite .294 average...he set a Southern League record for hits in 1980, collecting 178 while finishing 2nd to Chris Bando in the league batting race with a .324 mark...Showalter's 152 hits in 1982 also topped the Southern League charts...he teamed with Don Mattingly in 1981 at Nashville, then managed "Donny Baseball" with the Yankees.

PERSONAL—William Nathaniel (Buck) Showalter III...he and wife, Angela, and daughter, Allie St. Claire (1/30/87), and son, William Nathaniel IV (12/17/91), make their home in Scottsdale, AZ...Buck graduated from Century (FL) High School, where his father, the late William Nathaniel II, served as a teacher and principal for 23 years...prior to working in education, Buck's dad was an All-American fullback at Milligan College in Tennessee, then had a brief stint with the NFL's Pittsburgh Steelers...Buck was an All-American at Chipola Junior College, graduating in 1976, then was named the MVP of the Cape Cod League after hitting .434 in the summer of '76 for Hyannisport, breaking the late Thurman Munson's league mark for batting...Buck then earned All-American honors at the major college level in 1977, his lone season at Mississippi State University, setting school marks in batting (.459) and RBI (44)...he graduated with a B.S. in Education, finishing up his class load during his first 2 seasons as a professional player...he has been a staple in the community since joining the Diamondbacks, oftentimes appearing at moments notice on behalf of the organization, as well as participating in the Winter Tour in January.

Brian Butterfield 55

Third Base & Infield Coach

Ht: 6-0

Wt: 200

Age: 41

Born: March 9, 1958 in Bangor, ME

Residence: Scottsdale, AZ

COACHING CAREER—Brian got his first major league taste of coaching 3rd base last year, taking the signs from Buck Showalter and directing traffic among the baserunners...it was far from his first test, as "Butter" brought 13 previous seasons of coaching and managing experience to the Diamondbacks' staff...his work was not limited to maneuvering baserunners or relaying signs, as he also worked closely with the inner defense, work that helped lead Arizona to the 2nd best overall defense in the National League, committing exactly 100 errors, just 9 more than the frontrunning Atlanta Braves...the '99 season is Brian's 4th as a major league coach, working during the 1994-95 campaigns on the other side of the diamond for Showalter's Yankee clubs...Butterfield wrapped up his minor league playing career in 1983 and immediately went into coaching as a roving infield instructor in the Yankees' chain the next season...he then coached for 3 years before getting his first managerial assignment in 1988 with Sarasota (A)... his first test as a manager resulted in the Gulf Coast League title, as Sarasota went 45-18 (.714), earning Butterfield league Manager-of-the-Year honors...he managed for 4 of the next 5 seasons before coaching with the AA club in Albany, his final minor league assignment prior to joining the D-Backs...all totaled, his minor league managerial record was 211-206 (.506), including a championship a decade ago...consistent with other members of the coaching staff, Brian was on board well ahead of the first game in '98...joining the organization in 1996, he served the Diamondbacks as a roving infield instructor, minor league manager and spent the latter half of 1997 scouting major league talent in preparation for the expansion draft...he weaved through the minor league players within the Arizona organization during the first year here, then was ticketed to manage in Peoria, but spent the majority of his time scouting big league players.

PLAYING DAYS—Brian's playing career spanned 5 minor league seasons, 4 of which were in the Yankees' chain...he was signed by New York as a free agent in 1979, spending his first pro summer in Oneonta, hitting .218 in 59 games...his best season was 1981 with Ft. Lauderdale, earning team MVP honors with a .286 mark in 94 games, the same club that he would manage in 1992...he achieved the AAA level for a portion of the '82 season, making the most out of a 13-game stint with Columbus, hitting .417 (15-for-36)...Brian wrapped the playing portion of his career in 1983 with Miami.

PERSONAL—Brian James Butterfield...he and his wife Jan have two children, John (1/4/79) and Chris (4/29/80) and make their home in the Phoenix area...Brian's amateur playing career began at the University of Maine, where he lettered in both baseball and basketball in 1976...he then transferred to Valencia Community College, earning Florida Junior College Player-of-the-Year honors in 1977...he wrapped up his collegiate playing career with a 2-year stint at Florida Southern University, playing for the 1978 National Champion...though he signed in '79, Butter returned to Florida Southern to earned a bachelor's degree in physical education in 1980...after his pro seasons ended in September, Brian returned to Florida Southern to coach fall ball in 1979 and assisted at Eckerd College in 1980-81...his father, the late Jack Butterfield, was vice president of player development and scouting at one time for the Yankees...a die-hard football fan, Brian's off-season weekends are packed full of plenty of pigskin, particularly watching the University of Michigan and the New England Patriots...he also took a week in January to participate in the Winter Tour, making stops in Las Vegas, Lake Havasu and Yuma.

Mark Connor

Pitching Coach

52

Ht: 6-2

Wt: 205

Age: 49 (Turns 50 on May 27)

Born: May 27, 1949 in Brooklyn, NY

Residence: Knoxville, TN

COACHING CAREER—After a pair of seasons scouting, writing and reading reports in preparation for last year's inaugural season, Mark had the opportunity to return to where he is most comfortable, coaching the pitching staff...he arrived at the first spring camp with 36 arms to choose a major league staff from, and the group that came to the Valley did not embarrass themselves, with several hurlers standing out...Omar Daal finished 5th in the league ERA mark, Brian Anderson was the top control artist in the majors, and Andy Benes tied the expansion record for wins in a first year...each of whom used Connor's experience and tutelage to their advantage...the '98 campaign was Mark's first in a big league dugout since 1993, when he was in his final year with the Yankees, also under Buck Showalter...while with the Yankees, "Goose" had the opportunity to work with some of the more familiar managerial names in the game including Yogi Berra (1984), Billy Martin (1985), Lou Piniella (1986-87), Bucky Dent (1990), Stump Merrill (1991) and Showalter (1992-93)...Connor coached at Knoxville (AA) in the Toronto chain for 2 seasons before joining the Diamondbacks...the trip to Knoxville was a homecoming for Connor, who resided there for 25 years, including a stint as the head coach at the University of Tennessee in 1988-89, the only 2 years that he did not work in the Yankee chain, from 1979-93...Mark's first coaching test also came with the Vols, working as their pitching coach from 1974-78 while finishing up grad school...during his pair of stints at U.T., Connor had the opportunity to coach future big league hurlers Rick Honeycutt, Mike Smithson and Greg McMichael...aside from his scouting duties after joining the D'Backs, he had the opportunity to impart his pitching wisdom on the youth of this franchise, working with the minor leaguers as the organization's pitching coordinator...Mark's professional coaching career began in 1979 at Paintsville of the Appalachian League, followed by 3 seasons with Greensboro as their pitching coach...he was assigned to Columbus (AAA) in 1983, then received his first taste of the big leagues in 1984, when he was summoned to the Yankees...each of the 5 clubs he coached with prior to joining the Yankees wound up with titles.

PLAYING CAREER—He pitched just 2 seasons in the Minnesota chain before an arm injury put him in the coaching mode...Mark's career began with Auburn in 1971, going 4-5 with a 2.78 ERA in 20 games...he then worked for a season with Wisconsin Rapids, posting a 3-3 mark and 3.83 ERA before the injury halted his pitching career.

PERSONAL—Mark Peter Connor...he and his wife, Katie, and children Jennie (9/14/78), Shannon (2/8/79) and Ryan (1/24/85), make their home in Knoxville, TN...Mark graduated from Chaminade High School in Mineola, NY, in 1967, then attended Belmont Abbey College...he earned a B.S. degree from Manhattan College in 1972, also receiving the Topps Award as a college All-Star in 1971...he fanned 20 batters in a game vs. Columbia University in 1971... while working as a coach at the University of Tennessee in 1974-75, Mark earned his Masters Degree...Connor credits Sammy Ellis, a Red Sox instructor, in having the biggest influence on his career...his off-field time is shared between his family, the golf course, coaching in clinics throughout the country, and closely following the gridiron adventures of the defending National Champion Volunteers of Tennessee, who won the title with Mark in attendance at the Fiesta Bowl...he also assisted the Diamondbacks in January, participating in the Winter Tour, traveling through the northern part of Arizona.

Dwayne Murphy 21

First Base & Outfield Coach

Ht: 6-1

Wt: 195

Age: 44

Born: March 18, 1955 in Merced, CA

Residence: Phoenix, AZ

COACHING CAREER—Murph made his major league coaching debut in 1998, serving as the first base coach, while also working daily with the outfielders, specializing on technique and positioning...it would behoove Diamondback outfielders to listen when Murph speaks, as he logged 6 consecutive Gold Gloves during his big league playing career (1980-85)...he spent the summer of '97 coaching at High Desert (A), as the Mavericks won the California League title...then followed that with a stint as the first base and outfield coach for the Grand Canyon Rafter in the Arizona Fall League...Murph managed the Diamondbacks' Phoenix entry in the Arizona Rookie League in 1996.

PLAYING CAREER—Recognized as one of the top centerfielders in the game during his time, Murph has the hardware to show for his efforts...he was a 6-time winner of the Rawlings Gold Glove for defensive excellence, procuring all of them in consecutive seasons from 1980-85 with the Oakland A's...he spent 12 years in the majors, the first 10 of which were with the Athletics before finishing up in 1988 and 1989 with Detroit and Philadelphia, respectively...though his offensive numbers didn't make the headlines that his glove work commanded, Murph produced 166 home runs and 609 RBI...he was named to The Sporting News All-Star team in 1981, leading the A.L. in game-winning RBI...he enjoyed a 33-home run season in 1984 with the A's, knocking in 88 runs, while posting 27 homers and 94 RBI in 1982...he also ended his playing career with 100 stolen bases, twice pilfering 26 in a season...he was part of an unusual trivia question in 1980, as Murph and Wayne Gross each stole home in the first inning of a game vs. Kansas City on May 28.

PERSONAL—Dwayne Keith Murphy...he and his wife, Brenda, have two sons, Dwayne (5/12/73) and Scott (11/23/74), and a daughter, Christina (9/2/79) and make their home in Ahwatukee...Murph played for one season in Japan in 1990 with the Yakult Swallows, then returned stateside to coach football...a 3-sport athlete at Antelope Valley (CA) High School, football landed him a scholarship to Arizona State, but he turned it down to sign with the Athletics in 1973...he returned to the gridiron in 1991 at Monte Vista (CA) High School, coaching the freshman team, then the junior varsity the following season before taking over the head coach position at California High School from 1993-95...he then returned to baseball, joining the Diamondbacks' organization...an avid golfer, Murph enjoys his Arizona residence in the off-season, honing his skills.

Jim Presley Hitting Coach

Ht: 6-1 Wt: 200
Age: 37 (Turns 38 on October 23)
Born: October 23, 1961 in Pensacola, FL
Residence: Cantonment, FL

COACHING CAREER—The '98 campaign was Jim's 9th in the majors, but his initial experience as a coach at this level...he spent the 2 seasons prior to last year working as a coach in the Diamondbacks' chain...the former 3rd baseman, who made a name for himself hitting home runs for the Seattle Mariners, was with the South Bend Silver Hawks in '97 after working in Lethbridge in 1996...the Lethbridge club set Pioneer League records for home runs and runs scored during Jim's season as the hitting coach.

PLAYING CAREER—Jim spent the better part of 8 seasons in the majors, the first half-dozen with Seattle from 1984-89...he posted 3 consecutive 20-homer campaigns, topping out with 28 in 1985, while knocking in 84 runs...his 1986 season started with an impressive 3-for-4, 2-homer and 6-RBI tilt on Opening Night, as Jim tied the game with a 2-run homer in the 9th, then won it with a grand slam in the 10th...he was Seattle's All-Star representative in the '86 game in Houston, entering the break with a .280 average featuring 18 home runs and 64 RBI...he opened the 2nd half of the season with an 11th inning grand slam to knock off Boston on July 17...he also tied the Seattle club record on September 1, hitting a trio of home runs, all off Detroit starter Jack Morris... Presley finished '86 with 27 roundtrippers and a career-best 107 RBI...he made his major league debut with the M's in 1984 and picked up his first big league hit off Bert Blyleven...he left Seattle after the '89 season and had another productive year in Atlanta, hitting .242 with 19 home runs and 72 RBI as the Braves' everyday 3rd baseman...his big league career wrapped up in '91 with a brief stint in San Diego, playing in 20 games for the Padres...he spent the '92 season with Oklahoma City (AAA), appearing in 48 games.

PERSONAL—James Arthur (Jim) Presley...he and his wife, Pam, and son, Joshua (8/12/88) and daughter, Kendall, (2/22/91) make their off-season home in Cantonment, FL...Jim graduated in 1979 from Escambia High School in Pensacola, FL...upon completing his playing career in 1992, he returned to school, earning an A.A. from Pensacola Junior College, while also gaining experience in his new trade, working as assistant baseball coach...he was a 4th round selection of the Mariners in the June draft, spending the summer of '79 in Bellingham (Rookie)...as a youth, Jim led his 1974 squad to the Little League World Series in Williamsport, PA.

Glenn Sherlock

53

Bullpen & Catching Coach

Ht: 6-1

Wt: 200

Age: 38 (Turns 39 on September 26)

Born: September 26, 1960 in Nahant, MA

Residence: Scottsdale, AZ

COACHING CAREER—The 1998 season was Glenn's 18th in professional ball, but likely his busiest, as the veteran coach worked closely with the catchers, as well as tending to the hurlers in the bullpen...his work with the receivers includes drilling them on balls in the dirt, fielding bunts in front of the plate, and throwing to the bases...it was a busy year in the pen for Sherlock, who watched 25 different hurlers get work at one point or another in his domain...he joined the Diamondbacks as the roving catching instructor in 1996 and worked with the minor league catchers in the system prior to the arrival of the big league talent... he was also tapped for his knowledge and experience during the start-up phase, when the D'Backs were assembled via the expansion draft...a longtime Yankee, Glenn was catching instructor in the Bronx twice, working in the pen in 1992, then once again during the 1994 and '95 seasons...all totaled, he was employed for 10 seasons in the Yankee chain either as a minor league player, coach or manager...originally signed by the Astros as their 21st pick in the '83 June draft, he set a NY-Penn League record during his first year for double plays by a catcher...after 4 seasons, Sherlock signed as a free agent with New York, playing for 3 years in their system...he was part of 4 titles as a player, including his final year in 1989, which was also his first taste of the instructional phase, serving as player/coach for Albany (AA), though it was more coaching than playing, appearing in just a game...he managed at Tampa in 1990 then led Ft. Lauderdale in '91, and was named a coach for the F.S.L. All-Star Game...Glenn was the catching instructor for the big league club in 1992, then returned to Tampa to manage that club in '93 while also working as an organizational instructor...his 3-year minor league managerial record wrapped up at 121-128 (.486)...he went "down-under" to hone his managerial skills in the winter of 1993, leading the Canberra Bushrangers in the Australian Baseball League.

PERSONAL—Glenn Patrick Sherlock...he and his wife, Lisa, and son, Tim (11/30/86) and daughter, Cara (11/4/90) make their home in Scottsdale, AZ...he graduated in 1979 from St. John's Prep in Danvers, MA, playing baseball and football, featuring All-State honors on the diamond his senior season...he then earned a B.A. degree in environmental studies at Rollins (FL) College, while playing baseball...Glenn was honored with the Rollins College Hall of Fame Achievement Award and earned Sunshine State All-Star status...he also played ball for 3 summers in the Yarmouth-Dennis Cape Cod League...he spent a large part of his "off-season" at Bank One Ballpark, catching pitchers who chose to get their work in...he also participated in the Winter Tour in January, taking the eastern and southern swing.

Bench Coach

Wt: 155

Age: 45 (Turns 46 on September 29)

Born: Sept. 29, 1953 in Pinar Del Rio, Cuba

Residence: Valrico, FL

COACHING CAREER—Carlos got his first full-time taste of "The Show" last year, working next to manager Buck Showalter as the bench coach after a 16-year career as a minor league manager...his organizational skills were a huge asset last year, as the Cuban born Tosca was a big help from the outset, assisting in the scheduling nightmare that comes with spring training work, and making sure that all 61 players in camp knew where to be and when to get their necessary work in...as the season commenced, Carlos assisted in filling out lineup cards and apprised the players of their pre-game schedule for the next day...his Cuban background also proves beneficial in his ability to communicate clearly to the Latin American players on the roster.

HIGHLY DECORATED MANAGER—Carlos' 16-year minor league managerial career amassed an overall record of 864-751, a .535 winning pct...he was at the helm in Charlotte in 1997, putting the Knights in the International League's Governors' Cup Playoffs for the first time since 1994...his '96 Portland (AA) club went 83-58, earning him Eastern League Manager-of-the-Year honors, while also being tabbed by Baseball America as their choice for overall Minor League Manager-of-the-Year...it was the 2nd consecutive division title for the Sea Dogs and the 6th overall first place finish that Tosca had guided during his managerial career...he was named the Carl Barger Player Development Person-of-the-Year in 1995...his first managerial duty was with Bradenton (Gulf Coast League) in 1980...his clubs had 12 winning seasons during his 16-year managerial test.

PERSONAL—Carlos Tosca...he and his wife, Geraldine, have three children, Jessica (4/13/81), Lauren (4/2/87) and Matthew (8/31/89) and reside in Valrico, FL, the same town that Jay Bell calls home...Carlos is a native of Cuba and holds a degree in Physical Education from the University of Southern Florida...his coaching career began as pitching coach at King High School in 1976 and his first professional test was with Oneonta in 1978...Carlos was a participant in the D'Backs Winter Tour, accompanying Armando Reynoso, Gregg Olson and Bob Brenly to El Paso, Albuquerque and Farmington.

Behind the Seams

Paul Lessard

Head Athletic Trainer

Paul had his first look at life in the big leagues last year, but the veteran athletic trainer took to the position as if he'd been in the role for many years. Arriving in Arizona after a 10-year stretch as a trainer on the collegiate level, it was a 2-year minor league stint that gets an assist for his hiring here. Lessard was the trainer for the Ft. Lauderdale Yankees while Buck Showalter managed that club, and the Arizona skipper recalled his work ethic and selected him to oversee his big league training room.

And what a training room it is, as the spacious Bank One Ballpark medical facilities are among the best in pro sports, featuring hydro-therapy and an X-Ray machine.

The 36-year old Lessard graduated from Northeastern University with a degree in athletic training. He spent 2 years as the assistant athletic trainer for the Atlanta Falcons, then went to work in the Yankees' chain before returning to the college ranks. Paul was the senior athletic trainer at Boston University from 1988-94, then served as the head athletic trainer at Holy Cross University from 1994-97.

A native of Stamford, CT, he serves as a certification exam coordinator for the NATA and is a member of the Eastern Athletic Trainers Association and the Athletic Trainers Organization of Massachusetts. Paul and his wife, Paula, have a pair of daughters, Grace and Anne.

Dave Edwards

Assistant Athletic Trainer

Dave Edwards had no trouble making the transition from minor league ball to the majors, jumping within the organization to assistant big league trainer. The 33-year old is in his 4th season in the organization, working in 1996 for the Rookie League entry, then moving to High Desert, where he worked for the California League champs in 1997. Edwards' bilingual skills are a terrific asset in the training room, eliminating any potential medical communication difficulties with Latin American players.

A native of Deming, NM, Edwards received a degree in athletic training from New Mexico State University in 1988. During his final days at New Mexico State, Dave began plying his trade in pro baseball with Pocatello and Everett in the Giants' chain from 1987-90. He earned his Master's in athletic training from the University of Nevada in 1991, then returned to the Valley as the head athletic trainer at Grand Canyon University from 1991-96. Dave is single and makes his home in Phoenix.

#54 Jeff Forney

Strength and Conditioning Coach

A former minor league player, Jeff joined the D'Backs with not only the book knowledge of muscle maintenance, but the game knowledge of what it takes to be done to prepare the body for baseball. He made the move from assistant baseball coach at Arizona State, working with coach Pat Murphy from 1994-96.

Prior to going to ASU, Jeff was assistant baseball coach at Notre Dame for 2 years.

Jeff has assembled a staff that covers each individual club in the system. He also designed an ultra-modern weight room in Bank One Ballpark, and had an intense winter conditioning program for those who reside in the Valley.

Jeff played for 6 years in Cincinnati's organization, reaching AAA before retiring as a player in 1991, twice earning minor league All-Star recognition. Forney graduated from Florida Atlantic University with a degree in exercise science and physiology, while earning Division II All-American status on the diamond. He has authored a pair of books, "Complete Conditioning For Baseball," and "Speed, Power and Agility Between The Lines," and an instructional video. Jeff is also the chief editor and on the Board of Advisors for Inside Baseball, an instructional magazine for baseball. Jeff and his wife, Sandi, have a son, Tyler, and daughter, Holly, and make their home in Gilbert.

Mike Lopriore

Rehabilitation/Minor League Trainer Coordinator

Mike is the Diamondbacks coordinator of rehabilitation working out of the complex in Tucson. The Louisiana native has had a long career in athletic training, dating back to his days as a student at Eastern Kentucky University in the mid-'70s. He was a student athletic trainer there while earning his degree in physical education and sports medicine. Mike then earned his masters in secondary education and physical education from the University of Southwestern Louisiana in 1979.

Lopriore has made several stops along the way to Arizona, including stints with the Seattle Seahawks during the pre-season of 1979, and with the Los Angeles Dodgers' organization from 1984-88. Prior to joining the Diamondbacks, Mike spent the last 6 years as the athletic trainer in the Sports Medicine Department at Kenner (LA) Regional Medical Center. He is a member of the National Athletic Trainer's Association. He and his wife, Heidi, have 2 sons, Michael and Lance.

Dr. David Zeman

Head Team Physician

Dr. David Zeman is the lead physician among a team of orthopaedic surgeons and primary care sports medicine physicians from Arizona Orthopaedic and North Scottsdale Orthopaedic and sports medicine specialists who work with the Diamondbacks.

Sports medicine is a specialty of Dr. Zeman, who also serves as team physician for a number of athletic organizations and schools in the region. He is an orthopaedic consultant for the Arizona State University athletic department, and a published author in sports medicine literature. He's also the team physician for Brophy College Preparatory and Xavier College Preparatory.

Dr. Zeman is board certified and an active member of the American Academy of Orthopaedic Surgeons and the Major League Baseball Team Physicians Association. He graduated from the University of Arizona College of Medicine and completed his orthopaedic surgical training at the University of Michigan. He was then honored as the Sports Medicine Fellow at Hughston Sports Medicine Clinic in Columbus, GA.

He is a graduate of Brophy Prep and Arizona State University. He and his wife, Mary Ellen, have 6 children, Brian, Karyn, Courtney, twins Michelle and Ashley and Katie.

Team Physician

Roger L. McCoy, M.D., has been part of the Diamondbacks' family for three seasons, working with the minor leaguers prior to the opening of the '98 season. He is a Board Certified Family Physician with special training in sports medicine. After graduating from Miami University in Oxford, Ohio, he received his master's degree in anatomy as well as his medical degree from Wright State University in Dayton, Ohio. While completing his family practice residency in Toledo, he served as a team physician for the University of Toledo and a couple of local high schools for three years.

Dr. McCoy was honored as the Sports Medicine Fellow at Michigan State University where he served as team physician and a faculty member teaching and developing course work at the medical school.

Aside from his responsibilities with the Diamondbacks, he is also team physician for Arizona State University, a published author in sports medicine literature and a member of the American Medical Society for Sports Medicine.

In The Clubhouse

Chris Guth

Equipment Manager

Chris joined the Diamondbacks two seasons before the club would take the field, readying the organization for all of its equipment needs, after a 10-year stint in the Yankees' chain. It was a chance meeting with Buck Showalter that led to his role with the Yankees and eventual arrival in Phoenix. In 1987, Chris was working the clubhouse at Bobby Maduro Stadium for the old Miami Marlins and came across Showalter, who asked if he'd like to work for the Yankees' organization, and Guth immediately accepted the position.

Guth is a Miami native, graduating from Palmetto High School in 1976. He and his wife, Lesa, welcomed their first child, Jason, to the family last November. Chris is not the only member of the Guth family working in professional sports, as Lesa works in the front office of the NHL Phoenix Coyotes.

Bob Doty

Visiting Clubhouse Manager

A native San Diegan, Bob made the move to Arizona in the winter prior to the 1998 season, and though his job description is that of visiting clubhouse manager, his wealth of experience in ordering equipment has been a valuable asset to the daily operation. He joined the Diamondbacks after 20 years with the San Diego Padres, the last 12 heading up the visiting clubhouse.

A graduate of University High School in San Diego, Bob and his wife, Angie, have a daughter, Lauren Elizabeth, and make their home in Phoenix.

Glenn Goldman

Video Coordinator

Glenn joined the Diamondbacks during spring training last year, bringing video technology with him. The New York native had worked for two seasons in the video scouting department of the NBA's Orlando Magic, and has been invaluable to Buck Showalter, his staff and the players in taping and logging every pitch of every game. Goldman not only has a video record of every move the Diamondbacks make, but he also records other clubs' games for future scouting purposes.

Glenn graduated cum laude in 1990 from Princeton University with a degree in economics, while earning two varsity baseball letters. He then graduated from the University of Massachusetts with a master's in Sport Management. He also served as a graduate assistant baseball coach at Amherst College.

Goldman is single and makes his home in Phoenix.

Jeff Motuzas

Bullpen Catcher

Though the job title is that of bullpen catcher, his day is full of more than simply warming pitchers. Bullpen catching is his last responsibility on a game day, as it begins with preparing baseballs for batting practice, then throwing B.P. on a daily basis.

Formerly a catcher in the Yankees' chain, he was a 13th round pick of New York in 1990 after earning All-American status at Nashua (NH) High School. Aside from his role with the Diamondbacks Jeff is a certified personal trainer.

He is single and spent last winter in the Phoenix area.

HOW OBTAINED: Selected from the Cleveland Indians as the first choice in the first round of the 1997 Expansion Draft, November 18, 1997.

1998 HIGHLIGHTS

Arizona's first choice in the expansion draft established himself as a regular in the starting rotation, setting personal career bests in every mound category, including starts (32) and innings (208.0)...it was his busiest year ever as a pro, 20.2 innings more than 1996, when he combined stops in Cleveland and Buffalo (AAA)...he was the top control artist in the majors in '98, walking 1.0 man per 9.0 innings, totaling 24 freebies, topping Rick Reed and Jose Lima (1.2) in the N.L., and David Wells (1.2) in the A.L....Anderson allowed no more than 1 walk in 27 of his 32 starts, including 15 starts without a pass issued...he closed the year with 1 walk in his last 6 starts, surrendering a walk to San Diego's Chris Gomez on Sept. 25, snapping a streak of 156 consecutive batters faced between freebies...he issued only 8 walks in his final 18 starts of the year, spanning 121.2 frames, a 0.6 per 9-inning ratio...when runners did reach base, Anderson reached into another part of his arsenal, picking off 12 men, tying Florida's Jesus Sanchez and Detroit's Justin Thompson for the major league lead...11 of the picks were at 1st base, while the other was between 2nd & 3rd...he twice had a pair of picks in a game, each time vs. San Diego...Brian recovered from a 1-6 start to the year, winning 11 of his last 18 decisions...he had a pair of 4-game winning streaks, both coming over 5-start spans...the first was from May 28-June 18, with each win coming on the road, followed by a 4-gamer from August 23-Sept. 14...the latter streak featured his most consistent work, allowing 9 earned runs over a 37.2-inning stretch for a 2.15 ERA...included was the first complete-game shutout of his career, Arizona's lone 1-0 win, tossing a 3-hitter at Pittsburgh on Sept. 3, walking none and fanning 4, facing only 3 over the minimum...the early season slide included a tough 1-0 loss in San Diego on April 13, allowing 3 hits in a complete-game setback, with the lone run an Archi Cianfrocco homer in the 5th...the home run ball was his achilles heel, allowing 39, tying Colorado's Pedro Astacio for the most in the majors...26 of the 39 hit off of Anderson were solo shots...a durable hurler, he missed only 1 start with a left elbow irritation in late July...he pitched into the 7th inning in his last 7 starts of the year and 13 of the final 16...the easy-going lefthander was voted the initial winner of the team "Good Guy" Award by the Arizona chapter of the BBWAA.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1997—Suffered a left knee sprain in the spring, hurting his shot at an opening day roster spot, but on June 11 he earned his first of 2 recalls to Cleveland...after opening with a loss, he was a 5-1 winner at home over Cincy on June 17, his first interleague action, fanning a career-high 7...had a 3-game winning streak before being scratched from a July 11 start in Minnesota 12 minutes before game time due to a sore left shoulder...went on the 15-day disabled list on July 13 (retroactive to July 5), with tendinitis...returned to the Indians on Sept. 11, making 3 starts for the Tribe during the A.L. Central title run...after not seeing action in Division Series, he combined the ALCS and World Series for 10.0 innings of relief in 6 appearances, allowing 2 earned runs for a 1.80 ERA...he appeared 3 times vs. the Orioles in LCS, earning the victory in the deciding 6th game, fanning a pair in the 10th inning, then watched as Tony Fernandez snapped a scoreless tie with an 11th inning homer...was used 3 times vs. the Marlins in the World Series, earning the save in game #4, working the final 3.0 innings of a 10-3 Tribe win...he had a pair of stints at Buffalo, closing the AAA season (including playoffs) by going 5-0 over 7 starts, with a 2.58 ERA. 1996—Was acquired from the Angels on February 15, in exchange for pitchers Jason Grimsley and Pep Harris...had 3 different stints with the Tribe, alternating between the majors and

AAA (Buffalo)...made his Cleveland debut on May 18 and went 0-1 in 5 starts, then was optioned back to AAA on June 10...had a 1-game return to the Indians on August 4, posting his 1st Cleveland win in an emergency start for injured Dennis Martinez...was optioned back to Buffalo after that victory, remaining with the Bisons until Sept. 8, then finished the year in the majors...he was named the lefthanded pitcher on the American Association Post-Season All-Star squad, going 11-5 in 19 starts for Buffalo, compiling a 3.59 ERA, 6th best in the league...was particularly tough in the final 7 regular season starts with the Bisons, going 5-1 with a 1.75 ERA, limiting hitters to an overall .170 mark (31-for-182) in that stretch...on the big league side, he was the winning pitcher in Cleveland's Central Division clinching win on Sept. 17 in Chicago. 1995—Made 18 appearances (17 starts) for Angels, despite missing over 6 weeks after straining a left biceps in a May 5 start vs. Seattle...his big league decisions were streaky, winning 5 straight starts from July 6-August 1, posting a 3.38 ERA in that stretch...included was his 1st major league complete game, a 6-hit, 13-3 win on July 22 vs. Detroit...conversely, he followed the winning skein with 6 straight losses from August 6-Sept. 5, including 5 as a starter...the streak bottomed out on Sept. 5, with an 8-0 setback at Baltimore, a contest in which he tied a major league record by surrendering 4 homers in an 8-pitch sequence in the 2nd inning. 1994—Opened the year with Vancouver (AAA), but was summoned to California on April 9 after Mark Langston was diagnosed with bone chips in his elbow...earned his 1st major league win the day after his recall, 4-1 in Milwaukee, carrying a 3-hit shutout into the 9th before being relieved...injury bug bit on May 6 when Oakland's Geronimo Berroa hit a 1st inning grounder off of his left thumb causing a non-displaced fracture...he finished the inning but was removed while warming up for the 2nd inning and he was subsequently placed on the D.L....he went 6-0 with a 2.99 ERA in the 9 starts in which he traveled into the 7th inning...18 starts were the most among big league rookies, while 7 wins ranked 2nd 1993—A 1st round pick of the Angels in the June draft, the 3rd overall player selected, he reported to Mesa, AZ...was assigned to Midland (AA) on August 18, making a pair of starts there before heading to Vancouver (AAA) on August 31...just 2 appearances later, the quick climb was complete as his contract was purchased on Sept. 7 for duty in the majors...made big league debut on Sept. 10 at Toronto, then made his first major league start on the final weekend of the season, Sept. 30 at Minnesota...the outing vs. the Twins made Brian the youngest Angels' starter since Mike Witt in 1981.

PERSONAL

Brian James Anderson...he and his wife, Anna, were wed in their home state of Ohio just prior to spring training on January 30...Brian was a 1990 graduate of Geneva (OH) High School, lettering twice in basketball, 3 times in golf and 4 times in baseball...from there he went to Wright State University in Dayton, compiling a 28-8 ledger in 46 career games (39 starts), with a 2.23 ERA...he was the Mid-Continent Conference Pitcher and Player of the Year in 1992, posting a 12-3 mark...he followed that in '93 with a 10-1 ledger and 1.14 ERA in 14 games (13 starts), walking just 6 men in 95.0 innings...Anderson was named 1st team All-American by Mizuno and Baseball America and was selected to the GTE All-American Team...he was also a finalist for the 1993 Golden Spikes Award.

...Snake Bite

You Stray, You Pay (Part I)

Brian Anderson tied Florida's Jesus Sanchez and Detroit's Justin Thompson for the major league lead in pickoffs with a dozen apiece during the '98 season. Of his 12 picks, 11 took place at first base, while he also nabbed a runner between second and third. B.A. twice picked off 2 in a game, both times involving San Diego.

Had a phenomenal late-season run to tie Tampa Bay's Rolando Arrojo for most wins ever by an expansion pitcher, finishing the year with a 14-13 mark... won 7 of his last 9 decisions to achieve 14-win mark, and closed the campaign by not allowing an earned run in his last 27.1 innings, establishing a club record... the last run Benes gave up was on Sept. 7, a 4-2 win at home over the Dodgers, finishing that contest with 4.0 shutout frames, followed by 23.1 consecutive scoreless innings over his last 3 starts, winning 2 of those affairs...he was roughed up for 8 earned runs in a 4-inning stint at New York on August 22, losing a 9-4 decision, then finished the year allowing 3 earned runs in his final 6 starts, spanning 46.1 innings, a 0.58 ERA to close the season...included was a near no-hitter in Cincinnati on Sept. 13, working 8.1 hitless innings on the turf at Cinergy Field before Sean Casey lined a 3-2 pitch to right...Andy left the game with the bases loaded and Gregg Olson recorded a game-ending double play to preserve a 5-0 win...he finished September with a 3-0 mark and 0.47 ERA, allowing 2 earned runs on 17 hits while fanning 34 over 38.1 innings, and was a solid candidate for N.L. monthly honors, but the vote took place before season finale on Sept. 27, a game in which Benes threw 7.0 shutout innings vs. San Diego... recorded season-high 10 K's in no-decision at Pittsburgh on Sept. 2, allowing a run on 3 hits over 7.0 innings, a game Arizona won, 2-1 in 11 innings...he was 8-4 with a 3.00 ERA in 15 starts after the All-Star break, allowing 6 homers in 102.0 innings...compared to a 6-9 mark and 4.73 ERA, allowing 19 homers in 129.2 frames prior to midsummer break...Benes threw the first pitch in franchise history, his 5th career opening day start, working vs. Colorado on March 31 in Bank One Ballpark, a 9-2 loss, allowing 5 runs on 9 hits over 6.1 innings...the durable hurler tied a career best with 231.1 innings pitched (1992), working into the 7th inning in 25 of his 34 starts, including the first 11 of the year...finished a .169 hitter (11-for-65), featuring 3 doubles and a home run...the homer was a solo shot on April 10 in San Diego, the first of 8 blasts given up by Kevin Brown in '98...it was Benes' 5th career homer, first since 1993 while with the Padres.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Since becoming a full-time starter in 1989 with San Diego, Benes has averaged 31 starts and 208 innings per season...has achieved double digit win total in 8 of the last 9 seasons, topping out with 18 in 1996 with St. Louis...he has been a huge performer in the final months of the season, combining September and October in regular season play for a 24-15 lifetime record, featuring a 2.74 ERA in 51 career late-season outings. 1997—Season started late due to left rib cage injury, making 3 rehab starts before winning April 28 debut at Busch over the Giants...upon recovering from the injury, the durable Benes worked into the 7th inning in 18 of 26 starts...recorded 10 or more strikeouts on 5 occasions, including a pair of 12-K games...fanned a dozen over 7.0 innings in 9-3 win over the

Giants on May 24 at 3Com, then struck out 12 in Wrigley Field in a no decision vs. the Cubs, working 9.0 innings of an eventual 2-1 Cardinal win...season ERA dipped to 2.97 after outing in Chicago...also had a pair of 11-K outings (June 4 at Pittsburgh and June 14 vs. Cleveland)...posted 100th major league win on June 24 at home vs. Cubs, a 7-2 triumph...season ended on Sept. 7 in Colorado, when he was hit by Pedro Astacio pitch while batting in 7th inning, suffering broken finger on pitching hand...despite injury-shortened campaign, he finished 10th in N.L. with 175 K's, while .230 batting average by opponents was 7th lowest in league. 1996—Set a career best with 18 wins, 2nd most in the N.L., while .643 winning pct. was 5th best...after nightmarish 1-7 beginning (5.92 ERA thru 10 starts), he had a dramatic turnaround, finishing with a 17-3 record and 3.11 ERA over final 26 appearances, lowering his season ERA to 3.83, a drop of 2.09 from the beginning...won 10 straight decisions from June 19-August 16, longest winning streak for a Cardinal pitcher since John Tudor won 11 in a row in 1985...Andy won 15 of last 17 decisions...posted only career save on May 29 vs. Colorado, recording final out of 6-5 Redbird win...his win on Sept. 9 was 17th of year giving Andy and brother Alan 31 combined wins, the most by a St. Louis brother tandem since Dizzy and Paul Dean combined for 47 in 1935...was the winning pitcher in Cards division clincher on Sept. 24 vs. Pirates. 1996 Post-Season—Fanned 9 in 7.0 innings vs. San Diego in lone Division Series start, a 5-4 St. Louis win in game #2...allowed 2 runs in 6.0 frames vs. Braves in opener of NLCS in Atlanta. 1995—Was a double-digit winner, but took both leagues to achieve it...went 4-7 in 19 starts with San Diego, then was dealt to Seattle for pennant drive on July 31, posting 7-2 mark in 12 starts, assisting Mariners to post-season play...recorded career strikeout #952 on May 31 in New York, breaking Padres' club record...had a season-high 11 K's on June 5 at Philly...was 2nd in N.L. with 19 starts and 126 K's at time of trade to Seattle, leaving San Diego as all-time strikeout leader with 1,036...won A.L. debut on August 3 at California, a 10-7 victory allowing 2 runs with 9 K's over 6.0 innings...won 5 straight decisions from August 29-Sept. 26...included was 6-2 win vs. KC on Sept. 9, featuring 19 consecutive batters retired. 1995 Post-Season—Started game #2 of Division Series vs. New York, allowing 3 runs in 5.0 innings, a game the Mariners dropped 7-5 in 15 innings...started 5th game, allowing 4 runs in 6.2 innings, but Seattle rallied for 6-5 win to qualify for ALCS vs. Cleveland...struggled vs. Tribe, allowing 6 runs in 2.1 innings. 1994—Won the N.L. strikeout title with 189 K's in strike-shortened season, first Padre to lead league...recorded 10 or more K's in 7 games, including career-best 14 strikeouts on July 15 at NY...pitched lone career 1-hitter on July 3 vs. Mets, recording 13 K's, while contributing a 3-run double...had the 3 highest strikeout games in the N.L. with 12, 13 and 14. 1993—Lost opening day start to Pittsburgh, then went 12-6 with 2.29 ERA over next 22 starts, working into 7th inning 17 times, and holding the opposition to 2 or fewer earned runs in 15 of those, 6 featuring no earned runs...hit 4th career homer on May 12 at Cincy off Jose Rijo...made lone career All-Star Game appearance, working 2.0 frames in Baltimore, fanning a pair and allowing a run...earned N.L. Player-of-the-Week honor after back-to-back starts vs. Chicago and at Cincy, allowing no earned runs over 16.0 innings in a pair of wins. 1992—Tossed 2 shutouts, a 3-hitter on May 22 vs. Chicago, then a 4-hitter on June 17 at Houston, winning 2-0 and 5-0, respectively...hit 3rd career home run on August 13 in Atlanta off of Charlie Liebrandt...won 6 of last 7 decisions in San Diego, allowing 11 earned runs in 55.2 innings (1.78 ERA). 1991—Established then career-best with 13 K's on April 13 vs. Cincinnati...hit 2nd career home run on April 27 at Philly off of Danny Cox...started career-best 10-game winning streak with 2-0 win on July 28 vs. New York allowing 5 hits over 8.0 innings...winning streak spanned 12 starts and was longest in N.L. since Dennis Martinez won 11 in a row in 1989...tossed first major league shutout with 2-0, 2-hitter at St. Louis on August 29. 1990—First full big league season, making 32 appearances (31 starts)...fired first major league complete game on May 14 vs. Philadelphia with a 2-hitter...Padres went extra-innings in 6 of his 11 no decisions, winning 5...fanned 11 on July 5 vs. St. Louis. 1989—First pro season started at AA Wichita and finished with 10 starts for San Diego...went 8-4 with a 2.16 ERA in 16 Texas League starts...allowed 2 earned in first 5 starts (0.44 ERA), including 3 straight shutouts that featured strikeout totals of 16, 12 and 11...was promoted to Las Vegas (AAA) after July 8, going 2-1 in 5 starts, then got the call to the majors...made big league debut on August 11 vs. Atlanta, fanning 7 in 6-5 loss...collected first major league hit on August 18 at Montreal, then added first big league homer on Sept. 3 off Philly's Dennis Cook...posted first major league win on August 23 at Philadelphia, a 7-3 win that triggered 6-game winning streak...the skein featured a pair of 1-0 wins over Orel Hershisser and the Dodgers...honored by The Sporting News as N.L. Rookie Pitcher-of-the-Year by recording 66 K's in 66.2 innings during brief big league stint...was named the Texas League Pitcher-of-the-Year despite spending only half of the year at Wichita.

PERSONAL

Andrew Charles (Andy) Benes...he and his wife Jennifer, and sons, Andrew Charles II (11/4/88) and Shane Ryan (2/16/96) and daughters, Brynn (11/1/93) and Bailey (12/20/94), make their year-round home in Phoenix...Andy is the eldest brother of a pitching trio, with younger siblings Alan and Adam both still in the St. Louis organization...Andy lettered in baseball, basketball and football at Central High School in his native Evansville, IN, then remained home by attending the University of Evansville...earned All-America and Midwestern Collegiate Conference Player-of-the-Year honors as a junior, going 16-3 with a 1.42 ERA and nation-leading 188 K's...led the Purple Aces to the NCAA Tourney and knocked off Arizona State in Tempe, 1-0, landing a spot on the West II Regional All-Tournament team...was drafted by San Diego as the first overall pick in the 1988 draft, but did not pitch, opting for the U.S. Olympic squad that traveled to Seoul...Benes won his lone Olympic start working 6.2 innings vs. Australia, allowing an earned run on 3 hits...highly involved in community work, Andy spent a large amount of his off-season making appearances on behalf of the Diamondbacks' Community Affairs Department...he learned of Arizona's contract offer in 1998 while on a trip to Costa Rica, joining major leaguers Danny Sheaffer and John Frascatore in helping underprivileged children understand baseball while also expressing Christian values.

Yamil Benitez

Outfielder

Ht: 6-2

Wt: 207

B/T: R/R

Age: 26 (Turns 27 on May 10)

Born: May 10, 1972 in San Juan, PR

Residence: Rio Piedras, PR

M.L. Service: 1 year, 126 days

HOW OBTAINED: Selected from the Kansas City Royals as the tenth choice in the first round of the 1997 Expansion Draft, November 18, 1997.

1998 HIGHLIGHTS

Despite part-time duty, Yamil established career bests in homers (9) and RBI (30)...a season-ending 4-for-45 slide (.089) dipped final average below the .200 mark (.199)...he twice delivered game-ending homers at home...the first in franchise history occurred on June 28 off of Seattle's Bobby Ayala, a solo shot, staking the D'Backs to a 3-2 win...he ended the Sept. 25 game vs. San Diego with a 3-run pinch-hit blast off Randy Myers, giving Arizona a 6-3 triumph, Yamil's first career pinch homer, the 3rd for the club...he hit the first grand slam of his career on June 9 at home off Anaheim's Chuck Finley...the 3rd inning blast offset Cecil Fielder's bases clearing homer in the top of the inning, the 6th time in major league history that opposing clubs hit slams in the same inning, the first time since Sept. 9, 1992, when Chicago's Ryne Sandberg and Pittsburgh's Jeff King each went deep with the sacks full in the 6th inning...he is also the possessor of a pair of Bank One Ballpark "firsts," becoming the first player to reach Friday's Front Row in left field, a 452-foot solo homer off of Seattle's Jeff Fassero on June 27, the longest home run in B.O.B.'s initial season...he was also the first (and only entering '99) player to hit the roof of the stadium, grazing a girder on Sept. 14 vs. the Giants, with the ball falling in for a base hit...season average took a beating due to tough year as a pinch hitter, going just 2-for-31 in that role, with the pinch homer on Sept. 25 snapping an 0-for-24 drought in that role...he finished with 50 starts, 35 in left, 13 in right and a pair as a DH during interleague play.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1997—Acquired by Kansas City on January 28 from Montreal in exchange for Melvin Bunch, Yamil was assigned to Omaha (AAA) until July 24...hit a 3-run homer in Minnesota off Dave Stevens in first at bat with the Royals...homered in back-to-back games vs. Boston on August 2 & 3 in KC...had only 3 home runs through May 14, but erupted for 18 over the next 2 1/2 months prior to getting the call to KC. 1996—Had a pair of stints with the Expos, but managed just 12 AB's...he was 1-for-8 during a recall that began on July 18, then was 1-for-4 after being recalled in September...led Ottawa (AAA) with a franchise record 23 homers and 81 RBI...earned a spot in the AAA All-Star Game in Salt Lake City. 1995—Was member of I.L. champion Ottawa, then after playoffs received first big league recall...made debut on Sept. 16, collecting 2 hits vs. Houston, an infield single off Todd Jones and a triple vs. Jeff Tabaka...made his first start 2 days later at Cincy, hitting first big league homer off Pete Schourek, giving Yamil 3 hits in his first 3 big league AB's...he added another home on Sept. 30 in Montreal off the Reds' David Wells. 1994—Spent year at Harrisburg and produced his highest single-season RBI count with 91. 1993—Hammered 15 home runs for Burlington (A), 5 more than he had amassed during his first 3 pro seasons combined. 1992—Started the season at Albany, hitting just .165, then was moved to Jamestown on June 15...he finished tied for 2nd in the New York-Penn League with 6 triples...after joining Jamestown, Yamil swiped 19 bases in 20 attempts...he participated in the Instructional League following the regular season. 1991—His 2nd straight year with the Gulf Coast Expos, he produced 38 RBI, 3rd in the loop. 1990—First year of professional ball was with the Gulf Coast Expos, as he hit .229 in 22 games.

PERSONAL

Yamil Antonio Perez Benitez...he and his wife, Katherine, have a son, Brian Yamil (1/29/98), and the family resides in Rio Piedras, Puerto Rico...he was signed by the Montreal Expos as a 17-year old non-drafted free agent on October 26, 1989...Yamil batted .250 in 33 games for Caguas (P.R.) last winter, with 5 home runs and 16 RBI.

Ht: 6-3

Wt: 170

B/T: R/R

Age: 26

Born: February 23, 1973 in St. Clair, IL

Residence: Edwardsville, IL

M.L. Service: None

HOW OBTAINED: Selected from the Philadelphia Phillies as the twelfth choice in the first round of the 1997 Expansion Draft, November 18, 1997.

1998 HIGHLIGHTS

Jason's first taste of AAA action ended after only 15 outings, when right shoulder surgery sidelined him in late May...working exclusively in relief for the first time in his brief pro career, Boyd was scored upon in his first 4 AAA outings, giving up 9 runs (6 earned) in his first 6.1 innings...he then settled in, giving up only 3 runs (1 earned) over his next 14.0 frames, spanning 10 appearances... Jason's season numbers, and season in general, took a beating in what wound up being his final outing, surrendering 8 hits and 10 runs (8 earned) in just 1.1 innings on May 18 at Fresno, which upped his season ERA from 3.10 to 6.23.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1997—Spent the entire season at Reading (AA), starting just 7 of 48 games after entering the year with 63 starts in 66 pro outings...allowed 32 earned runs in 30.0 innings as a starter, spanning 7 of his first 8 outings...was moved to relief and was scored on in just 2 of his first 18 bullpen appearances, totaling 4 ER in 38.0 IP, a 0.95 ERA...he opened the year going 2-5, but after regaining his confidence in the bullpen, he won 8 consecutive decisions (June 12-August 13)...all totaled, he gave up 36 earned runs in first 8 appearances, spanning 42.1 innings, then surrendered 26 earned runs over his final 36 outings (all in relief), a stretch of 73.1 frames. 1996—Was the Clearwater leader in wins (11), starts (26), innings (161.2) and strikeouts (120)...earned a spot in the Florida State League All-Star Game, pitching a hitless inning...was the FSL and Phillies' Minor League Pitcher-of-the-Week for August 12-18...that led to his earning Philadelphia's monthly Minor League pitching honor, going 3-1 with a 2.65 ERA in 5 starts in August...was the winning pitcher in the clinching game vs. Tampa in the playoffs. 1995—Was 2nd on the Piedmont (A) staff in innings (151.0), tied for 2nd in starts (24) and finished 3rd with a pro career-best 129 strikeouts. 1994—An 8th round choice of the Phillies in the June draft, Jason was 3-7 with Martinsville (R) after signing as an 8th round pick of the Phils in the June draft.

PERSONAL

Jason Pernell Boyd...he and his wife, Kristi, and their dog, Slyder, make their off-season home in Edwardsville, IL, though they spent a portion of the winter in the Valley...he graduated in 1992 from Edwardsville High School, lettering in baseball, basketball and football...his high school team won 64 straight games and Jason was the winning pitcher in the state record 29th straight victory...his efforts as a quarterback on the gridiron drew the attention of Penn State and Nebraska, but he chose to attend John A. Logan College...he compiled a record of 53-5 as a prep and collegian, going 29-1 in high school and 24-4 in college.

Wt: 190

B/T: L/L

Age: 26

Born: January 14, 1973 in Cambridge, MD

Residence: Woolford, MD

M.L. Service: None

HOW OBTAINED: Acquired from the San Francisco Giants with outfielder Chris Van Rossum as the players to be named in exchange for pitcher Felix Rodriguez, December 21, 1998.

1998 HIGHLIGHTS

Troy had his first exposure to AAA action, spending the entire season with Fresno in the San Francisco chain...he opened the year starting the first 3 games, then went into a relief mode, working out of the pen in 11 of his next 13 appearances...his only 2 starts in that stretch were a hot and cold experience, allowing just 1 hit with no walks over 5.0 innings on May 26 at Edmonton, posting a win, then following that 5 days later by surrendering 7 earned runs in 2.2 innings of a loss at Calgary...returned to the pen after getting roughed up, allowing just 1 earned run over his next 4 outings, spanning 6.2 frames, then concluded the year as a starter...best stretch was June 21-July 6, going 2-0 with a 1.23 ERA, allowing 3 earned runs in 22.0 innings...fanned a season high 7 in a pair of starts...long ball was a problem in 2nd half, allowing at least 1 blast in 10 straight starts from July 6-August 29, totaling 13 home runs.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1997—Had a breakthrough campaign for Shreveport (AA), earning Texas League in-season All-Star honors... led the league and the Giants' organization with a 2.56 ERA, going 13-5 overall...he was a 3-time winner of the Howe SportsData Texas League Pitcher-of-the-Week award, capturing the honor for May 19-25, July 21-27 and August 25-31...kept the opposition to 3 earned runs or less in 24 of his 28 regular season and post-season starts, including the last 20 in a row...had 3 consecutive scoreless starts from July 17-27, totaling 21.0 innings, going 3-0...went 9-1 with a 1.45 ERA in his final 12 starts, beginning the stretch with an 8-game winning streak...also, picked up a double and a home run among his 4 hits during the year. 1996—First full year at AA, went 9-10 in 28 starts at Shreveport...was plagued by long ball, surrendering a league-high 30. 1995—Second consecutive year to be affected by injury, undergoing left elbow surgery during the winter after missing latter half of '94...was not activated until July 19, but posted a 7-3 mark and 1.65 ERA in 11 outings (10 starts) for San Jose...was the Howe SportsData Pitcher-of-the-Week in final week of regular season...continued to shine in post-season play, going 2-0 with a 0.61 ERA (1 earned run in 14.2 innings), as San Jose advanced to California League finals. 1994—Signed as a 4th round choice in the June draft and was assigned to San Jose...season ended abruptly on July 19, when he was disabled due to left elbow tendinitis...the elbow was subsequently operated on over the winter.

M.L. Service: 1 year, 37 days

HOW OBTAINED: Acquired as a waiver claim from the Milwaukee Brewers, June 1, 1998.

1998 HIGHLIGHTS

MAJOR LEAGUE: Began year with Milwaukee's AAA affiliate in Louisville and wrapped up the campaign working in middle relief and as an emergency starter for the Diamondbacks...he appeared once for Milwaukee, allowing a run over a 3-inning stint vs. San Francisco on May 21, then was claimed on waivers by Arizona... after 4 relief appearances for Tucson (AAA), he was recalled to the Diamondbacks on June 13, spending the remainder of the year with the big league club...served the D'Backs as a middle reliever and set-up man for 23 outings before going on the disabled list with a right shoulder strain on August 22... he was activated from the D.L. on Sept. 8, finishing the year with 3 outings, a pair of which were starts...the starts were each 3-inning stints...he allowed 2 runs on 3 hits at home on Sept. 16 vs. the Giants, a game the D'Backs dropped, 6-5 in 10 innings...a week later at Colorado, also a no decision, he gave up 2 runs on 4 hits after learning of the assignment just prior to game time...he did not post a win with Arizona, twice losses...he lost in San Francisco on July 20, allowing an 8th inning homer to J.T. Snow, then at home to the Mets on August 15, giving up 2 runs in 0.1 of an inning...Bobby inherited 19 runners on the year, 9 of whom eventually scored...he was also credited with 6 holds.

MINOR LEAGUE: Bobby was used exclusively as a starter in 7 outings for Louisville before his recall to the Brewers, going 2-1 with a 4.97 ERA, twice working 7.0 innings...upon joining the Diamondback organization, he worked 4 times in relief for the Sidewinders (AAA), picking up a save in 6.1 total innings.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1997—Spent the entire year with Edmonton, the AAA affiliate of the Oakland A's, working mainly as a starter, appearing in 21 of his 25 games in that role...was particularly sharp in the latter portion of season, walking only 5 men in his last 8 starts, while going 1-0 with a 1.93 ERA in 3 August outings...he was the winner in game #2 of the PCL finals, working 7.0 shutout innings, his longest stint since April 22. 1996—Split the year between Edmonton and Oakland, dominating during his time in AAA, going 10-2 with a 2.77 ERA in 15 starts...went 5-0 with a 1.52 ERA to open year in AAA and was promoted to Oakland on May 22...made big league debut with a start in Baltimore on May 26, suffering a loss...he earned first major league win on June 22 vs. Toronto, the first of 4 consecutive victories...was returned to Edmonton in late July, winning 4 of last 5 starts, holding the opposing hitters to a .222 mark. 1995—Had first taste of AA action, spending entire season with Huntsville, leading the Stars with 14 wins, topping the A's minor league system and ranking 2nd among AA hurlers...earned Southern League Pitcher-of-the-Week honors for April 14-20, after tossing a 3-hit, 1-0 decision at Chattanooga on April 19. 1994—His 2nd straight full year at Modesto, finishing 2nd on the club in wins (12) and ERA (2.59). 1993—Obtained by the Oakland organization with pitcher Allen Plaster in exchange for outfielder Harold Baines on January 14... Chouinard spent the entire year at Modesto (A), leading the club in innings pitched (145.2)...was named California League Pitcher-of-the-Week for May 30-June 5. 1992—Led the Midwest League with a 2.08 ERA and 9 complete games while pitching for Kane County (A). 1991—Season began in extended spring, then was assigned to Kane County on June 4...went 2-4 in month-long stay, then was moved to Bluefield (Rookie) on July 5...fanned 11 in debut, tossing 8.0 shutout innings, and wound up winning first 5 starts. 1990—Signed as a 7th round pick by Baltimore in the June draft, and made pro debut with Bluefield...lost first 5 decisions before tossing consecutive complete games to end season.

PERSONAL

Robert William (Bobby) Chouinard...he and his wife, Erica, and son, Austin (7/30/98), make their home in Hillsborough, OR, though he spent a large part of the winter in Phoenix, working out with teammates at Bank One Ballpark...he graduated in 1990 from Forest Grove (OR) High School, earning All-State honors for his senior season...he played for the 1989 Forest Grove World Champion Babe Ruth team...Bobby assisted the Diamondbacks in January, traveling through the region as part of the Winter Tour.

Greg Colbrunn

Infielder/Outfielder

28

Ht: 6-0

Wt: 205

B/T: R/R

Age: 29 (Turns 30 on July 29)

Born: July 29, 1969 in Fontana, CA

Residence: Weston, FL

M.L. Service: 6 years, 88 days

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as a free agent, November 11, 1998.1998 HIGHLIGHTS

For the 2nd consecutive season, Greg opened the year with a new club, but found himself participating in post-season play as a member of the Atlanta Braves at season's end...this time, he inked a free agent contract with the Colorado Rockies, performing for the Rox through July 29, before being shipped to the Braves for a player-to-be-named on July 30...in '97, he had signed a free agent deal with Minnesota, only to be moved to Atlanta for the proverbial player-to-be-named on August 14...he combined his stops in 1998 to hit a career-best .307 over 90 games, seeing duty at first base, the outfield and even an inning behind the plate while with Colorado...all totaled, he led the majors in pinch-hit average, batting .364 (16-for-44) off the bench with 3 doubles and 11 RBI, while his 16 hits ranked 2nd to Houston's Dave Clark... Greg's season started strong in part-time duty with the Rockies, hitting .500 (12-for-24) through his first 9 games with at least 1 at bat, featuring 2 homers and 5 RBI...the stretch began in Bank One Ballpark on April 2, going 2-for-4 with a home run, then ended with a 3-hit game at Coors Field vs. Cincy on April 13...he was hitting .311 (38-for-122) at the time of the trade to Atlanta, then wrapped up the year by batting .295 (13-for-44) for the Eastern Division champs...was an overall .340 hitter (17-for-50) with men in scoring position, knocking in 21 runs...the righthanded hitter adjusted well against righthanded pitching, batting .339 (19-for-56), while hitting .291 (32-for-110) vs. southpaws.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1997—Made his first career post-season appearance, courtesy of the mid-season trade from Minnesota to the Braves...appeared in 70 games for the Twins, making 52 starts at first base...had a season-high 8-game hitting streak from April 2-13, hitting .344 (11-for-32)...had 3rd career 4-hit game on May 12 vs.

Toronto...hit his 2nd career grand slam vs. Blue Jays on August 4 off of current teammate Omar Daal... was hitting .281 with 5 homers and 26 RBI at the time of his August 14 trade to Atlanta...went 8-for-16 as a pinch hitter upon his arrival to the Braves, including a pinch home run...enjoyed a terrific post-season, delivering a 2-run single in lone pinch-hit appearance vs. Houston in Division Series, then going 2-for-3 off the bench in the NLCS vs. the Marlins. 1996—The end of a 3-year stay with the Marlins, he was the everyday first baseman for the 2nd straight campaign, establishing career bests in doubles (26), walks (25) and games (141)...also had a career-high 21-game hitting streak from May 31-June 23, hitting .386 (34-for-88)...was disabled from July 24-August 8 with a right wrist bruise...he set a Marlin record and ranked 6th in the N.L. by getting hit with 12 pitches. 1995—Enjoyed a career season, his first as a full-time player, establishing personal bests in at bats (528), runs (70), hits (146), homers (23) and RBI (89)... the home run and RBI totals were Marlin franchise records for a first baseman... set a club record and personal best with 7 RBI on July 18 at San Francisco, his first career 2-homer game, which featured his first career grand slam (off of Chris Hook)...also blasted 2 homers on August 18 at Pittsburgh in the 2nd game of a doubleheader...set a then club standard with a 17-game hitting streak from August 20-Sept. 6...finished the year hitting .333 (49-for-147) with runners in scoring position. 1994—Injury riddled campaign, he made the Marlins' opening day roster just 9 months after undergoing surgery to repair a ligament tear in his right elbow...was disabled from April 9-May 27 with torn cartilage in his left knee...returned to action and had a 10-game hitting streak (May 31-June 21)... was once again disabled from July 15-30 with a pulled rib cage muscle...he returned to hit .324 with 30 RBI over final 38 games. 1993—What turned out to be his final year in the Montreal organization, the campaign began on the D.L. due to bursitis in his right elbow...had an 8-game rehab stint with West Palm, then was activated on April 21...enjoyed first career 4-hit game on April 29 in Los Angeles...had first career pinch-hit home run on May 30 at Chicago off of Randy Myers...had season-ending surgery on August 10 to repair ligament tear in right elbow (Dr. Frank Jobe and Dr. Larry Coughlin)... was claimed off waivers by Florida on October 7. 1992—Opened the year in AAA at Indianapolis, but was recalled by the Expos and made major league debut on July 9 at San Francisco, collecting first big league hit that day off of Francisco Oliveras...hit first major league homer on July 22 off Giants' Rod Beck...was disabled August 4-18 with a muscle strain in the left side of his back...started 44 games at first base for the Expos. 1991—Missed the entire season after Dr. Jobe performed surgery to repair a tendon in his right elbow. 1990—Led Jacksonville (AA) in hits, doubles and at bats, while ranking 7th in Southern League with .301 average...earned league and Class AA All-Star honors as a catcher by Baseball America, who also named him the top offensive catcher in the minor leagues. 1989—Split the year between West Palm (A) and Jacksonville (AA), earning Baseball America's tag as Montreal's 10th best overall prospect. 1988—Signed as a 6th round choice in the June draft, he reported to Rockford to begin pro career as a catcher.

PERSONAL

Gregory Joseph (Greg) Colbrunn...he and his wife, Erika, have a daughter, Danielle (10/13/98) and make their home in Weston, FL...the '98 post-season was a hectic time for the Colbrunn family, as Danielle was born on the "travel day" between games #5 and #6 of the NLCS, as the Braves returned home from San Diego...Greg was able to get to Florida in time for Danielle's arrival and was back in uniform for the continuation of the series...a native of Fontana, CA, he graduated in 1987 from Fontana High School, earning All-State honors in baseball, while also nabbing All-Conference kudos on the gridiron...he turned down a baseball scholarship to Stanford University to sign with the Expos as their 6th pick in the '87 June draft.

HOW OBTAINED: Selected in the 32nd round of the 1996 June Free Agent Draft.

1998 HIGHLIGHTS

Earned Organizational Player-of-the-Year honors and didn't even play in the organization, playing on loan with Tulsa, the AA affiliate of the Rangers...he led all minor league players with a team record 125 runs scored and earned a spot on the Texas League post-season All-Star team...Jason also set a Tulsa team standard in hits (167), while ranking 2nd in the league with 12 triples...he also led the league's outfielders with 20 assists...he led the Texas League playoffs with 9 runs scored, as the Drillers won the league title, the 2nd consecutive championship campaign for Conti, who finished the '97 season with the California League champs from High Desert...his 3-run homer in the 16th inning on May 21 not only knocked off San Antonio, but was his 8th consecutive game with an RBI...had his best month in June, batting .387 (48-for-124), which featured a season-high 13-game hitting streak in which he batted .466 (27-for-58), featuring 10 multi-hit affairs...went 5-for-5 with a pair of doubles on August 10 at Shreveport...he didn't care where he played, hitting .316 in 65 games in Tulsa, and .314 in the same number of games on the road.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1997—Started the year with South Bend (A), and despite leaving with 2 1/2 weeks remaining in the year, he led the club in hits (142), runs (78), triples (10) and stolen bases (30) and was named to the Midwest League post-season All-Star squad...hit safely in 40 of 48 games from April 25-June 21, batting at a .394 clip (74-for-188), featuring 24 multi-hit efforts in that span...he was promoted to High Desert to assist with the stretch run as the Mavericks won the California League title...he hit safely in first 5 games with High Desert, batting .409 (9-for-22)...he hit .481 (13-for-27) in 6 games at home...all totaled, Jason was a .356 hitter in 14 games (21-for-59), while scoring 15 runs for High Desert. 1996—Signed pro contract and reported to Lethbridge (Rookie), hitting .367 in 63 games...finished 5th in the Pioneer League in batting, while his 30 stolen bases ranked 3rd...was named the Organizational Player-of-the-Month for August...after opening pro career going 1-for-7 (.143), Conti hit safely in 35 of the next 39 games at a .393 clip (57-for-147).

...MAKE IT A PART OF YOU

PERSONAL

Stanley Jason (Jason) Conti...he is single and calls Cranberry Township, PA, home, though he spent the majority of the past off-season working out at Bank One Ballpark with teammates who reside in the Valley...he graduated in 1993 from Seneca Valley (PA) High School, then remained in his hometown, attending the University of Pittsburgh...he played for the Scottsdale Scorpions in the Arizona Fall League following the '98 regular season, hitting .274, finishing 2nd in the AFL in doubles (13) and stolen bases (12).

B/T: L/L

Age: 27

Born: Feb. 23, 1972 in Maracaibo, VZ

HOW OBTAINED: Selected from the Toronto Blue Jays as the second choice in the second round of the 1997 Expansion Draft, November 18, 1997.

1998 HIGHLIGHTS

Easily the most pleasant surprise from the expansion draft, Omar opened the year working in relief, but by season's end would find himself among the N.L. elite in ERA...his 2.88 ERA wound up 5th best in the league, as he qualified for recognition by just 0.2 of an inning, working 6.0 frames in Colorado on Sept. 22 to achieve the necessary total...his 162.2 innings were 63.2 more frames than Daal had accrued in any previous professional season, entering the year with 12 career big league starts, but made 23 for Arizona...had a frustrating 8-12 overall record, the only losing record among the top 9 qualifiers in the league ERA race...he was on the losing end of 5 shutouts over the final 2 months, not surrendering more than 2 earned runs in any of those 5 losses, including a pair of 1-0 defeats...D'Backs scored only 73 runs in his 23 starts, 2.3 runs per outing, including 22 runs in his last 10 starts (2.2 per game), a stretch in which he was 3-7...posted 3 games with 9 or more strikeouts, including a club record 12 K's on Sept. 1 in Pittsburgh, working 8.0 innings of a 4-3 win...he originally set the club mark with 9 K's on June 16, a 5-1 win in Cincinnati, his first career complete game, then matched it with a 9-K performance in a 2-0 loss at Wrigley Field on August 4...he tossed the first complete game shutout in franchise history, a 4-0 win at home over the Cubs on July 30, scattering 4 hits and 3 walks with 7 K's... followed that with another route-going effort at Wrigley, the 2-0 loss in which he fanned 9 over 8.0 frames...was sidelined for 3 weeks at mid-season with a left hamstring strain, as both legs cramped up while running the bases in St. Louis on June 21...did not return to action until July 10...at the time of the injury, Daal had given up just 3 earned runs over a 22-inning stretch, a 1.23 ERA...went just 3-6 in Bank One Ballpark, but had a 2.84 ERA at home, compared to a 2.91 mark on the road...opposing batters mustered just a .223 average (59-for-264) in B.O.B., while he allowed a .263 mark (87-for-331) in road outings...excelled on artificial turf, allowing 3 earned runs in 34.2 innings, spanning 5 games (4 starts) for a 0.78 ERA...lost bid for starting role in spring training to fellow-southpaw Joel Adamson, but an injury to Adamson necessitated Daal's move to rotation...he had a 1.69 ERA in 10 relief appearances before becoming a starter.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1997—Pitched for both Canadian entries in the majors, as well as their respective AAA clubs, starting the season with Montreal then wrapping it up with Toronto...made 27 relief appearances for Expos before getting optioned to Ottawa (AAA) in June, starting twice then returned to Montreal...appeared 6 times for the Expos in July, but went 0-1 with a 9.64 ERA and was placed on waivers...claimed by Toronto, appearing in 4 games before being optioned on August 6 to Syracuse...returned to the Jays for September, working twice in relief before making starts in final 3 outings of the season...posted first A.L. win on Sept. 19 in New York, blanking the Yankees on 6 hits over 6.0 innings...was used exclusively as a starter during both AAA stops...flourished as a starter with Syracuse, going 3-0 with a 0.53 ERA in 5 outings...he was the International League Pitcher-of-the-Week after firing a 3-hit shutout in his final start on August 29. 1996—Began to show signs that starting was in repertoire, opening the year as the only southpaw in the bullpen, but ended up making 6 starts for the Expos...initial start was August 31 vs. San Diego, snapping a streak of 156 straight big league relief appearances...it was a successful experiment, beating the Padres, allowing a single while fanning 8 over 5.0 shutout innings...went back to the pen until Rheal Cormier was placed on the D.L. (August 26), then finished the year as a starter...wound up 2-3 with a 5.18 ERA in 6 starts...followed the year with a stint with Caracas in the Venezuelan Winter League, going 9-1 with a 1.49 ERA in 12 starts. 1995—Split year between the Dodgers and Albuquerque, going 4-0 in 28 outings for L.A., while working 2 months in AAA...was the winning pitcher in San Diego on the final day of the season, working 3.0 innings...excelled in Venezuela during the winter, going 10-2 with a 1.68 ERA in 13 starts...was traded to Montreal in December for minor league pitcher Rick Clelland. 1994—Opened the year in AAA, but was recalled to L.A. on April 20...stayed in the majors for a month, was optioned to Albuquerque on May 23, then returned to Los Angeles on June 23. 1993—Made 6 relief appearances with Albuquerque to start the season, then had his contract purchased by the Dodgers on April 23 and spent the rest of the year with L.A....made big league debut with a perfect inning of relief in Philadelphia on April 23...retired first 10 men he faced in the majors until allowing a single to Philly's Dave Hollins on April 30...unfortunately, Darren Daulton followed with a home run to give Omar his first big league decision, a loss...earned initial big league win on June 12 in San Diego, working 0.1 of an inning...walked in his first major league plate appearance to help L.A. win a 5-4 decision in 13 innings at Florida on Sept. 3. 1992—Split the year between San Antonio (AA) and Albuquerque, combining the experience for a 2-8 mark in 47 games. 1990 & 1991—He signed as a non-drafted free agent with the Dodgers, but pitched for their Dominican club in Santo Domingo for 2 seasons...he was 3-6 with a 1.18 ERA and a pair of saves in his first pro season at Santo Domingo, then went 7-2 with an even better 1.16 ERA in 13 games...Daal was employed as a starter in 26 of his 30 outings in the Dominican.

PERSONAL

Omar Jose Cordaro Daal...he and his wife, Josneil, have two sons, Jesus (11/10/95) and Nicholas (9/19/98)...Omar attended Valencia Superior High School in his native Venezuela...he was named to Baseball America's All-Winter League team for 1996-97, going 9-1 during the season while pitching for Caracas in the Venezuelan League...he was originally signed as a non-drafted free agent by the Dodgers on August 24, 1990.

Age: 25 (Turns 26 on October 31)

Born: October 31, 1973 in Baton Rouge, LA

Residence: Baton Rouge, LA

M.L. Service: 1 year, 33 days

HOW OBTAINED: Selected from the Baltimore Orioles as the ninth choice in the second round of the 1997 Expansion Draft, November 18, 1997.

1998 HIGHLIGHTS

MAJOR LEAGUE: Began the season with Tucson, his first career AAA action, but lasted only 17 games there before getting the call to the major league club, where he remained for the year...was recalled on April 27 and made D'Back debut that night, going 2-for-4 with 2 RBI...though not an everyday player in the latter half of season, he wound up leading the N.L. in triples with 12, just the 2nd rookie since 1984 to lead the league in 3-base hits (Ray Lankford with St. Louis in 1991)...he made a solid first impression, hitting .400 (10-for-25) in his first 9 games with the Diamondbacks, including initial N.L. homer, a 2-run shot in Montreal on May 1 off of Javier Vazquez...best overall stretch was an 11-game road trip through San Francisco, Colorado and Oakland (May 28-June 7), in which he batted .385 (15-for-39) with 8 doubles, 2 homers, 8 RBI and a trio of spectacular catches, 1 at each stop...the trip began with a double, homer and diving catch into foul territory at 3Com Park that was turned into an inning ending double play...trip also featured first career 4-hit game, including 3 doubles, on June 2 at Colorado, just the 4th expansion player in history to pick up 3 doubles in a game (Rusty Staub, Doug Rader and Charlie Hayes)...he had a pair of 7-game hitting streaks, the first from June 5-12, batting at a .393 clip (11-for-28), then duplicated it from August 24-Sept. 5, batting .346 (9-for-26)...homered 5 times in the first 52 games, then did not go deep again in his final 72 games, the last home run coming on June 23 at Texas off of lefty Eric Gunderson...the left-handed hitting Dellucci batted .273 (27-for-99) against southpaws, while hitting .256 (81-for-317) against righties...he started all 3 outfield positions, spending the majority of his time in left with 80 starts, while also getting the nod in center (15) and right (8)...he went 4-for-7 (.571) with 7 RBI when batting with the bases loaded, and had a .294 mark (30-for-102) with runners in scoring position...he was a .351 hitter on the first pitch (27-for-77)...scuffled during part-time duty in August, after Bernard Gilkey trade, hitting only .170 (9-for-53).

MINOR LEAGUE: Hit .306 in 17 games for the Sidewinders (22-for-72)...he had a 9-game hitting streak alive at the time of his recall, hitting .381 (16-for-42) with 3 doubles, 2 triples and 7 RBI.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1997—Opened the year with Bowie, but made the jump from AA to the majors in June, appearing in 9 games for Baltimore...went 4-for-23 (.174), which included his first big league home run, a solo shot in Milwaukee on June 25 off of Cal Eldred...he was also part of the September recalls, appearing in 8 games during the final month, going 2-for-4...was hitting only .200 through the first 3 weeks at Bowie, but from May 16-30, hit safely in 13 of 14 games at a .453 clip, featuring back-to-back 4-hit games on May 29 & 30, including 3 homers...he was summoned to Baltimore after the game on the 30th...returned to Bowie on the final day of June and went on another tear on July 9, hitting safely in 8 straight with a .484 mark...played all 3 outfield positions, though the majority of his time was in center, committing only 1 error. 1996—Had the 6th best overall average among Baltimore farmhands, hitting a combined .305 with Frederick (A) and Bowie (AA)...hit .458 (27-for-59) in a stretch from June 2-22 at Frederick to up season average from .273 to .337...was promoted to Bowie on June 26 and went 4-for-5 with 3 doubles, 2 runs and 2 RBI in debut game...hit .373 (22-for-59) in his first 16 games of AA action. 1995—Enjoyed the home field at Frederick, batting .340 (17-for-50), while hitting only .217 (10-for-46) on the road...hit .383 (18-for-47) during 12-game hitting streak (July 23-August 5).

PERSONAL

David Michael Dellucci...he is single and resides in his native Baton Rouge, LA, where he graduated from Catholic High School in 1992...David was team MVP in both baseball and football as a prepster, while earning All-State honors on the diamond...followed high school with 3 outstanding years of baseball at the University of Mississippi, where he was named All-Southeastern Conference in both 1994 and '95...Dellucci also earned All-American status in '95, setting 10 school records while leading the SEC in hitting...was also named Athlete-of-the-Year at Ole Miss in 1995...David was a 10th round pick of the Orioles in the 1995 June draft...an avid fan of the WCW wrestling craze, he is often in the company of fellow Valley resident, and World Champion, Kevin Nash, and had the opportunity to meet other grapplers, Goldberg and Diamond Dallas Page, during the season...also a music buff, he made a lasting first impression with Megadeath guitarist, Dave Mustaine, also a Valley resident, when he flipped a foul ball to the rock star during a home game, only to soak the musician with a soft drink that was in the line of flight.

1998 HIGHLIGHTS

The durable outfielder led the Padres with 159 games, his 4th major league season with at least that many games played...though the average tailed off to .249, he hammered 60 extra-base hits, or 39% of his overall hit total...to put his extra-base hits in perspective, Arizona's leader in that department during the inaugural year was Devon White with 55...Steve's 40 doubles were tied for 10th in the N.L., while ranking 2nd on the club with 92 runs, though it was the first time in 4 seasons that he did not eclipse the 100-run mark...had a pair of 4-hit games, the first included a club record-tying 3 doubles and personal best matching 5 RBI, leading the Padres to a 17-8 thrashing of the Rangers in Arlington on June 7...also had 4 hits on August 24 in 7-2 triumph at Milwaukee...he had a season-high 11-game hitting streak from July 11-23, hitting .350 (14-for-40)...he hit his 5th career first inning leadoff homer, taking the Giants' Shawn Estes deep to open the scoring on Sept. 9 in San Diego...it was his 2nd with the Padres, after hitting 3 with Houston...a charter member of the "if you can't beat him, sign him" club, Steve traumatized the D'Backs with a .333 mark (14-for-42) which included a crushing blow in April...he ended a game that Arizona appeared to have in hand on April 10, delivering a 9th inning, 2-out, grand slam off of Felix Rodriguez, lifting the Pads to a 6-4 win...it was the 6th slam of Finley's career, his 4th with San Diego...in just 4 seasons with the Padres, he ranked 5th in club history with 244 extra-base hits, 6th in runs scored (423) and tied with Carmelo Martinez for 7th in homers (82)...Steve hit 47 home runs in his first 7 seasons as a big leaguer, but has managed 72 blasts in his last 3.

POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS: Steve rode the offensive rollercoaster during the Padres' run into fall ball, finishing October play with a .209 mark, going 9-for-43 in 13 games...he struggled through a 1-for-10 in the Division Series vs. the Astros, but rebounded to hit .333 (7-for-21) in the 6-game N.L.C.S., featuring 6 walks and only 1 strikeout...Finley was not as fortunate in the Fall Classic against the Yankees, going just 1-for-12 while appearing in 3 of the 4 games.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Steve entered the 1999 season ranking 8th among active players in triples with 75, trailing former teammate, Tony Gwynn, who ranks 7th with 84. 1997—Led the Padres in homers (28), triples (5) and runs (101), ranking 8th in the N.L. in scoring...also ranked in the top 3 on the club in RBI, extra-base hits, hits, doubles and stolen bases, earning his first trip to the All-Star Game...added his name to the record book by becoming the 6th National Leaguer and 11th player in big league history to homer 3 times in a game twice in the same season...first 3-bomb game was on May 19 at Cincinnati, hitting a pair of shots off of Pete Schourek, then taking Stan Belinda deep, all solo homers...he duplicated the effort on June 23 at San Francisco, clubbing bases empty shots off of Mark Gardner and Rich Rodriguez, then hitting a 2-run home run in the 9th off of Joe Roa...he also singled in the game to set a club record with 13 total bases, 1 more base than Nate Colbert's club record 3-homer game on August 1, 1972...the 2nd 3-homer game led to his 2nd career N.L. Player-of-the-Week honor, finishing the week of June 23-29 with a .520 mark (13-for-25) with 6 homers and 9 RBI, adding a 2-homer and 3-RBI affair on June 28 in Los Angeles...for good measure, Finley had another 2-homer tilt on July 3 vs. Seattle...he slugged career home run #100 on August 23 at Shea Stadium off of Dave Mlicki. 1996—Had a career year, setting personal bests in virtually every category, while rewriting the San Diego record book...set career bests in average, runs, hits, doubles, homers, extra-base hits, total bases (348), RBI, slugging pct. (.531) and at bats, and finished 10th in the N.L. MVP balloting...in the process, he established Padres' records in runs, doubles, extra-base hits and total bases...he was also 22 for 30 in stolen bases, becoming just the 4th Padre in history to hit 20 homers and steal 20 bases...he also had a career-high 21-game hitting streak from June 20-July 14, hitting .419 (29-for-93)...of his 30 home runs, 18 either tied the score (4) or put the Padres ahead (14)...he had a streak of 3 homers in as many at bats on June 29-30 in San Francisco, hitting a 3-run blast off Mark Leiter and a 2-run shot off of Rod Beck on the 29th, then hit a solo homer off of William VanLandingham the following day...Finley had a career-high 5-hit game on May 23 at Philly...he hit the 3rd grand slam of his career on June 1 at Philly off of southpaw Dave Leiper...notched career hit #1,000 on June 5, a double off St. Louis' southpaw Donovan Osborne...enjoyed a milestone evening on Sept. 10 vs. the Pirates, joining the 20/20 club with his 20th steal, then setting the club record for doubles in a season, and ending the contest with a 2-out, 0-2, 2-run homer to give the Friars a 6-5 win...he batted .308 with 9 home runs in September to ensure San Diego's first trip to the post-season since 1984...defensively, he earned his 2nd consecutive Rawlings Gold Glove...he struggled offensively in the Division Series vs. the Cards, going just 1-for-12...he wrapped up 1996 by earning MVP honors on an 8-game Major League Baseball All-Star tour through Japan, hitting .400 (8-for-20) in the 7 games he played, with 4 doubles and 9 RBI. 1995—His first year in San Diego, he was the only National League player to achieve 100 runs, 10 homers and 35 stolen bases (Minnesota's Chuck Knoblauch was the only A.L. player)...Finley earned his first of a pair of Rawlings Gold Glove Awards...was used in the leadoff spot in 73 games and hit a major league best .338 (103-for-305) in that slot, with 62 runs, 15 doubles, 6 triples, 6 homers, 28 RBI and 25 steals...stole a career-high 4 bases on August 12 vs. St. Louis... was in the delivery room on Sept. 1 when son Reed was born, then headed to the ballpark and played in the 8th & 9th innings of San Diego's 6-3 win over the Phillies. 1994—Steve appeared in 94 games of an injury and strike-shortened season, missing nearly a month after being hit by a pitch on June 8 in Montreal, breaking the 3rd metacarpal bone in his right hand...he was placed on the D.L. on June 13 and did not return until July 3...hit his 2nd career grand slam on July 17 at Pittsburgh off of Paul Wagner, then tied a Houston club record on July 23 with 4 runs scored, also vs. the Pirates...Finley was part of the 11-player trade with San Diego on December 28. 1993—He was slowed by an early-season ailment and injury, limiting his full-time action until mid-May...was slowed in spring training by Bell's Palsy, a viral infection of a nerve in the upper neck, resulting in numbness that prevented him from closing his left eye...he then played the first 16 games of the year before getting plunked by a John Candelaria pitch on April 24 in Pittsburgh...it was first believed to be a bruise, but further examination revealed a hairline fracture, which forced him on the D.L. from April 27-May 14...upon returning, he did not collect his first triple of the year until the 41st game and still led the N.L. with 13. 1992—Steve and teammates Craig Biggio and Jeff Bagwell were the only 3 N.L. players to participate in all 162 games...he finished in the league's top 10 in hits, triples, stolen bases and sacrifice bunts...he set then career highs in hits, doubles, triples, RBI, walks and stolen bases...he had a 4-RBI game on May 26 at Montreal, and a pair of 4-hit affairs (July 7 at Pittsburgh and August 5 at Los Angeles)...finished strong, hitting .306 (81-for-265) after the All-Star break. 1991—Finley's first year as a National Leaguer, he was acquired by the Astros on January 10 with pitchers Pete Harnisch and Curt Schilling in exchange for Glenn Davis...Steve tied for 6th in the N.L. with 170 hits, while ranking 3rd in the loop in triples (10) and games played (159), and 4th in at bats (596)...his 13 outfield assists tied Barry Bonds and Paul O'Neill for 3rd in the league...he matched a personal best with a pair of 4-hit games, May 29 and August 15, both at Dodger Stadium. 1990—Led the Orioles with 22 stolen bases, while ranking 2nd on the club with 119 hits...had a trio of 4-hit games, May 22 vs. Minnesota and twice vs. the Angels (August 11 and Sept. 7). 1989—Made his major league debut for Baltimore on opening day vs. Boston...on first career big league fielding chance, Steve made a diving catch while crashing into the wall in right-center, suffering a right shoulder sprain that necessitated a trip to the disabled list...was activated on April 22 and picked up first big league hit that night, a single off of Minnesota's Fred Toliver...hit first major league home run on April 25 off California's Willie Fraser...blasted first grand slam on June 5 at Yankee Stadium off of lefthander Chuck Cary...tied an Oriole club record on Sept. 7 with 3 steals in game #1 of twinbill at Texas. 1988—In his 2nd pro season, Steve was named International League Rookie-of-the-Year, leading the I.L. in batting (.314) and hits (143) to help Rochester to the title...it was a quick climb, opening the year at Hagerstown (A), appearing in 8 games, then participated in 10 games at Charlotte (AA), before heading to Rochester. 1987—Signed with Baltimore as a 14th round choice in the June draft and reported to Newark, earning a spot on the New York-Penn League All-Star team.

PERSONAL

Steven Allen (Steve) Finley...he and wife, Amy, and sons, Austin (10/8/93), Reed (9/1/95) and Blake (2/23/97) make their home in Del Mar, CA...Steve graduated from Paducah (KY) Tilghman High School, then went to Southern Illinois University at Carbondale, earning a degree in physiology...he was accepted to chiropractic school (Logan College in St. Louis), but opted to play pro ball...he was drafted by Atlanta in the 11th round of the '86 June draft, but chose to remain at S.I.U., where he was a 2-time All-Missouri Valley Conference player, and a 3rd team All-American in 1986...Finley's 1984 and '86 S.I.U. clubs each captured conference titles...he was a member of Team USA in 1986 that won the Bronze medal in international competition in the Netherlands...Steve's father is a retired middle school dean in Paducah, while his mother is still teaching middle school...Steve earned the 1997 Chairman's Award with San Diego, as the Padre who best exemplifies the community spirit of team owner John Moores and his family...both Steve and Amy have been extremely active in the communities that Steve has called home during the baseball season, inspiring the Padres Scholars program in 1995...they also began a program in which they purchased 20 tickets for every game to enable underprivileged children to attend games, and are continuing the program in Bank One Ballpark as a member of the Diamondbacks...they toured Indonesia in '95 and Hungary in '92, conducting youth baseball clinics and providing equipment to help form leagues...the family also formed the Steve Finley Charitable Youth Fund in 1993, encouraging kids to stay in school, earn a degree and live drug free.

HOW OBTAINED: Selected from the New York Yankees as the ninth choice in the first round of the 1997 Expansion Draft, November 18, 1997.

1998 HIGHLIGHTS

MAJOR LEAGUE: Completed a climb through the ranks, getting his first work in both AAA and the majors during the year...was recalled to the majors for a whirlwind 48 hours on August 20...the recall took place between games of a doubleheader in Philly and he debuted in the nightcap, giving up 4 runs on 5 hits over 1.2 innings...fortunately, the D'Backs rallied for a 12-9 win in 11...Ben was optioned back to Tucson the next day, but did not leave the club, as Bobby Chouinard was placed on the D.L. on August 22, necessitating the return of Ford to the active roster...he recorded the first strikeout of his big league career on Sept. 16, fanning San Francisco's Stan Javier...Ben's best outing was a scoreless 9th inning at home against Atlanta on Sept. 19, fanning 2 of 3 men he faced.

MINOR LEAGUE: Appeared in 48 games for Tucson, going 2-5 with a club leading 13 saves, matching Martin Sanchez for the most rescues among D'Back minor leaguers...Ford had a pair of solid stretches during the AAA season, beginning with 9.2 consecutive shutout innings (May 25-June 9), allowing 5 hits over 7 games...he allowed just 1 earned run from June 25-July 18, spanning 9 games, totaling 11.1 innings for a 0.79 ERA

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1997—Started the year with Tampa (A), going 4-0 with 18 saves, allowing 1 homer in 37.1 innings...blanked the opposition in his final 9 outings for Tampa, spanning 10.1 innings, then was promoted to Norwich (AA) in mid-June...was a winner on June 23 vs. New Haven, starting a 4-game winning streak...recorded first AA save in next-to-last outing on August 26 at Trenton...allowed 62 hits in 290 at bats between the 2 leagues, a composite opposing batting average of .214.

1996—First full season at Greensboro, went 2-6 with a pair of saves in 43 relief appearances...despite lofty ERA of 4.26, he fanned 84 men in 82.1 innings.

1998 HIGHLIGHTS

Arriving on the scene in the middle of spring training, it was a trade that benefitted both the Diamondbacks and Andy, establishing himself as a major leaguer during the '98 campaign...he set personal big league bests in every offensive category, serving as Arizona's leadoff hitter for the final 4 1/2 months of the season...provided versatility to stay in the lineup on a daily basis, starting at 6 different positions, including all 3 outfield spots, 3rd base, 2nd base and 1st base...he was used on the infield corners when injuries sidelined both Matt Williams and Travis Lee for extended stretches...Anaheim's Craig Shipley was the only other major leaguer to start at 6 different positions in '98...Andy was hitting .246 as of May 15, the first day he served as the leadoff hitter and debuted by going 3-for-5 vs. the Pirates...he batted .314 (77-for-245) in his first 64 games at the top of the order, topping his season mark out at .299...despite struggling to a .214 mark in September (18-for-84), Fox finished hitting .282 in the #1 slot in the order (120-for-426)...he finished 6th in the N.L. with 18 hit by pitches, establishing an expansion player record for bruises, 3 more than Montreal's Mack Jones in 1969...he was the toughest player to double-up in the National League, grounding into only 2 double plays in 502 at bats, a ratio of 1 in every 251.0 AB's...Fox had his first career 4-hit game on July 28 at home vs. the Cubs, starting the contest with a leadoff home run, his 2nd of the year (June 12 vs. St. Louis)...he tied a club mark with 4 runs scored in the nightcap of a twinbill at Philly on August 20, as Arizona rallied from 9-4 deficit to win a 12-9 decision in 11 innings...he was the only D'Back to steal home, pilfering the plate on the back half of a double steal on August 16...he holds the club record by reaching base safely in 7 consecutive plate appearances (June 26-28) with 4 hits and 3 walks...he had a pair of career-high 8-game hitting streaks, the first featuring an impressive .515 mark (17-for-33) from July 25-August 1, followed just 2 days later with the other 8-gamer, hitting .282 (11-for-39)...did not play as a regular until mid-May, yet finished 3rd on the club with 39 multi-hit games...epitomizing consistency, Andy hit .277 (67-for-242) in 72 games prior to the All-Star break, then hit .277 (72-for-260) in 67 games after the break...he was 26-for-78 (.333) with runners in scoring position...a lefthanded hitter, Fox batted .333 (32-for-96) against southpaws, while hitting .264 (104-for-406) vs. righties.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1997—Spent the majority of the year with Columbus (AAA) in the Yankees' chain, earning the distinction as the "Best Baserunner" among AAA players in a poll of managers by Baseball America...appeared in just 22 games with the Yankees, going to the plate 31 times during a pair of recalls...he was a member of the post-season roster, twice appearing as a pinch runner in the Division Series vs. the Indians. 1996—Hit just .196 in 113 games for the World Champion Yankees...recorded first major league hit on April 11 vs. Kansas City, a single off of Tim Lincecum...hammered initial big league homer on June 6 vs. Toronto, a 3-run blast off of Paul Spoljaric...he had 9 assists at 3rd base in a game on June 11, 2 shy of a big league record...Fox saw action in 8 post-season games, 7 times as a pinch runner, scoring a run during the Fall Classic vs. the Braves. 1995—All of his playing time came at Columbus (AAA) and Norwich (AA), and was recalled to the majors on Sept. 18, though did not appear in a game...he earned International League Player-of-the-Week honors for June 12-18...he ended '95 playing for Scottsdale in the Arizona Fall League, hitting .353 in 9 games before a bruised left knee ended his year. 1994—Spent the entire year at Albany (AA), hitting .222 in 121 games, but turned heads with his Fall League performance, hitting .272 with 7 homers, 41 RBI and 9 stolen bases with Peoria...his fall performance earned Fox one of the top prospect honors as voted by league managers...he was the first AFL Player-of-the-Week, hitting .407. 1993—Was limited to 65 games at Albany (A), spending nearly 2 month on the D.L. with a sprained finger on his right hand. 1992—Appeared in 125 games for Prince William (A), earning the "Best Defensive Third Baseman" and "Best Infield Arm" awards in a Baseball America vote of Carolina League managers. 1991—His first season at Prince William, he hit for a cycle on May 4 vs. Lynchburg...played 126 games at 3rd base, and earned a spot on the Carolina League All-Star team. 1990—While with Greensboro (A), he was named to the South Atlantic League All-Star squad as the 3rd baseman. 1989—Signed as a 2nd round choice in the June draft and was assigned to Sarasota.

...MAKE IT A PART OF YOU

PERSONAL

Andrew Junipero (Andy) Fox...he and his bride, Stefanie, were wed last November, then honeymooned in Maui...he graduated in 1989 from Christian Brothers High School in his native Sacramento, CA, lettering in baseball, basketball and football...Andy had the opportunity to play baseball at Loyola-Marymount University, but turned it down and signed a professional contract.

HOW OBTAINED: Selected from the Texas Rangers as the twelfth choice in the second round of the 1997 Expansion Draft, November 18, 1997.

1998 HIGHLIGHTS

MAJOR LEAGUE: Had a pair of brief stints with the D'Backs, though his year in general didn't begin until mid-June due to hamate bone surgery in spring training...was recalled for the first time on August 7, and played shortstop 2 days later, going 0-for-4 at Montreal...he made a splash with his first N.L. hit and first major league home run, taking Philly's Mike Grace into the pool on August 12, the 2nd of 3 pinch-hit homers in Arizona's inaugural season (Tony Batista and Yamil Benitez)...Hanley was 1-for-9 before being optioned back to Tucson on August 20...he returned to the majors, going 2-for-14 in September.

MINOR LEAGUE: Appeared in only 63 games for Tucson, combining some big league time with disabled time due to the hamate bone surgery...he was hitting .217 on July 19, but hit safely in 27 of his last 28 games in AAA, batting .363 (45-for-124)...included was a 10-game hitting streak just prior to his initial recall to Arizona, batting .455 (20-for-44) in the skein, featuring a 5-for-5 game on July 28 vs. Calgary...he was a .324 hitter (45-for-139) in 35 games in Tucson.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1997—Had a pair of stints with the Rangers, appearing in 14 games...originally recalled on June 19, and made major league debut 2 nights later vs. Seattle as a pinch hitter...was optioned to AAA on June 23, then recalled to finish year in September, batting .200 (5-for-25) in 12 games, including 7 starts at short...doubled on Sept. 16 vs. Kansas City for first major league hit...first big league RBI was a game-winner on Sept. 28 in Anaheim...opened year with first look at AAA, hitting .338 as late as May 12 with Oklahoma City...he led all AAA shortstops in total chances (623). 1996—Spent entire season at Tulsa (AA), leading the Texas League in triples (12)...hit safely in first 13 games of the season at a .396 clip (21-for-53)...topped T.L. shortstops in fielding pct. (.965), assists (417), total chances (637) and double plays (84)...went 4-for-11 in playoffs, then came to Arizona for the Fall League, batting .219 for Tempe. 1995—Hit .333 in 33 games for Charlotte (A) and earned promotion to Tulsa...had an 11-game hitting streak with the Drillers in July. 1994—Was on loan to High Desert of the California League, pilfering a pro career best 37 bases...led league shortstops in assists (404). 1993—Ranked 2nd on Charleston in runs (61) and stolen bases (27). 1992—Led the Gulf Coast League in runs and finished 2nd with 26 stolen bases.

...Snake Bite Uniformity

The Diamondbacks used 12 uniform combinations during their inaugural campaign, possessing 5 different jersey options to go with 4 hat styles. The sleeveless home jersey with the white hat had the best across the board statistics, topping the combo's with a 7-4 record, a .288 team batting average and 3.26 ERA. The D'Backs were 10-10 when attired in the purple jersey with the purple hat for the 2nd best mark.

The most popular home outfit was the white sleeveless, wearing it on 36 occasions (16-20), while the club dressed in the purple jersey (12-10) and traditional white pinstripe top (6-16) 22 times each. The D'Backs wore their black jersey at home once, losing that contest. Arizona dressed in their gray road top and their black tops 40 times each, going 12-28 in the gray and 19-21 in the black, while losing their only try in purple on the road.

Following are the combinations, with their overall record, batting average, home run per game ratio and ERA:

Age: 32 (Turns 33 on September 24)

Born: September 24, 1966 in St. Louis, MO

Residence: St. Louis, MO

M.L. Service: 8 years, 30 days

HOW OBTAINED: Acquired with pitcher Nelson Figueroa from the New York Mets in exchange for pitcher Willie Blair, catcher Jorge Fabregas and cash considerations, July 31, 1998.

1998 HIGHLIGHTS

Joined the Diamondbacks at the trading deadline, appearing in 29 games for Arizona before pulling the curtain on his year to undergo laser eye surgery in Calgary, Alberta, on Sept. 14...he was hitting just .227 at the time of the trade, and hit a slightly better .248 while a member of the Diamondbacks, featuring a modest 5-game hitting streak...he batted .368 (7-for-19) during the mid-August streak that featured his lone home run with Arizona, a solo blast at home off of Montreal's Dustin Hermanson...the brief streak came to a halt in the nightcap of a doubleheader at Philly on August 20, when he tied a club mark with 4 walks... Bernard had a promising start to the year, hitting .323 (21-for-65) in April, but the month ended with a trip to the disabled list due to a left elbow stress fracture... he returned to action in mid-May but struggled through a 1-for-32 drought in his first 11 games back in the lineup...he snapped out of the dry spell with a season best 7-game hitting streak, batting .483 (14-for-29) with 5 doubles, 2 homers and 6 RBI, collecting 2 or more hits in 5 of those affairs...fell onto hard times offensively again, batting just .168 (23-for-137) during June and July before the trade to the D'Backs...he was most effective in the #3 spot in the order, batting .273 (24-for-88)...Bernard hit .444 (20-for-45) on the first pitch of an at bat...despite missing 51 games, he tied for 8th in the N.L. with 12 outfield assists.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1997—Though his numbers fell from the career season of '96, he still had a productive campaign for the Mets, posting his 2nd highest homer and RBI counts with 18 and 79, respectively, while leading the N.L. for the 2nd straight year in outfield assists with 17...it marked the 5th consecutive year he had paced his club in outfield assists...was hitting just .210 on August 10, but batted .347 (51-for-147) over final 43 games to up average 39 points...climaxed a dramatic comeback victory by hitting his 2nd career pinch-hit home run, snapping a 6-6 tie in Shea on Sept. 13, a 3-run blast off Montreal's Mike Thurman in the 11th inning (the Mets had trailed the game, 6-0, entering the 9th)...had 5th career 2-homer game on Sept. 15 in game #1 of doubleheader at Philly...had 4-hit games on August 16 vs. Colorado and August 27 vs. San Francisco, giving him 12 career 4-hit affairs...matched a career-best with 4 RBI on August 30 at Baltimore, his 7th 4-RBI game...twice collected 2 hits in the same inning, April 28 at Cincy (5th inn.) and August 27 vs. S.F. (7th inn.). 1996—Achieved career highs in batting, hits, runs scored, doubles, homers, RBI and AB's...Bernard joined Lance Johnson as the first Met teammates to score 100 runs in a year, and joined Todd Hundley as the first Met pair to knock in 100 runs in the same season...his 44 doubles established a Mets' record, 3 more than Howard Johnson in 1989, and 117 RBI tied Johnson's 1991 team standard...led the N.L. with 73 road RBI, tied for 2nd in the majors with 34 go-ahead RBI and ranked 3rd in the majors with a .406 mark with runners in scoring position...had a trio of multi-homer games, May 28 vs. S.F., July 24 at Colorado and July 30 vs. Pittsburgh (1st game)...had 4 hits on April 10 at Cincy and August 19 at S.F., and had 4 RBI affairs on May 21 at L.A. and August 21 at S.F....led the N.L. with 18 outfield assists. 1995—Led the Cards with a .298 average...hit 15 of his then career-high 17 homers off righthanders... had 4 hits on June 11 at Atlanta and 4 RBI on May 10 vs. Chicago...was disabled from June 28-July 15 with a right elbow strain. 1994—Tied career highs with 4 hits on April 20 at Atlanta, and 4 RBI on May 21 at Florida...hit first career pinch homer on May 27, a 3-run blast in San Diego...led the Redbirds with 15 stolen bases and tied for the top spot on the club with 9 outfield assists. 1993—Led the Cardinals in extra-base hits (61) and runs scored (99)...his 40 doubles were 6th in the N.L....was on the disabled list with a strained right quadriceps from April 29-May 13...tied for the N.L. lead with 19 outfield assists, and also saw action at 1st base, making 3 starts. 1992—First full year of major league action, hitting .302 in 131 games...had a career best 13-game hitting streak in late September, and reached base safely in last 28 starts of season...had first career 4-hit game in 2nd game of doubleheader on June 8 vs. Chicago, then followed with another 4-hit tilt the next day...also had 4-hit, 4-RBI game on August 11 at Philadelphia...threw out runners at the plate in the 10th and 11th inning at Houston on August 25. 1991—Outstanding spring work earned Bernard the opening day starting assignment in left...he was disabled from June 15-July 17 with a broken right thumb...struggled offensively and was optioned to Louisville on August 19, remaining there until September recalls...had first career multi-homer game on October 5 at Chicago in the 2nd game of a twinbill. 1990—His first year of AAA and major league action, hitting .295 in 132 games for Louisville, then spent September with St. Louis...he was the first professional batter since 1953 (Gene Stephens of Boston) to collect 3 hits in the same inning, picking up 2 singles and a home run in a 16-run 3rd inning on May 9 vs. Nashville...Gilkey was the first minor leaguer since John Conway (Birmingham) in 1943 to have a 3-hit inning...he earned a spot on the American Association All-Star team and was recalled by the Cardinals on Sept. 4...picked up first big league hit on Sept. 5 vs. Montreal...hit first major league homer on October 1 at Montreal off of Howard Farmer. 1989—Led the Texas League in stolen bases (53) and runs scored (104) while playing for Arkansas...also led the league with 22 outfield assists...had 40 multi-hit games, including 14 with 3 hits. 1988—Spent the year with Springfield (A) and led St. Louis' minor leaguers with 54 stolen bases...twice swiped 3 bases in a game...had a 17-game hitting streak to open August. 1987—Appeared in just 46 games for Springfield, missing the majority of the year with a fractured left thumb...was placed on the D.L. on May 29 for the remainder of the year, but still ranked 3rd on the club with 18 stolen bases. 1986—Led the South Atlantic League with 15 doubles while playing for Savannah. 1985—His first year as a pro was with Erie, he finished in the top 5 in 5 offensive categories...also led league outfielders in chances, putouts and assists.

PERSONAL

Otis Bernard (Bernard) Gilkey...he and his wife, Patrice, have two sons, Jaelen (7/9/95) and Dawson (2/16/99), who arrived right before spring training... Bernard graduated in 1984 from University City High School in St. Louis, earning All-Conference, All-District and All-Metro honors in baseball and basketball...he signed a letter of intent to play basketball at Drake University, but chose to take a shot at making it big with his hometown baseball team, signing with the Cardinals' organization as a non-drafted free agent on August 22, 1984...got a taste of Hollywood in 1997, making a cameo as an outfielder in a scene in the box office hit Men In Black, starring Tommy Lee Jones and Will Smith.

Wt: 225

B/T: R/R

Age: 24

Born: January 2, 1975 in Bartow, FL

Residence: Winter Haven, FL

M.L. Service: None

HOW OBTAINED: Selected from the Seattle Mariners in the Rule 5 draft, December 15, 1997.

1998 HIGHLIGHTS

Plagued by arm soreness throughout the year, Russell still managed 31 appearances for High Desert (A), including 7 starting assignments...after allowing 6 runs (4 earned) through his first 4 outings, spanning 4.1 innings, he was rested for a month to help heal a tender arm...he returned to action on May 9 and pitched his best overall ball of the year, allowing just 4 earned runs over his next 13 outings, spanning 26.1 innings for a 1.37 ERA, with 6 walks and 24 K's...Jacob had a season ERA of 2.70 entering the final week of July, but was touched for 21 earnings over his final 27.1 innings upping his mark to a season ending 4.41...he was "stretched out" over his final 5 weeks, working at least 4.0 innings in 5 of his last 8 appearances, after going 4.0 frames only once in his first 23 outings.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1997—His 2nd consecutive year with Wisconsin (A) in the Seattle chain, splitting time between the bullpen and starting...made a start in first outing of the year, then was moved to a relief role for his next 8 appearances and 10 of 11 outings...recorded at least 1 strikeout in all but 1 of his 21 outings, with a season-high of 8 on July 18 vs. Clinton. 1996—Russell's first year at Wisconsin, he split 8 decisions, while making 24 appearances, including 10 starts...he opened the year as a starter, but an injury that forced him onto the disabled list from May 30-July 6, necessitated a move to the bullpen...upon returning, Jacob went 2-0 with a pair of saves in his first 5 appearances in relief, allowing just 2 earned runs over 7.1 innings. 1995—His most dominant overall pro season, Jacob worked mainly as a starter in his 2nd straight year with Seattle's short-season Arizona Rookie League club...he made 12 appearances, 11 as a starter, going 6-2 with a 2.88 ERA...he recorded at least 1 strikeout in each of his 12 outings, topping out at 9 in his first game on June 25, a 5-inning stint. 1994—Jacob's first test as a pro was with the short-season Arizona club, appearing 8 times (2 starts), allowing just 4 earned runs in 13.1 innings for a 2.70 ERA...he did not allow a run or a hit in his first 4 professional appearances, and tossed 9.0 straight scoreless innings overall before finally being touched for a run.

PERSONAL

Russell Jacob Jr...he is single and makes his home in Winter Haven, FL...Russell graduated from Winter Haven High School in 1993, lettering in 3 sports while a prepster...was originally drafted by the Seattle Mariners, signing as their 26th pick in the 1993 June draft...he was a member of the Scottsdale Scorpions in the Arizona Fall League, going 0-2 in 17 games, with 2 saves and a 4.66 ERA.

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as a free agent, December 1, 1998.

1998 HIGHLIGHTS

A tale of 2 seasons for the veteran lefthander, who ended the better part of 10 seasons with Seattle just prior to midnight (EDT) at the end of the trade deadline, and joined a pennant race with Houston in the N.L. Central...affectionately referred to as the "Big Unit," Johnson was 9-10 with a 4.33 ERA in 23 starts for the Mariners, but had a complete reversal of fortune upon arriving in Astro domain, going 10-1 with a miniscule 1.28 ERA in 11 starts...despite an abbreviated campaign with the Astros, Johnson made enough of an impression to finish 7th in the N.L. Cy Young balloting...he totaled a career-high 329 strikeouts, leading the majors for the 5th time in his career, accruing 213 in Seattle and 116 with the Astros...it was his 2nd 300-K season, besting the 308 he had with the Mariners in 1993...the 329 strikeouts were the most in the majors since Nolan Ryan fanned 341 for the 1977 Angels...Randy wrapped up the '98 season with 20 double-digit strikeout games, upping his career total to 102, the most ever by a lefthanded hurler, and 2nd only to Nolan Ryan, who had 215 games with 10 or more K's...lefthanded hitters, who are few and far between in opposing lineups, could muster only a .181 mark (15-for-83) with 2 doubles, no triples or home runs, while he fanned 40...though Randy only spent 2 months in the National League, his 4 shutouts with Houston ranked 2nd only to Atlanta's Greg Maddux, who led the league with 5...Johnson was acquired on July 31 for Freddy Garcia, Carlos Guillen and a player to be named, with Houston clinging to a 3 1/2 games lead in the Central...after the deal, the Astros enjoyed their best overall month in franchise history, going 22-7 in August, upping their division lead to 11 games...he debuted in Pittsburgh on August 2, winning a 6-2 decision with a 7-inning stint, allowing 6 hits and a walk while fanning 12...he followed that with a memorable performance on August 7 in the Astrodome, blanking the Phillies on 5 hits, 9-0, in front of 52,071, the 5th largest crowd to witness a regular season game in the Dome...he upped his Houston ledger to 3-0 with another 5-hit shutout on August 12, a 3-0 win over the Brewers under the roof, fanning 13 in the process...his lone setback as an Astro occurred on August 17 at Philadelphia, when Paul Byrd tossed a 4-hit shutout in a 4-0 decision...the loss to the Phils snapped a streak of 19.0 consecutive scoreless innings, the longest shutout streak by a Houston pitcher in '98...he rebounded nicely from the loss in Philly, closing the regular season by winning his final 7 starts, posting a 1.16 ERA in the process, allowing 7 earned runs in 54.1 innings...included in the streak was a 2-0 win in Houston over the Pirates, a 7-hitter in which he did not allow a walk, while fanning 16...the 16 K's were the most ever by a Houston lefthander, and the most since a 16-strikeout performance by Nolan Ryan on Sept. 9, 1987 vs. S.E...he earned N.L. Pitcher-of-the-Month honors for August, going 5-1 with a 1.17 ERA in 6 starts, leading the league in shutouts (3) and strikeouts (61)...September opened with a head-to-head matchup in Atlanta against Greg Maddux, and Johnson came away with a 4-2 win, allowing a run on 4 hits over 8.0 innings, while fanning 10...he followed that on Sept. 7 with his 4th consecutive shutout in the Astrodome, a 1-0 win over Cincinnati, allowing 6 hits and a walk while fanning 14...Randy posted his 8th win in a Astro uniform on Sept. 12 vs. St. Louis, a 3-2 triumph that ended his consecutive scoreless inning streak in the Astrodome at 36.0, allowing both runs in the 1st inning...all totaled, in 5 starts in the Dome during the regular season, Johnson held the opposition scoreless in 42 of the 43 innings he pitched, allowing 2 earned runs for a 0.42 ERA...with his Dome work done for the regular season, Randy turned his attention to the road again, where he tossed 6.0 consecutive hitless innings on Sept. 18 in Pittsburgh, on the way to a 5-2 win, allowing a hit in the 7th...his final regular season start was a 7-1 win at St. Louis on Sept. 23, the 100th win of the year for Houston...he wrapped up the final month the same way he ended August, winning the N.L. Pitcher-of-the-Month award, going 5-0 with a 1.41 ERA (6 ER in 38.1 IP)...his career average of 10.6 strikeouts per 9-innings ranks as the best in major league history, with Nolan Ryan 2nd (9.6) and Sandy Koufax 3rd (9.4)...though he finished the Seattle chapter of his career by going 9-10 prior to the trade, he had provided Mariner fans with some solid memories before departing...Randy tossed consecutive shutouts on July 11 & 16 at home over Anaheim and Minnesota, respectively, combining the 2 outings for 6 hits and 5 walks, while fanning 26...he struck out 15 in the win over the Angels, his 3rd 15-K game of the year with Seattle...he also punched out 15 in a no decision at Boston on April 10 and in a win at home over Tampa Bay on May 24.

1998 POST-SEASON

All Randy had to show for a pair of starts in the Division Series against San Diego were great numbers and a pair of tough losses...he went up against Kevin Brown in the opener in Houston, losing a 2-1 decision, allowing 2 runs over 8.0 innings, while fanning 9...he then worked what ended up as the series finale, losing a 6-1 contest to Sterling Hitchcock, allowing 1 earned run on 3 hits over a 6-inning stint, with a walk and 8 K's.

...Snake Bite

An Impressive Return To The N.L.

When Randy Johnson was traded to the Houston Astros on July 31, 1998, it marked his first daily look at the National League since being dealt from Montreal to the Mariners on May 25, 1989. It was an impressive return to say the least, as the "Big Unit" went 10-1 with a 1.28 ERA in 11 starts, tossing 4 shutouts in the process, as the Astros coasted to the Central Division crown.

Following is the day-by-day breakdown of his 11 starts with Houston:

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Randy left Seattle as the organization's all-time leader in wins (130), shutouts (19) and strikeouts (2,162)...with 20 games of 10 or more strikeouts last season, he has amassed 102 double-digit strikeout games, including 18 with 15 or more K's...he has won 71% of the time that he has fanned at least 10 in a game, going 72-18 with 12 no decisions...Johnson has kept lefthanded hitters to a .195 overall average in his career (145-for-743)...he has been touched for 169 home runs during his career, but only 10 have been hit by lefties (Von Hayes and Jim Eisenreich-1989; Wally Joyner and Mike Greenwell-1991; Mo Vaughn-1992; Darren Bragg-1996; Darrin Erstad, Mo Vaughn & Jim Edmonds (2)-1997)...he had a personal 16-game winning streak that ran from August, 1995 through May 2, 1997, falling a win shy of the American League record for consecutive games won in a career.

1997—Randy rebounded from an injury shortened year in '96, to set a personal and Seattle franchise record with 20 victories...he led the A.L. in opponents' batting average (.193), winning pct. (.833) and K's per 9-innings (12.3), while ranking 2nd in the circuit in ERA (2.28), strikeouts (291) and wins...he finished 2nd to Roger Clemens in the BBWAA's Cy Young Award balloting...the staff stopper, Randy went 12-1 with 4 no decisions when pitching after a Mariner loss...he had a streak within a streak from May 13-June 19, a stretch that witnessed a 7-game win streak (8 starts), but included was a 5-game period in which he allowed only 1 earned run over 40.0 innings (0.23 ERA)...he had a streak of 31.0 straight scoreless innings, the 2nd best shutout string in franchise history, halted by an Eric Young solo homer on June 13 in the Kingdome...included in the shutout inning streak was a complete game win over Toronto, a 2-hitter, his first route-going effort since Oct. 2, 1995 vs. California...the 7-game winning streak was halted by Oakland on June 24, a 4-1 decision that featured 19 K's by Johnson in a complete game effort that also featured a 538-foot home run by his former college teammate Mark McGwire...R.J. matched the major league record and set an A.L. mark for K's in a game by a lefthanded pitcher, while also tying the big league mark for K's in a loss...Johnson earned A.L. Pitcher-of-the-Month honors for June (4-1 and 0.92 ERA)...he was tabbed the starting pitcher in the All-Star Game at Cleveland, working 2.0 shutout innings, his 2nd Midsummer Classic start...he fired career shutout #17 on August 8 vs. Chicago, a 5-hit, 5-0 win, in which he fanned 19, tying his own A.L. record for K's in a game by a southpaw...it was only the 8th 19-K (9 inning) game in history, the first time it was done by the same hurler twice in a season...he was forced out of an August 20 start vs. Cleveland in the 7th inning with tendinitis in the middle finger of his throwing hand...it marked the only time he left a game in the middle of an inning in '97...he worked 2.0 innings of relief on Sept. 27 vs. Oakland to pick up 20th victory, his first career relief win...he fanned 3, featuring his 2,000th career strikeout (Ben Grieve), just the 49th hurler in history to crack the 2,000-K mark. 1996—The good news was that he was unbeaten (5-0), the bad news was that he worked only 14 times (8 starts) due to a lower back injury that eventually required season-ending surgery...he was Seattle's opening night starter for an unprecedented 5th time, giving up just 3 hits over 7.0 innings with 14 K's in a no decision...he entered an April 26 start in Milwaukee with a 4-0 mark, but just 3.2 innings into the affair, Randy departed with lower back pain...the pain lingered as he was capable of only 2.0 frames in his next start vs. Texas on May 1...he waited 11 days for what turned out to be his final start of the year, going 5.0 innings in a win over Kansas City to up his mark to 5-0...he was placed on the D.L. on May 13 with an irritated nerve in his lower back...he was on the 60-day disabled list, making 1 rehab appearance for Everett (A), fanning 5 in 2.0 hitless innings...was activated from D.L. on August 6, and worked 2.0 scoreless frames of relief that day vs. Cleveland...he fanned 8 in 4.0 innings on August 13 vs. KC, earning his 2nd career save...he gave up 6 earned runs over his final 2 outings, including a grand slam to Darren Bragg on August 24 at Boston, the first homer surrendered to a lefthanded hitter since 1992...Johnson was placed on the D.L. on August 27 and underwent surgery (a micro endoscopic discectomy) to correct an extruded disc herniation in his lower back on Sept. 12, a 2-hour procedure performed by Dr. Robert Watkins in Los Angeles. 1995—Randy went 18-2 with a 2.48 ERA to win the only Cy Young Award in Seattle history, garnering 26 of 28 first place votes...he was also named to The Associated Press and The Sporting News All-Star Teams, and was named the A.L. Pitcher-of-the-Year by The Sporting News...and, he finished 6th in the league MVP balloting...the first Mariner to ever win the ERA title, he also led the A.L. in winning pct. (.900), strikeouts (294), K's per

Johnson & Johnson

Only twice in major league history has a pitcher thrown 4 consecutive shutouts in his first 4 appearances in any stadium. Walter Johnson of the Washington Senators blanked the Yankees in his first 4 appearances against them in Hilltop Park in Manhattan, the home of the Yankees from 1903-12, before their move to the Bronx. Johnson accomplished the feat over 2 season, 1907-08.

Randy Johnson was virtually unhittable in his initial 4 tests in Houston's Astrodome last August and September, blanking the Phillies, Brewers, Pirates and Reds in consecutive starts. He totaled 36.0 innings, allowing 23 hits and 4 walks while fanning 51, including 16 Bucs on August 28.

9-innings (12.35) and batting average against (.201), while ranking 2nd in wins... he won his 4th consecutive league strikeout crown, while establishing an A.L. record for best winning pct. in a season (minimum 20 decisions), breaking Ron Guidry's .893 mark (25-3) for the '78 Yankees...Randy also set a major league mark for K's per 9-innings with a ratio of 12.35, breaking Nolan Ryan's 11.48 mark in 1987 with Houston...he held lefthanded hitters to an overall .129 average (11-for-85)...Seattle was 27-3 in his 30 starts...highlights included a 6-0, 1.83 beginning to the year (9 starts), matching Rick Honeycutt's 6-0 start in 1980...he tossed a 3-0, 2-hitter, at Baltimore on June 5, retiring the final 17 men in order...he equaled a career-high with a 160-pitch complete-game at Cleveland on July 7, the first time he did not walk a man in a complete game...was named to his 4th All-Star team and named the starting pitcher, a Seattle first, working 2.0 hitless frames in Arlington...in his first start after the break, he tossed a 3-hitter in a 3-0 win over Toronto on July 15, recording 16 K's...incurred his 2nd (and final) loss of the year on August 1 at California...missed 3 starts over a 4-week stretch due to inflammation in his left shoulder...finished strong, earning A.L. Pitcher-of-the-Week honors for Sept. 18-24, going 2-0 with a 0.59 ERA, fanning 25 in 15.1 innings...was 7-0 with a 1.45 ERA for his final 10 starts, including a 3-hit, complete game in the 1-game playoff on October 2 vs. California for the A.L. West crown...continued to excel in the post-season, winning game #3 vs. the Yankees, allowing 2 runs over 7.0 innings...came back on a day's rest to work in relief in game #5, fanning 6 in 3.0 innings as Mariners advanced to ALCS...he had a no decision in game #3 of the ALCS vs. Cleveland, allowing a run over 8.0 innings, a game that Seattle won, 5-2 in 11 innings...he was the losing pitcher in game #6, giving up 3 runs in 7.1 frames...R.J. had off-season surgery on his right knee performed by Dr. Larry Pedegana. 1994—Finished 3rd in the A.L. Cy Young balloting, leading the majors with 204 K's, while topping the junior circuit in K's per 9-innings (10.7), complete games (9) and shutouts (4)...Randy was Seattle's opening day starter in Cleveland on April 4, and with President Bill Clinton in attendance, he had a no-hitter until Sandy Alomar Jr. singled in the 8th inning...he wound up with a no decision, an eventual 4-3 Seattle loss in 11...became the Mariners' all-time strikeout leader by fanning Mike Huff for #1,079, surpassing Mark Langston...missed a turn in early May due to a medial meniscus cartilage tear in his right knee...returned to work on May 15, beginning a 7-game winning streak...included were 3 consecutive shutouts from May 25-June 4, winning at Oakland (1-0, 4-hitter on May 25), at Minnesota (12-0, 2-hitter on May 30) and vs. Toronto (2-0, 6-hitter on June 4)...the win over the Jays included 15 K's, the big league high in '94...needless to say, he was the A.L. Pitcher-of-the-Week for May 30-June 5...he ran the scoreless streak to 29.0 innings before unusual circumstances brought it to an end...in the 3rd inning of a June 10 start at the Kingdome, a power outage forced a 20-minute delay, then after play resumed, the A's scored a run on back-to-back doubles...Johnson was clocked with a 100 mph fastball in the 9th inning of a game vs. Chicago on June 25...his 4-3 win in Boston on July 7 was his 75th in a Seattle uniform, breaking Langston's team mark...he was named to his 3rd All-Star team, working an inning and allowing a run in Pittsburgh...Randy had his 2nd 15-K game of the year in the season finale on August 11, fanning Ernie Young on what wound up being the final pitch of the strike-shortened season. 1993—Led the majors for the 2nd straight year with a club record 308 K's, 36 more than the old mark held by Mark Langston...Randy was the first pitcher to top the 300-K plateau since Nolan Ryan in 1989 (301) and the first lefthander since Steve Carlton in 1972 (310)...Johnson won the A.L. strikeout crown by 112 K's, the 5th largest margin in history...he also topped the majors in batting avg. against (.203), fewest hits per 9-innings (6.52), K's per 9-innings (10.9) and hit batters (16)...his 19 wins tied Langston's then-club record, posting 19th in final start on October 1 at Minnesota...ended year with an 8-game winning streak, spanning last 11 games, with a 2.11 ERA and a save...year began with an 8-1 win on opening night vs. Toronto, fanning 14...had 2nd career 1-hitter on May 16 at Oakland, a 7-0 win, also with 14 K's, taking perfect game through 7.1 frames, then having no-no broken up by Lance Blankenship blooper to right with 1 out in the 9th...earned a spot on the All-Star team with 10-5 mark through 19 starts prior to break...had 2.0 perfect innings in Midsummer Classic at Camden Yards, including a memorable strikeout of Philly's John Kruk...Johnson volunteered to work in relief following Norm Charlton's season-ending injury and earned first big league save vs. Baltimore on August 16, fanning 4 of 6 men he faced in 1.1 innings...it was his 2nd career relief appearance, snapping a streak of 146 straight starts...Mariners scored 13 runs in his 8 losses, including 1 run or less in 4 of the setbacks...he recorded career strikeout #1,000 fanning Chuck Knoblauch on July 28 (the same night that Ken Griffey Jr. homered for 8th straight game)...R.J. finished 2nd to Chicago's Jack McDowell in Cy Young balloting, receiving 6 first place votes...he also appeared in a game as an outfielder, though he did not have any chances. 1992—Randy fanned 241 men, becoming just the 3rd Mariner to win the A.L. strikeout title (Alan Bannister and Mark Langston)...Johnson also led the league in lowest batting avg. against (.206) and hit batsmen (18)...he fired back-to-back shutouts on April 11 vs. KC and April 20 vs. Minnesota, fanning 11 and 10, respectively...he was hit by a line drive off the bat of Mike Greenwell on May 31, bruising his left elbow...after 10 days of rest, he attempted a return to action on June 10 at Texas, but pain persisted and he was placed on the D.L. until June 27...he snapped a personal 8-game losing streak with an 8-5 win vs. New York on July 26...tied Ron Guidry's then-A.L. record for K's by a lefthanded pitcher with 18 strikeouts on Sept. 27 at Texas...despite record-tying performance, he left after 8.0 innings and 160 pitches with score tied 2-2...over a 3-game stretch from Sept. 16-27, he went 0-1 with a 1.80 ERA and 45 K's, the 2nd highest 3-game strikeout total in major league history. 1991—Despite early-season back problems that led to a 3-6 start, Randy finished 2nd in the A.L. with 228 K's, while going 13-10 overall...best outing of the year was August 14 vs. Oakland, a 4-0 win featuring 12 K's, taking no-hitter into the 9th before Mike Gallego singled for A's lone knock...he had arthroscopic surgery after the season to repair a lateral release and a patellar shaving to remove a rough area on the back of his kneecap. 1990—The "Unit" made headlines with the first shutout of his career, also the first no-hitter in Mariner history, a 2-0 victory on June 2 vs. Detroit...he walked 6 and fanned 8, as the accomplishment earned him A.L. Player-of-the-Week honors...he followed that on June 7 with a 2-1 complete game victory in Chicago, fanning 10 and retiring the last 20 men in order...he wound up 5-0 with a 2.40 ERA in June, winning the A.L. Pitcher-of-the-Month award...was 9-3 with a 3.68 ERA at the All-Star break, earning a spot on the A.L. roster, though he did not pitch in the game...he dropped 4 straight starts following the break, despite a 3.41 ERA, as the Mariners were outscored 19-2, including 3 consecutive shutouts. 1989—He began the year with Montreal and went 0-4 with a 6.67 ERA in 7 games (6 starts), with the Expos scoring 7 runs in the 4 losses...was optioned to Indianapolis (AAA) on May 9, then was included in blockbuster trade with Seattle on May 25, joining the Mariners with pitchers Brian Holman and Gene Harris in exchange for pitcher Mark Langston and a player to be named (Mike Campbell)...made his Mariner debut on May 30 at Yankee Stadium, winning a 3-2 decision, working 6.0 innings allowing 2 runs on 6 hits. 1988—Spent the majority of the year with Indy, going 8-7 in 20 games (19 starts)...he combined with Pat Pacillo on a no-hitter on August 6 in Nashville, but ended up with the loss, working 7.0 innings, with the deciding run scoring on a first inning walk, followed by 2 stole bases and a groundout...he was out of action from June 14-July 31 with a hairline fracture of the 5th metacarpal on his right hand...was named the #3 major league prospect in the American Association by Baseball America...was recalled by the Expos after the A.A. playoffs, and won major league debut on Sept. 15 vs. Pirates...he fanned 11 in first career complete game vs. Chicago on Sept. 20. 1987—Spent the entire season with Jacksonville, leading the Southern League with 163 strikeouts...he held opposing batters to an aggregate .204 average...he was 6-0 with 65 K's and only 17 hits allowed in his first 8 starts, totaling 46.0 innings...he was the S.L. Player-of-the-Month in May and closed the year ranked by Baseball America as the #2 prospect in the league. 1986—Randy was 8-7 in a league leading 26 starts for West Palm Beach, and finished 2nd in the F.S.L. with 133 K's...he caught the eye of the Baseball America folks for the first of 3 straight years, earning #3 prospect status. 1985—Signed with the Expos as their 2nd choice in the June draft and reported to Jamestown, going 0-3 in 8 starts.

Danny Klassen

Infielder

Ht: 6-0

Wt: 175

B/T: R/R

Age: 23 (Turns 24 on September 22)

Born: September 22, 1975 in Leamington, ONT

Residence: Stuart, FL

M.L. Service: 37 days

HOW OBTAINED: Selected from the Milwaukee Brewers as the fifth choice in the second round of the 1997 Expansion Draft, November 18, 1997.

1998 HIGHLIGHTS

MAJOR LEAGUE: Danny had not seen a day above AA entering the '98 season, but spent the majority of the campaign playing for Tucson, with the exception of a month with the D'Backs...he was recalled from AAA on July 4 and appeared in 29 games...he made his big league debut on the night of his recall, going 0-for-1 with 3 walks and a run scored as the starting 2nd baseman in a 7-4 win in the Astrodome...the 22-year old had an impressive Bank One Ballpark initiation, going 3-for-4 on July 10 vs. Cincinnati...included was his first major league hit, a single in the 2nd off of Brett Tomko, then his first big league homer, a 9th inning, 2-run shot off of Danny Graves...Klassen reached base safely in 13 of his first 14 big league games, including a 7-game hitting streak from August 12-19, batting at a .345 clip (10-for-29), with 2 homers and 4 RBI...unfortunately, he couldn't keep up the pace, falling into an offensive rut, going 4-for-44 (.091) over a 12-game stretch before being optioned back to Tucson on August 9.

MINOR LEAGUE: Danny's first career look at AAA action was a successful one, though it ended abruptly with a left shoulder fracture, just 2 games after returning from his month-long stint in the majors...he combined April and May for a .327 average (53-for-162), featuring 17 doubles, 7 homers and 31 RBI...included was a 12-game hitting streak in late May that included a .426 mark (23-for-54) with 9 doubles, 2 homers and 12 RBI.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1997—Was the everyday shortstop at El Paso, his first exposure to AA, finishing with a .331 average, tops among all shortstops in AA or AAA in '97, and a 56-point increase over any previous minor league season...for his effort, he was named the Texas League "Star of Stars" by Howe Sportsdata...hit .511 through his first 13 games (23-for-45), including a pair of 4-hit games...did not go more than 2 consecutive games without a hit...hit safely in 27 of 33 games from May 10-June 15, batting at a .371 clip (49-for-132) with 32 runs scored...scored at least once in 11 consecutive games from May 14-25, totaling 13 runs...finished the year with 47 multi-hit games, including 22 of 3 or more hits...hit .316 or better in 4 of the 5 months during the season, with the only "down" month coming in July with a .277 mark...entered the season with 12 career minor league home runs, but exploded for 14 while with El Paso. 1996—Spent the entire season at Stockton (A), hitting .269 in 118 games...set a then-pro best with 22 doubles (surpassed with 30 in '97). 1995—His 2nd straight year at Beloit, hitting .275 in 59 games. 1994—First full year with Beloit (A), established pro best with 28 stolen bases. 1993—Signed as an 18-year old and reported to Chandler (Rookie)...finished the season with Helena, but scuffled offensively, hitting .200.

PERSONAL

Daniel Victor (Danny) Klassen...he is single and resides in Stuart, FL... Danny graduated from John Carroll High School in 1993, lettering for 4 seasons in baseball...he was named 3rd team All-State for his junior year, then 2nd team All-American and 1st team All-State as a senior...he was also selected to play on the USA Junior National South team...Klassen signed a letter of intent to play at Florida State University, but chose to sign as Milwaukee's 2nd round pick...he was born in Leamington, Ontario...Danny was a member of the Scottsdale Scorpions in the Arizona Fall League, but another shoulder injury brought his fall ball to an end...the AFL injury was not related to the shoulder fracture that ended his regular season...Klassen joined several of his teammates on the Winter Tour in January, a promotional tour through the Southwest.

B/T: L/L

Age: 23 (Turns 24 on May 26)

Born: May 26, 1975 in San Diego, CA

Residence: Phoenix, AZ

M.L. Service: 1 year

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as a free agent, October 15, 1996.

1998 HIGHLIGHTS

After just one season as a professional, Travis made the jump to the majors in '98, earning team Rookie-of-the-Year honors as voted by the local BBWAA chapter and finishing 3rd in the N.L. vote behind Kerry Wood and Todd Helton...Lee tied Devon White for the club home run lead (22) and his 72 RBI ranked 2nd...he topped all N.L. rookies in walks (67), while finishing 2nd among freshmen in homers, on-base pct. (.346) and total bases (241), 3rd in runs (71), hits (151), multi-hit games (40) and slugging pct. (.429)...Travis accomplished a majority of Arizona's offensive "firsts" in the home opener on March 31, beginning with his first big league hit, also the team's initial hit, a first inning single off of Colorado's Darryl Kile...Lee later added his first big league homer, a solo shot off of Kile in the 6th inning, which was also the first homer, run scored and RBI in franchise history, as Travis finished the opener with 3 hits...he shares the club record for homers and RBI in a game, homering twice in a contest on a pair of occasions (June 13 vs. St. Louis and June 26 vs. Seattle), and knocking in 5 runs twice (June 13 vs. St. Louis and Sept. 14 vs. San Francisco)... he tied N.L. rookies for the longest hitting streak, an 11-gamer from June 19-30, hitting .400 (18-for-45) with 4 homers...he was at or near the top in every offensive category among rookies, hitting .288 with 15 doubles, 19 homers and 54 RBI, when a left groin strain occurred during a rundown play on July 24 in Dodger Stadium...he was placed on the D.L. and did not return to play until August 9, but struggled offensively, hitting just .168 (18-for-107) over his first 29 games back...he recovered from the drought to hit .333 (23-for-69) over his final 17 games...Travis had a 7-game stretch (April 23-May 2) in which he homered off of southpaws Denny Neagle, Tom Glavine and Steve Kline, accounting for 3 of the 4 homers he hit off of lefties...he finished 2nd on the club with 40 multi-hit games, including 13 of the 3-hit variety...he was a .283 hitter (81-for-286) in B.O.B. with 12 home runs and 50 of his 72 RBI...Lee was a .479 hitter (46-for-96) on the first pitch of an at bat...defensively, he committed only 3 errors in 1,371 chances, the 2nd lowest error total among N.L. first basemen, trailing only Gold Glove winner J.T. Snow.

1997—HIGHLIGHTS: In his first year as a pro he combined stops in High Desert (A) and Tucson (AAA) to hit .331 (150-for-453) with 105 runs, 34 doubles, 3 triples, 32 home runs and 109 RBI...those totals resulted in a slugging pct. of .631, amassing 286 total bases...was dominant in Class A, posting an 8-game hitting streak during first month as a pro, featuring an extra-base hit in each contest (6 doubles, a triple and 2 homers), totaling 26 bases in 28 at bats for a .929 slugging pct....had a power stretch from May 30-June 6, homering in 6 of 7 games, hitting 7 roundtrippers and knocking in a run in 8 consecutive contests, totaling 18 RBI...finished up work with High Desert hitting safely in 11 of last 13 games at a .489 clip (23-for-47), with 4 doubles, 7 homers, 19 runs and 19 RBI, totaling 51 bases for a 1.085 slugging pct....loaned to Tucson (AAA) in the Brewers' chain and went 3-for-5 in debut game at home vs. Edmonton...began AAA experience by hitting safely in 13 of first 14 games at a .423 clip (22-for-52).

HONORS: Baseball America named him the top prospect in the organization entering the year and he did not disappoint...his combined effort at High Desert and Tucson earned a spot as first baseman on Baseball America's Minor League All-Star team, as well as first baseman on the Class-A All-Star team...the publication also named him the "Most Exciting Player" in both the Pacific Coast and California Leagues, while playing only a half-season in each...he was also voted the California League's "Best Batting Prospect, Best Power Hitter and Best Defensive First Baseman" in the Baseball America poll...he was tabbed the #1 prospect in the California League and #4 prospect in the PCL.

PERSONAL

Travis Reynolds Lee...he is single and a native of Olympia, WA, where he graduated from Capital High School in 1993...Travis then attended San Diego State University, earning virtually every honor available after his junior year...he was the winner of the Golden Spikes Award as the country's outstanding amateur player...he was the first baseman on the U.S. Olympic team, hitting .382 during the Atlanta Games after batting .427 during the Pre-Olympic Tour...Lee set the USA Baseball single-season record for homers with 17, while committing 2 errors in 350 chances...originally drafted by the Minnesota Twins as the 2nd overall pick in the '96 June draft, he was declared a free agent and signed with Arizona...Travis teamed with Hall-of-Fame inductee George Brett, and country music star Tim McGraw, to win the Rookie Skills Challenge at the All-Star Game festivities in Denver...a high school quarterback, Travis possesses the rare combination of throwing a football right-handed, but plays baseball as a southpaw.

Righthanded Pitcher

48

Ht: 6-4

Wt: 224

B/T: R/R

Age: 24

Born: March 15, 1975 in Havana, Cuba

Residence: Phoenix, AZ

M.L. Service: 21 days

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as a minor league free agent, February 1, 1996.
1998 HIGHLIGHTS

MAJOR LEAGUE: Vladimir became the answer to a future trivia question when he appeared in relief for the Diamondbacks on Sept. 11 in Cincinnati...with that appearance, he technically became the franchise's first original player to appear in a major league game (Travis Lee was originally drafted by Minnesota before being declared a free agent and signing with Arizona)...Nuñez's debut was a 1.1 inning stint vs. the Reds, retiring the first 3 men he faced before allowing a hit, a walk and 2 runs...he wound up with 4 big league relief appearances, with the most impressive a perfect 9th inning at home on Sept. 14 in Arizona's 14-2 win over the Giants.

MINOR LEAGUE: Nuñez appeared in 31 games for Tucson, his first career look at any pro duty above Class A...he worked 13 times as a starter after being used exclusively in that role with High Desert the year before...he tossed a 7-inning complete game at Colorado Springs on July 5, allowing 2 runs on 6 hits, with no walks and 4 K's...he finished the AAA season allowing just 5 earned runs in his last 15.2 innings, a 2.87 ERA spanning 10 appearances.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1997—Fanned 142 men to set the High Desert (A) record for strikeouts in a season (since broken by Brad Penny)...posted an 8-5 mark in 28 starts during the regular season, featuring a 4-hit shutout on July 26 vs. Stockton, with 8 K's...was an impressive 2-0 in post-season play, as the Mavericks won the California League title...he gave up just 2 walks while fanning 16 during his 12.0 innings of playoff action. 1996—Was the Diamondbacks' organizational Pitcher-of-the-Year, while being named by Baseball America as their pick for short-season Player-of-the-Year...also earned the Pioneer League "Star of Stars" honor by Howe SportsData and was the righthanded hurler on Topps/NAPBL short-season All-Star team...the accolades were from a 10-0 season and 2.22 ERA in 14 games (13 starts) for Lethbridge, leading the Pioneer League in wins, ERA, and strikeouts...season began with an unassuming 1-6 mark and 5.43 ERA in 12 games (10 starts) for Visalia.

PERSONAL

Vladimir Nuñez Zarabaza...he and his wife Wendy, have a son, Vladimir Jr., and spent the majority of their winter in Phoenix...Vladimir defected from the Cuban National B Team in October, 1995, and inked his first professional deal the following February with the Diamondbacks...he was a member of the Scottsdale Scorpions in the Arizona Fall League, and earned Pitcher-of-the-Week honors for October 26-November 1, allowing a hit while fanning 7 and recording a pair of saves in 3 outings.

Ht: 6-2

Wt: 185

B/T: R/R

Age: 25 (Turns 26 on August 25, 1973)

Born: August 25, 1973 in Long Beach, CA

Residence: Long Beach, CA

M.L. Service: 67 days

HOW OBTAINED: Acquired from the San Francisco Giants in exchange for pitcher Alan Embree, November 11, 1998.

1998 HIGHLIGHTS

MAJOR LEAGUE: Dante ended his 2nd consecutive year with the big league club, appearing in 8 games for the Giants...he went 2-for-4 during his brief September stint in the majors, including his 2nd career big league homer, a pinch-hit solo shot on Sept. 22 at home off the Pirates' Jeff McCurry.

MINOR LEAGUE: Spent the entire regular season with Fresno (AAA) in the Giants' chain, assisting the Grizzlies to the PCL Southern Division title...while his season average dipped to a professional low (.230), he topped the organization with 41 stolen bases, the 2nd best total in the PCL...included were 17 thefts during August without being caught in the act...his best single-game performance was May 26 at Edmonton, when he slugged 3 home runs and knocked in 7 in a victory over the Athletics' AAA affiliate...Dante picked it up offensively in the PCL playoff series vs. Calgary, going 7-for-19 (.368) with 4 runs, a double, homer and 3 RBI in 5 games.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1997—Dante spent the majority of the year with Phoenix (AAA) in the Giants' chain, but had a pair of stints with the big league club...he debuted with a pinch-hit strikeout on April 15 at Philly, then made his first start 3 days later vs. the Marlins...his initial major league hit came on April 19 vs. Florida, a pinch-hit single off of Tony Saunders...he hit the first home run of his big league career on May 2 vs. Cincinnati, a solo blast off of John Smiley...over the 2 recalls to the big league club, Dante put together a career-best 7-game hitting streak, batting .421 (8-for-19), though it was interrupted by a 4-month stay in AAA...while with the Firebirds, he ranked 2nd in the PCL with 34 stolen bases...he finished the year strong, hitting .333 (46-for-138) over his final 33 games to up his mark 40 points to a season-ending .241...Powell was honored with the Harry S. Jordan Award as the best newcomer to Giants spring training. 1996—He hit .280 in his first year at AA (Shreveport), earning "Most Exciting Player" honors in a poll of Texas League managers...he earned in-season All-Star honors for both the Texas League and joint AA contests...Powell led the league in stolen bases (43) and runs scored (92)...he was promoted to Phoenix (AAA) at the conclusion of the AA season, going 2-for-8 in a pair of regular season games, then started all 7 games of post-season play, hitting .188 (6-for-32) with a homer, team-high 6 RBI and 5 runs...Dante finished the year playing for Scottsdale in the Arizona Fall League, hitting .306 (26-for-85) in 23 games. 1995—His first full season of pro ball, Powell played at San Jose (A), earning mid-season California League All-Star honors and was an honorable mention on the post-season club...he had a double and 3 RBI in the June 20 All-Star Game...he finished 2nd in the Giants' chain with 43 stolen bases, the 5th best total in the Cal League...he struggled for San Jose in the post-season, hitting .226 in 8 games. 1994—Dante's first year as a professional, he hit .309 for Everett, earning Northwest League All-Star honors...he was voted the #4 prospect by league managers, leading the circuit in stolen bases (27)...he tied a minor league season-high with 6 hits in a game on August 15 vs. Bellingham, featuring 3 doubles and 4 RBI...he closed the year appearing in a regular season and 3 post-season games for San Jose.

PERSONAL

LeJon Dante Powell...he is single and makes his off-season home in his native Long Beach, CA, where he graduated from Millikan High School in 1991...he followed that with a 3-year collegiate career at Cal State Fullerton, helping them to the 1994 College World Series and a #3 ranking in Baseball

America...Dante hit .305 with 9 homers, 52 RBI and 48 stolen bases during his junior year, earning All-America honors, while also earning a spot on the U.S. National Team...he was a freshman starter on the squad that finished as NCAA runner-up, then had a career sophomore year, hitting .335 with 17 doubles, 12 homers and 57 RBI...he was the Giants' first pick in the 1994 June draft, the 22nd overall selection...it was the 2nd time that Powell was a first round pick, as he was originally the 42nd player selected as a "sandwich pick" in the 1991 June draft by Toronto, but chose to attend Fullerton State.

Stephen Randolph

Lefthanded Pitcher

58

Ht: 6-3

Wt: 185

B/T: L/L

Age: 24 (Turns 25 on May 1)

Born: May 1, 1974 in Okinawa, Japan

Residence: Austin, TX

M.L. Service: None

HOW OBTAINED: Selected from the New York Yankees in the Rule 5 draft on December 15, 1997.

1998 HIGHLIGHTS

Stephen opened the year in High Desert, the 3rd consecutive season that he began in Class A, but by mid-July was experiencing the AAA work, making the jump to Tucson...he was 4-4 in 17 games (all starts) for the Mavericks, posting a 3.59 ERA...his most consistent work was a 4-start stretch from June 16-July 10, going 3-0 with 27 K's in 24.1 innings...allowed 2 or fewer earned runs in 11 of his 17 starts, climaxing his High Desert work with a masterful win over Bakersfield on July 10, allowing just 1 hit over 7.0 shutout innings, while walking 4 and fanning 7...after that appearance, Randolph was moved to Tucson, also working in 17 games, but starting only once, finishing with a 1-3 mark and 3.18 ERA...during his duty with the Sidewinders, he did not allow more than 2 earned runs in any outing, and began his AAA life giving up 2 earned runs over his first 12.0 innings, a 1.50 ERA spanning 9 appearances...Stephen also got an unofficial taste of the big league life, making the start in a Diamondback uniform on June 29 at South Bend, when Arizona played an exhibition game against its Class A affiliate...unfortunately Mother Nature did not cooperate, as the game was washed out in the 4th inning.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1997—Opened the year in the Tampa (A) bullpen, but wound up making 13 starts...was 0-2 with a 6.00 ERA as a reliever, but went 4-5 with a 3.03 mark in starting role...recorded at least 6 strikeouts in 9 of 13 starts, including a pair of 9-K performances...had back-to-back wins on August 2 & 8, winning at West Palm and vs. Brevard County, working 7.0 innings in each, totaling 2 runs on 5 hits, with 15 K's. 1996—Shared duties between starting and relief at Greensboro (A), working in 32 games (17 starts), fanning 111 men in 100.1 innings. 1995—Started pro career by going 4-0 with a 2.22 ERA in 8 games with Gulf Coast (Rookie), then was promoted to Oneonta (A), going 0-3 in 6 starts...while in Rookie ball, he fanned 34 in 24.1 innings.

PERSONAL

Stephen LaCharles Randolph...he was born in Okinawa, Japan, and now makes his home in Austin, TX...Stephen was a 1992 graduate of James Bowie (TX) High School, lettering in baseball and basketball, winning the District title in his senior year...he earned All-District honors as a junior and senior, and was All-Central Texas in '92...Stephen then attended Galveston Junior College, winning the Junior College World Series in 1994...he earned All-Conference honors during both seasons at Galveston, and was All-Tourney at the World Series in Grand Junction, CO...he then attended the University of Texas in Austin...was selected in the 18th round of the '95 June draft by the Yankees...an off-field interest of Randolph's is reading non-fiction crime stories.

1998 HIGHLIGHTS

As a member of the Mets, Armando was placed on the disabled list on March 24 and transferred to the 60-day list on May 4 (retroactive to March 31) as he recovered from a pair of arthroscopic procedures that were performed on August 18, 1997...the first was to remove bone chips from his right elbow, while the other was to debride the rotator cuff and labrum, both of which were partially torn...the surgery was performed by Dr. James Andrews in Birmingham, AL, the same surgeon who worked on Reynoso's elbow in 1994...once healthy, he was assigned to St. Lucie (A) on July 18, and 7 starts later, which included stops with the Gulf Coast Mets (R) and Norfolk, he was deemed ready to return to the majors...he took a big league mound on July 24 at Wrigley Field, his first start in the majors in a year and 8 days, and answered any questions regarding his health, winning a 5-0 decision...Armando worked 8.0 innings of 5-hit ball, fanning 3 and walking a pair in the first game of a twinbill...the win over the Cubs began a streak for Reynoso, who combined his first 5 starts for a 5-0 mark and 1.54 ERA, allowing 6 earned runs in 35.0 innings...his 2nd start was a 9-3 win at Shea over the Dodgers, allowing an unearned run on 2 hits over a 7-inning stint...he then knocked off the Rockies in Denver, 4-3, giving up 2 earnies over 7.0 frames...the streak continued with a 5-4 win over the D'Backs in Bank One Ballpark on August 15, allowing 4 runs in the victory, the most runs he surrendered during the skein...the winning streak, which began in the first game of a doubleheader in Chicago, was capped off in the nightcap of a twinbill vs. St. Louis on August 21, a 1-0 decision over the Cards, allowing 3 hits over 7.0 innings...streak was snapped with 11-3 loss at San Francisco on August 27, but he rebounded to win next pair of starts, at San Diego and at Philly, allowing 3 earned runs over a combined 16.0 innings...in going 7-1 through his first 8 starts, Armando posted a 1.59 ERA (9 earned runs in 51.0 innings) over the 7 wins...his regular season ended with a 2-game losing streak, suffering defeats to Montreal and at Atlanta...the Mets went 18-9 (67%) in the 27 games that Reynoso started over 2 seasons for New York...he added 2 more pickoffs to his career total, nabbing Devon White off 2nd and Montreal's Mike Barrett at 1st base.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1997—Armando managed to make 16 starts for the Mets, his first year with the New Yorkers after a 4-year stint with Colorado...he went 6-3, while the Mets were 11-5 overall in his starts, before tendinitis struck his right shoulder during a July 16 start at Shea vs. the Cubs, which wound up his final appearance of the season...he would eventually undergo a pair of arthroscopic procedures by Dr. Andrews (August 28)...while healthy, Reynoso tossed the first shutout of his career, winning a 6-0 decision over the Marlins on June 5 at Shea, a 5-hitter that included a walk and 4 K's...it was his first complete game since May 3, 1994, and 6th of his big league career...he no-hit his former mates from Colorado for 6.2 innings on May 19 in New York, before a Jeff Reed homer spoiled his bid for the record book...he was not involved in the decision, an eventual 4-3 Mets' win...Reynoso hit his 3rd career homer, a solo shot off of Houston's Mike Hampton on May 13...he had a tardy start to the year, suffering a shoulder sprain on March 10 in an exhibition game, forcing him to a pair of rehab starts before joining the Mets. 1996—His final year with the Rockies, as he was dealt to the Mets on November 27 in exchange for reliever Jerry Dipoto...Armando tied a career best with 30 starts, while helping his cause with 8 pickoffs, featuring a trio of games with 2 picks...tied a career-best with a 3-game winning streak from August 4-21.

1995—Didn't get to work in the majors until June 18 relief appearance vs. the Braves, missing the first 2 1/2 months while recuperating from season ending elbow surgery the previous May...made first start on June 22, winning a 3-2 decision at San Diego, working 5.0 innings, his first win in the majors in 57 weeks (May 15, 1994)...still managed to pick off 7 runners during abbreviated campaign. 1994—Was Colorado's opening day starter, working 6.0 innings in a no decision at home vs. the Phillies...he went the distance in a 10-1 win over St. Louis at Mile High Stadium on May 3, but it was one of the few highlights of an injury-shortened season...he made just 9 starts until undergoing surgery on May 26, when Dr. James Andrews transplanted a ligament from Armando's left wrist into his right elbow, strengthening the region and adding support to the injured area...Reynoso also had his right knee arthroscopically repaired at that time by Dr. Andrews...despite shortened year, Armando recorded 5 pickoffs. 1993—Though he did not make the 25-man club out of spring training, he ended up the Rockies' Pitcher-of-the-Year, falling 1 victory short of the then-expansion record of 13, finishing the year 12-11... was recalled from Colorado Springs (AAA) on April 30, making Rockies' debut that night in Florida, going the distance in a 6-2 win over the Marlins...he twice fanned a career-best 8 men, each coming in complete games (May 10 and June 26 vs. the Giants)...11 of his 12 wins came after Colorado losses...he was 7-3 in 11 starts at Mile High Stadium...his 8 pickoffs were the most by an N.L. righthander...first major league hit was a home run in Mile High off of SF's Trevor Wilson (May 10)...his 2nd home run was a 3-run shot at Shea off the Mets' Bobby Jones on August 28, leading to a 7-5 win. 1992—Spent the majority of the year with Richmond (AAA), finishing 2nd in the International League with a 2.66 ERA, while tying for 2nd in complete games (4)...had 3 consecutive starts (July 18-28) without allowing an earned runs, spanning 22.0 innings...was promoted to Atlanta in September, going 1-0 in 3 games (1 start)...was left unprotected in the off-season and selected in the 3rd round of the expansion draft by Colorado. 1991—Tied for the I.L. lead in shutouts (3), while earning a spot in the AAA All-Star Game...had his contract purchased by Atlanta on August 8 and won major league debut on August 11 with 6.0 shutout innings vs. Houston, allowing just 2 hits...followed with a win in his 2nd start, August 16 at San Diego, allowing 2 runs over 7.0 innings...had 6 pickoffs over a 4-start stretch (August 16-31), 5 of which came in the first inning. 1990—Went 20-3 with a 2.60 ERA in 27 starts for Saltillo in the Mexican League, featuring 12 complete games and 5 shutouts...included was a 7-inning no hitter vs. Monterrey...Reynoso signed with Atlanta on August 15 and made 4 appearances for Richmond.

PERSONAL

Martin Armando Reynoso (Gutierrez)...he and his wife, Yolanda, have a daughter, Alejandra (11/3/89), and a son, J. Armando (3/16/93)...Armando graduated in 1984 from Escuela Secundaria Mista del Estado in his native Jalisco, Mexico...after participating in semi-pro ball in Mexico, he signed as a free agent with Saltillo in 1988, where he was 44-23 with 29 complete games until signing with the Braves in 1990.

...Snake Bite

You Stray, You Pay (Part II)

While Brian Anderson tied for the major league lead last year with his 12 pickoffs, staff newcomer Armando Reynoso has also made some headlines during his career at nabbing would-be thieves. He has amassed 40 pickoffs since joining the National League in 1991 with Atlanta, topping out with 8 picks twice.

HOW OBTAINED: Acquired off waivers from Oakland, June 26, 1998.

1998 HIGHLIGHTS

Aaron opened the '98 campaign adorned in the green and gold of the Oakland A's, but spent the 2nd half of the year in the D'Back bullpen...he worked 24 times out of the Athletic pen, then was waived and picked up by Arizona on June 26...he had an impressive beginning upon arriving in the Valley, debuting with a scoreless inning on July 1 at Chicago, his first of 13 consecutive shutout appearances...the streak ran for 15.2 innings, before being halted on August 20 when Bobby Abreu hit a 3-run homer in the first game of a twinbill at Philly...after allowing runs in consecutive games, Small posted victories in back-to-back appearances, working an inning each time...he was a 4-3 winner at home on August 29 vs. Milwaukee, then posted a 2-1 victory in 11 innings at Pittsburgh on Sept. 2...his initial win in a D'Back uniform was in Bank One Ballpark on July 19 vs. Colorado, throwing 1 pitch and coaxing a foul out by Dante Bichette, then watching from the bench as Arizona scored 3 times to take a lead it did not relinquish...his year ended by allowing runs in 6 of his last 10 outings, with the home run ball his nemesis, giving up 5 in that span...his lone loss with the D'Backs occurred in the season finale vs. eventual N.L. champ San Diego, allowing a pair of home runs in the 8th inning to lose a 3-2 decision...Aaron basically halved his ERA during his 2nd half stint with Arizona, posting a 3.69 mark, after running up a 7.25 ERA in 24 games with the A's...his ERA got out of hand in his final appearance with Oakland, allowing 7 earned runs over 1.1 innings in an interleague loss to the Giants.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1997—Aaron set an Oakland club record for appearances by a rookie, working 71 times, 7 more than Bob Lacey in 1997...Small led the Athletic staff with 9 wins, while his 96.2 innings were the most by an Oakland reliever since 1992 (Jeff Parrett-98.1)...he picked up a win each of his first 2 outings and retired 20 of the first 25 hitters faced on the year...earned first major league save on April 23 vs. Minnesota with 3.0 scoreless innings...he allowed just 1 of 10 inherited runners to score, and retired 17 of the last 20 first batters he faced on the year...his year opened in Edmonton, but he made only 1 start, working 5.0 shutout innings to pick up the win and get promoted. 1996—His year began with a pair of waiver claims, getting claimed by Seattle from the Marlins on January 23, then claimed 6 days later by the Athletics...he had a pair of stints with Oakland, opening the year on the big league roster, working in relief until an April 27 minor league assignment...worked mainly as a starter with Edmonton, going 8-6, then made 3 starts for the Athletics during his September recall...during AAA stint, Aaron tossed the first no-hitter in Edmonton's 16-year history, a 6-0 win over Vancouver, with no walks and 9 K's, facing 2 over the minimum on August 8...picked up first A.L. win on Sept. 29, working 5.0 innings vs. Seattle. 1995—Began the year in the Toronto chain, but was traded to the Marlins on April 26 after appearing just once for Syracuse...was assigned to Charlotte, appearing 33 times in relief, then got the call to the Marlins in September...earned his first big league win with a shutout inning of relief on Sept. 3 in Houston, his first appearance with Florida. 1994—Opened the year in Knoxville (AA), but earned a promotion to Syracuse (AAA) on May 18...was only a 9-game veteran of AAA ball before getting initial call to the majors on June 10...made his only appearance with Toronto the day after his recall, allowing 2 runs in 2.0 innings vs. New York...he was shipped back to Syracuse on June 16, then after 4 games, returned to AA, finishing the year at Knoxville. 1993—Officially made the switch from starter to reliever, working in 48 games with Knoxville, 39 of which were out of the pen, recording a pro-high 16 saves. 1992—His first year of AA duty, Aaron appeared in 27 games for Knoxville, starting 24. 1991—Had a full year at Dunedin, posting a 2.73 ERA in 24 games (23 starts)...despite a 1-2 record in July, he had a 2.03 ERA over 6 starts. 1990—Finished 8th in the South Atlantic League with a 2.80 ERA while making 27 starts for Myrtle Beach...went 9-9, giving up only 18 earned runs in his 9 setbacks. 1989—Signed as a 22nd round pick in the June draft by the Blue Jays, and began pro career with Medicine Hat.

PERSONAL

Aaron James Small...he and his wife, Macy, had a daughter during the off-season, with the arrival of Mariah on October 19, and the family makes their home in Loudon, TN...he graduated in 1989 from South Hills High School in Covina, CA, earning first team All-League honors in baseball, while also participating in basketball...Aaron was a member of championship teams in his junior and senior years...he spends a large portion of his off-field time working with church youth groups and foster children.

Junior Spivey Infielder

64

Ht: 6-0

Wt: 185

E/T: R/R

Age: 24

Born: January 28, 1975 in Oklahoma City, OK

Residence: Oklahoma City, OK

M.L. Service: None

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as a 36th round selection in the 1996 June free agent draft.

1998 HIGHLIGHTS

Junior combined stops in High Desert (A) and Tulsa (AA) to accumulate an organizational leading 42 stolen bases and 92 walks...he was Arizona's Minor League Player-of-the-Month for May, hitting .337 with 7 RBI and 12 stolen bases while with the Mavericks...he was selected to play in the California League All-Star Game, but a finger sprain prevented his participation...after hitting .281 in 79 games for High Desert, Spivey made the move to AA, playing on loan with Tulsa of the Texas organization...he hit .311 for Tulsa, but was most impressive in the post-season, hitting .342 in 10 playoff games as they won the Texas League title...a model of consistency, his longest hitting streak was just 6 games, but he never went more than 2 straight without a hit, and had only 4 droughts of the 2-game variety...he took just 3 games to adjust to AA pitching, going 1-for-12 at the outset, then batting .394 (13-for-33) over his next 9 contests to up his average over .300...defensively, Junior spent most of the year at 2nd base, committing 10 errors in 25 games in April, then was charged with only 13 miscues over the remaining 84 games he played, including 3 errors in 34 contests for Tulsa.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1997—Spent the entire season at High Desert, hitting .273 for the California League champs...his best stretch was a 16-game hitting streak from July 29-August 15...after a hitless game ended the 16-gamer, he immediately began a 10-game skein. 1996—First year as a pro, his career started here in the Valley with the Phoenix (Rookie) club, ranking 2nd in the league with a .333 mark, while leading the circuit with 11 stolen bases...he earned Organizational Player-of-the-Month for June, then was promoted to Lethbridge, hitting .336 in 31 games.

PERSONAL

Ernest Lee (Junior) Spivey, Jr....he is single and makes his home in Oklahoma City...Junior graduated in 1993 from Douglass High School, then attended Cowley County (KS) Junior College...upon conclusion of the '98 season in Tulsa, he played in the Arizona Fall League, hitting .127 in 34 games for Scottsdale.

Ht: 5-11

Wt: 225

B/T: R/R

Age: 29

Born: February 4, 1970 in Lawton, OK

Residence: Phoenix, AZ

M.L. Service: 3 years, 163 days

HOW OBTAINED: Selected from the Milwaukee Brewers as the fifth choice in the third round of the 1997 Expansion Draft, November 18, 1997.

1998 HIGHLIGHTS

Kelly's busiest and best year as a major leaguer, he established career bests in games (92), average (.259), runs (35), at bats (274), hits (71), doubles (14), homers (11) and RBI (34)...his year started as the #2 catcher, getting the most of his early work vs. lefthanded starters, but an injury to Jorge Fabregas enabled Stinnett to get more work...his extra duty resulted in a club record 13-game hitting streak (April 28-May 21), in which he batted .413 (19-for-46) with 3 homers and 7 RBI...he entered a game on May 11 after Fabregas departed with an ankle injury, and in his first at bat went deep off of eventual N.L. Rookie-of-the-Year Kerry Wood...he followed the next night with a 3-run shot off Chicago's Terry Adams...he also homered in consecutive starts later in the year on Sept. 22 & 25, going deep at Colorado and at home vs. the Padres, respectively...Kelly had a trio of 3-hit games, 2 of which came in the final 2 weeks of the season...he hit .412 (14-for-34) in his last 12 games of '98, featuring 2 doubles, a triple, 2 homers and 6 RBI...he has enjoyed terrific offensive success over Houston hurler Mike Hampton and it continued in '98, wrapping up the year with a .700 career mark (7-for-10) with a pair of home runs...he homered in the Astrodome on July 4, then 11 nights later took the southpaw deep again in B.O.B., the only 2 home runs Kelly hit off of lefties during the year, while hitting 7 vs. righthanders...he tossed out 30% of the potential base thieves (19-for-63).

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1997—Kelly opened the year in AAA, spending 2 1/2 months with Tucson, hitting .321...included was a 5-hit game on May 10, featuring a homer and 2 doubles...he also had a pair of stints with the Brewers, totaling 30 games...was placed on 15-day disabled list on July 26 with an intercostal strain in his left side, keeping him out of action until Sept. 2. 1996—Acquired by the Brewers from the Mets on January 17 in exchange for Cory Lidle...opened the year on the big league roster, but lasted less than a week, and was optioned on April 5...recalled by Milwaukee on June 20, but was up only 4 days without appearing in a game...recalled again on August 11 and stuck with the Brewers for the remainder of the season...started American League career 0-for-16 before getting first hit on August 30 off Twins' Rich Robertson...hit .287 with 27 home runs for New Orleans, earning spot in AAA All-Star Game. 1995—Started 59 games behind the plate for the Mets, hitting .219...homered in successive starts on May 17 at Houston and May 21 at Philly. 1994—Spent the entire season with the Mets after being selected from Cleveland in the Rule 5 draft the previous December...made 41 starts for New York, with his big league debut coming on April 5 at Chicago, collecting initial major league hit, a 2-run double off Shawn Boskie in the 3rd inning...hit first big league homer on May 5 in Busch Stadium off the Cards' Allen Watson...had a memorable series vs. the Rockies in Mile High Stadium on July 6-7, going 4-for-5 with 3 runs scored the first night, then was 3-for-4 with 3 more tallies and 3 RBI the next game. 1993—First year of AAA, hit .274 in 98 games with Charlotte...was 3-for-4 with 4 RBI on May 18 vs. Richmond and homered twice on June 23 vs. Rochester. 1992—Earned Eastern League Player-of-the-Week honors on April 19-25, spending the entire season with Canton-Akron (AA). 1991—Led Columbus (A) in home runs with 14...hit .325 in May with 5 homers and 22 RBI...finished the year with a 12-game hitting streak. 1990—First year as a pro, hit .240 in 60 games for Watertown (A), after signing as Cleveland's 11th choice in the June draft of '89.

PERSONAL

Kelly Lee Stinnett...he and his wife, Gina, and sons, Austin (3/20/95), and Alex (11/11/98) made the move to Phoenix during the off-season...Kelly graduated from Lawton (OK) High School in 1988 earning All-State honors in baseball and football...he was an All-State quarterback on the Class 5A State Champion his senior year...then attended Seminole (OK) Junior College, where he led all JUCO's in home runs (30) and RBI (124) as a freshman, winning All-Conference and All-Region honors...hit .399 with 22 homers and 97 RBI as a sophomore before signing with the Indians...his 1990 club finished 3rd in the Junior College World Series, while Kelly pulled in National Junior College Player-of-the-Year honors and was named first team All-American.

Todd Stottlemire

Righthanded Pitcher

32

Ht: 6-3

Wt: 200

B/T: L/R

Age: 33 (Turns 34 on May 20)

Born: May 20, 1965 in Yakima, WA

Residence: Oldsmar, FL

M.L. Service: 10 years, 111 days

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as a free agent, November 20, 1998.

1998 HIGHLIGHTS

Todd and current teammate Randy Johnson were a pair of the marquee hurlers last year who changed uniforms at the trade deadline in '98...while Johnson was dealt from Seattle to Houston, the veteran Stottlemire left St. Louis after 2 1/2 years and ended up in a pennant race, working for the final 2 months with the Rangers...he and shortstop Royce Clayton went to Texas in exchange for pitcher Darren Oliver, infielder Fernando Tatis and a player to be named (Mark Little)...Todd combined his stops for a 14-13 ledger and 3.74 ERA, going 9-9 with the Cardinals and 5-4 for the playoff bound Rangers...at the time of the trade, he ranked 4th in the N.L. in K's (147), was tied for 6th in complete games (3), and ranked 8th in innings (161.1)...those figures led the Cardinals as did his win total (9) and starts (23)...he was the N.L. Player-of-the-Week for June 22-28, going 2-0 with a 1.08 ERA, allowing 2 earned runs in 17.0 innings, with 15 K's ... while trade talks were heating up, Todd went into a tailspin, matching a career-high with a 4-game losing streak, spanning 5 starts...the slide upped his season ERA from 2.81 to 3.51 at the time of the trade to Texas...he won his Texas debut, allowing 2 earned runs in a 5.2-inning stint against the Blue Jays on August 4, his first work in the A.L. since October 1, 1995, with Oakland, and his first win in the junior circuit since Sept. 20, 1995 vs. the Angels...Todd went 2-2 over his next 4 outings, but had an inflated 8.19 ERA, giving up 17 earned runs in 18.2 innings... he then settled into his new surroundings, giving up 10 earned runs over his final 36.0 regular season frames, a 2.50 ERA...fortunately, the Rangers scored 7 or more runs in each of his first 5 starts, compared to that occurring only once in 23 starts with St. Louis...he averaged 8.5 K's per 9-innings while with Texas, fanning 57 in 60.1 innings...the son of former big league pitcher and current Yankees' coach, Mel Stottlemire, Todd was a 16-5 winner in Yankee Stadium on August 15, the first time that he worked a major league game with his father in either dugout...the durable hurler worked at least 7.0 innings in 20 of his 33 starts, and went into the 6th frame in 28 of those outings...he fanned 10 or more on 3 occasions, with a season-high of 13 K's on May 11 vs. Milwaukee...he entered the '99 season with 16 career 10+ strikeout games.

POST-SEASON: Todd was Texas' game #1 starter in the Division Series against New York, and lost a heartbreaking 2-0 decision in Yankee Stadium...he went the distance (8.0 innings), allowing 2 runs on 6 hits, with 4 walks and 8 K's...the Yanks scored both of their runs in the 2nd, which was all David Wells needed, as he combined with Mariano Rivera on the 5-hit shutout.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1997—Todd tied Matt Morris for the Redbird lead with 12 wins, despite missing the final month of the season with shoulder fatigue...he was 4-5 through June 15, then won 7 of his next 9 decisions from June 21-August 2...he fanned a season-high 10 men on 3 occasions, and tied Alan Benes for 2nd on the club with 160 K's (Andy Benes led with 175)...Todd ranked 7th in the N.L. by limiting opposing hitters to a .231 average...posted 100th career victory on May 25 at San Francisco, joining Mel as the first father-son tandem to reach the century mark in wins...best single-game performance was July 28 vs. Houston, working 8.0 shutout innings, while doubling in the deciding run in the 8th of a 2-1 victory...at the plate, he had 4 doubles and a triple, and fashioned a 5-game hitting streak from June 21-July 13. 1996—Had a successful first test as a National Leaguer, joining the Cardinals in January as part of a 4-player trade with Oakland...he worked a career-high 223.1 innings, while posting 14 wins for the 2nd straight year...his 5 complete games tied for 3rd most in the N.L....he limited the opposition to an overall .231 batting average, with righthanders limited to a .198 mark (91-for-459)...had a season-high 13 K's in a 6-0 complete game win on May 15 at Florida...he recorded career-K #1,000 on August 2 at New York...was victimized 30 times by the home run ball, including 4 in a game on August 29 vs. Florida...his 12-3 win over the Astros on Sept. 3 vaulted he and Mel ahead of the Trout twosome (Dizzy & Steve) for most wins by a father/son duo (259)...offensively, he swiped a base on June 20 at Montreal, the first stolen base by a Redbird pitcher since Bob Forsch in 1988...Todd had 3 hits on June 30 vs. Pittsburgh, the first 3-hit game by a Cardinal hurler since Scott Terry in '88. 1996 POST-SEASON: Todd was the Cards' only multiple-game winner in the post-season, going 2-1 in 4 outings (3 starts)...he won for the first time in 10 post-season tries by winning the Division Series opener against San Diego on October 1, working 6.2 frames of a 3-1 win...he followed that with a victory on October 10 in the 2nd game of the NLCS at Atlanta, fanning 8 over 6.0 innings, an 8-3 triumph. 1995—Signing as a free agent on April 11, his only year with the Athletics, Todd's 205 strikeouts ranked 2nd in the A.L., and 3rd in baseball...his season strikeout total and 7 double-digit "K" games were 2nd only to Vida Blue's 301-K and 8 double digit strikeout games in Oakland history...had a 4-game winning streak from June 6-July 1, but it was a no decision that was a career performance...he set personal bests with 10.0 innings and 15 K's, including 7 strikeouts in last 3.1 innings, in ND vs. Kansas City on June 16...had back-to-back double-digit strikeout games in late September, fanning 12 in 8.1 frames vs. California on the 20th, then recording 10 K's in 6.0 innings on the 26th at Texas...in 5 September starts, he fanned 43 while walking 9 in 37.1 innings. 1994—Opened the year in Toronto's bullpen, making 7 relief appearances at the outset, going 2-0 with a save and 2.19 ERA...earned only professional save on April 5 vs. the White Sox, working the 9th...returned to starting on April 26 with win over Kansas City...fired 4th career shutout with a 4-hitter vs. California on May 29...snapped an 8-start winless streak with August 4 win at Boston...left Toronto ranking in their top 5 in wins (59), starts (175), shutouts (4) and strikeouts (662). 1993—Ranked 4th in the A.L. in fewest homers allowed with 11 in 176.2 innings...was on the disabled list from May 23-June 13 with pulled lat muscle behind right shoulder...lone complete game was his 3rd career shutout, fanning 10 in a Sept. 21 win over Boston...made the start in the 4th game of the ALCS vs. Chicago, but took 7-4 loss...started 4th game of World Series vs. Philly, but was injured running the bases in 2nd inning. 1992—Had a career-high 6 complete games, tying for top spot on Toronto staff...tossed first professional shutout on April 29 vs. California, the highlight of a 4-game winning streak...went on the D.L. on June 20 with right knee injury and did not make another start until July 20...tossed 2nd shutout with a career-low 1-hitter on August 26 at Chicago, a 9-0 win, carrying a no-no into the 9th before Dan Pasqua doubled with 1 out...was suspended by A.L. for Sept. 23-27, missing final start of season...worked 3.2 innings in 4th game of ALCS vs. Oakland, then made 4 relief appearances against the Braves in the World Series, fanning 4 in 3.2 shutout innings. 1991—Set a professional best with 15 wins, his first winning season in the majors...did not miss a start, making a career-high 34...went 5-0 through 7 starts to open the year, and 8-2 through first 14 starts...started and lost the 4th game of the ALCS vs. Minnesota, a 9-3 setback. 1990—First full major league season, worked exclusively as a starter, making 33 appearances, topping the Jays' staff with 4 complete games...was the youngest opening day starter in franchise history, taking the ball at 24 years old, losing a 4-2 decision vs. Texas.

Stottlemyre (Continued)

1989—Opened the year in Toronto's pen, making 7 relief appearances, including a team-high 6-inning stint on April 18...was outrighted to Syracuse on May 15, going 3-2 in 10 games (9 starts)...returned to Jays on June 30 and joined the starting rotation for the remainder of the year, winning 7 of 8 decisions from July 6-Sept. 6, including 5 in a row...made first post-season appearance in 2nd game of ALCS vs. Oakland, losing a 6-3 decision. 1988—Made big league club out of spring training for first time, debuting with 1.2 shutout innings of relief on April 6 at Kansas City...first start was a 4-2 loss at Minnesota on April 10...earned first major league win on May 3 at Seattle, retiring the first 19 men he faced...lost 6 straight decisions at mid-season and was outrighted to Syracuse on July 27...went 5-0 in 7 starts with a 2.05 ERA in AAA, earning the organization's Pitcher-of-the-Month award for August, then returned to Toronto for September. 1987—Earned team MVP honors at Syracuse (AAA), just his 2nd pro season, leading the league in starts (34), while ranking 2nd in strikeouts (143) and innings (186.2). 1986—Honored as the California League's top prospect by Baseball America, going 9-4 with a 2.43 ERA in 17 starts for Ventura (A), his first pro test...was selected TOPPS Player-of-the-Month for May and the Toronto organization's Pitcher-of-the-Month for June...was promoted on June 21 to Knoxville (AA), finishing 3rd on the staff with 8 wins in just half a season.

PERSONAL

Todd Vernon Stottlemyre...he and his wife, Sheri, and daughter, Rachel (10/12/95) make their home in Oldsmar, FL...Todd graduated in 1982 from Davis High School in Yakima, WA, going 10-0 with a 0.72 ERA as a senior...he then attended the University of Nevada-Las Vegas, going 10-4 with a 4.20 ERA during his freshman year...Todd sat out his sophomore season with a tender right elbow, but enrolled in Yakima Valley Community College...he withdrew from UNLV during his junior year to be eligible for the January, 1985, draft, and he was selected by St. Louis but chose not to sign...he was then drafted in the secondary phase of the '85 June draft by Toronto and inked his first pro contract...he is the son of former Yankee great and current pitching coach Mel Stottlemyre...the Stottlemyres are the only father-son combination in major league history to each record 100 or more wins, and their combined total of 287 (Mel-164, Todd-123) are the most ever by a father and son...the Stottlemyres, Trouts and Bagbys (Jim & Jim Jr.) are the only 3 father/son combinations to take part in post-season play...Todd has been a huge contributor to the Leukemia Society and has plans to participate in programs in the Phoenix area in an effort to find a cure for the disease...he had a "K's for Kids" program in St. Louis that donated money for strikeouts to area charities.

1998 HIGHLIGHTS

Greg's year began with Minnesota, his 2nd straight year with the Twins, but when the July 31 trade deadline arrived, he was on the move to a playoff race, joining the Red Sox who were embroiled in a wild card chase...a starter for the first 10 years of his big league career, he worked exclusively in relief for the first time, appearing in a career-high 81 games, 3rd most in the American League, while his 2 saves doubled his career total entering the '98 campaign...Swindell left stranded 90% of the runners he inherited, with only 5 of the 48 crossing the plate...with the Twins, 27 of 30 remained aboard, while with Boston, 16 of 18 were stranded...after a tough month of April in which he allowed 8 earned runs in 12.1 innings (5.84 ERA), he gave up only 7 earned runs over the next 2 months, combining May & June for a 2-1 mark with 2 saves and a 1.58 ERA, spanning 28 games and 39.2 innings...he was particularly impressive during a 17-game stretch from May 8-June 10, allowing 2 earned runs in 23.2 innings, a 0.76 ERA...he was dealt to the BoSox on July 31 with Orlando Merced in exchange for outfielder John Barnes and pitchers Matt Kinney and Joe Thomas...on his arrival in Boston, he was touched for 4 earned runs in his first 5 outings, spanning 4.0 innings (9.00 ERA), then gave up only 5 earned tallies over his final 24 appearances, totaling 19.1 frames for a 2.32 mark...after more than 12 years and 4 different franchise, Greg finally got the shot at pitching in the post-season, working in the 2nd game of the Division Series Playoffs against Cleveland, tossing 1.1 scoreless innings.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1997—Made 65 appearances and for the first time, all but 1 came in relief...his lone starting assignment was on May 10 vs. Toronto, which remains his last start entering the '99 season...he had a 5-game winning streak (June 1-August 2), which included an 8-appearance stretch from July 14-26, where he was 2-0 with a 0.73 ERA, allowing an earned run in 12.1 innings...posted first career save on Sept. 20 against Milwaukee...lefthanders could muster only a .204 mark against him. 1996—Started his 4th consecutive year with the Astros, but was slowed by a groin injury that disabled him from April 20-May 22...Greg was released on June 3 and signed as a free agent with Cleveland on June 15, the team he played for during the first 6 years of his career...he was a winner on June 18 vs. the Red Sox, his first triumph in a Cleveland uniform since Sept. 21, 1991 vs. Baltimore...was outrighted on Sept. 6, then inked a contract with Minnesota. 1995—The majority of his work came as a starter, going to the hill 33 times, 26 in the starting role...recorded a season-high 7 K's on April 30 vs. Colorado...tossed the 12th shutout of his career on June 26 vs. St. Louis...dropped 5 straight decisions in August and was moved out of rotation...posted 100th career victory on August 29 at Atlanta, working a pair of hitless innings of relief...finished going 2-0 out of the pen. 1994—Opened the year by winning 5 of his first 6 decisions, including a stretch of 17.0 consecutive scoreless innings from April 8-19...finished April going 3-0 with a 1.80 ERA...things weren't quite as good in June, losing 5 straight starts...had a complete game 12-4 win on August 5 vs. San Francisco...finished the strike-shortened season 5th in the N.L. with 1.58 walks per 9-innings. 1993—Tied for 6th in the league in fewest walks per 9-innings at 1.89...opened year going 4-1 in April with a 3.08 ERA...was disabled with a left shoulder strain from July 6-25...returned to go 4-2 with a 2.41 ERA in 6 August starts...fanned a season-high 10 on August 24 at Florida...recorded 1,000th career strikeout, fanning Jim Deshaies on Sept. 20...finished year with 11th career shutout on October 1 in Cincinnati. 1992—Was part of an in-state trade the previous December, coming to the Reds from Cleveland in exchange for pitchers Jack Armstrong, Scott Scudder and Joe Turek...made National League debut on April 9 in Houston, but didn't post first N.L. victory until April 25 at San Diego...finished 9th in the N.L. with a 2.70 ERA, leading the Reds' with 5 complete games, and 3 shutouts...best work came in August, going 3-2 with a 1.66 ERA and 2 shutouts...month came to quick halt with stint on disabled list (August 23-Sept. 7) due to stress fracture in left rib cage...ranked 3rd in the N.L. in fewest walks per 9-innings (1.73)...signed as a free agent with Houston on December 4. 1991—The last of 6 straight seasons with the Indians, led the staff in innings pitched, strikeouts and complete games...his 7 CG's were 2nd most in his career to the 12 he recorded in 1988...fanned a season-high 12 on April 24 vs. Kansas City...he tied a career-high with a 10-inning performance on June 11 vs. Toronto...walked only 31 men in 238.0 innings, a sparkling 1.17 walks per-9 inning ratio...had a deceptive 9-16 ledger as the Tribe averaged only 3.6 runs in his 33 starts. 1990—He established a career best in starts (34), leading the Cleveland staff in that department as well as innings and strikeouts...snapped an 10-start drought with 8.1 innings in a win over California on July 1, a victory that kicked off a 4-game winning streak...he parlayed that into an 8-2 stretch from July 22-August 22. 1989—Made his first opening day start on April 3 vs. Milwaukee...tied a career-high with a 6-game winning streak from May 28-June 24, and through July 20 was victorious in 9 of 10 decisions...tied a career-low with a 2-hitter on June 7 vs. California, his 3rd career...was named to the American League All-Star team and worked 1.2 innings allowing 2 hits and fanning 3 in Anaheim Stadium...was disabled from July 26-August 30 with a left elbow ligament strain...gave up 3 earned runs or less in 20 of his 28 starts. 1988—Had a career-year, winning 18 games, including 12 complete games, leading the Cleveland staff in virtually every category...won 10 of his first 11 decisions from April 6-May 2, including a season-opening 6-game winning streak...tossed back-to-back complete games on April 6 at Texas and April 11 vs. Baltimore...earned A.L. Player-of-the-Week honors for April 11-17, going 2-0 with a 0.95 ERA...established a career-high with a 10-inning stint on April 16 at Baltimore, blanking the Orioles...carried a no-hitter into the 7th on May 19 vs. Chicago, but wound up with 2-hit shutout...hit a drought at mid-season, losing 8 consecutive decisions (June 5-July 19)...the Tribe scored only 28 runs in his 14 losses...was 2nd in the A.L. in walks per 9-innings (1.67), while tying for 2nd in shutouts (4), and finishing 4th in complete games. 1987—Tossed his first career shutout, 3-0 on April 19 at Baltimore, a 6-hitter...made first professional relief appearance on April 15 at New York, retiring only man he faced...tossed 2nd complete game with a 4-2 win vs. Kansas City on May 10, fanning a career-high 15...he suffered a broken middle finger on his right hand when hit by a Wade Boggs line drive on May 26 at Boston, but did not miss a start...had season cut short with a sore left elbow, sidelining him after July 2. 1986—Signed with Cleveland as the 2nd overall pick in the June draft, and began pro career with Waterloo, going 2-1 with a 1.00 ERA in 3 starts, fanning 25 in 18.0 innings... was promoted to the majors on August 21, and made big league debut on August 21 vs. Boston...had a season-high 9 K's on Sept. 1 at Toronto...started a 4-game winning streak with first major league win on Sept. 6 at Milwaukee...final win in streak was Sept. 23 at California, his first career complete game.

HOW OBTAINED: Acquired on waivers from the Chicago Cubs, May 15, 1998.

1998 HIGHLIGHTS

Amaury opened the year in the Chicago Cubs' bullpen, but finished the campaign starting for the D'Backs...he went 1-1 with a 3.90 ERA in 14 relief appearances for the Cubs, opening with a 2.08 mark through 6 outings...he was waived by Chicago on May 15 and claimed by Arizona, who had him work 9 times in relief before securing a starting role...while in the pen, he was a 6-4 winner in Florida on May 21, tossing 3.0 innings...his initial start was June 20 in St. Louis, the first of 18 starts, struggling to a 2-7 beginning in that role...one of those wins was a special personal night, as Amaury won an August 3 visit to Wrigley Field, taking a 6-5 decision from his old mates...he closed the campaign with 6 straight starts at Bank One Ballpark, going 2-2...the initial win in that stretch was his best overall outing of the year, a 3-1 triumph over the Astros, working 7.0 innings allowing a run on 6 hits, with 6 K's...his year ended with a 3-2 win in B.O.B. over the eventual N.L. champion Padres, outdueling Sterling Hitchcock on Sept. 26, working 6.0 frames allowing 2 runs on 5 hits, with 5 K's...at the plate, Tele was 3-for-35 (.086), but had the only triple by a Diamondback hurler, collecting a 3-base knock on August 24 in Shea off of Masato Yoshii.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1997—Made 18 starts for Iowa (AAA), and appeared in 10 games (5 starts) for Chicago over a pair of recalls...established a career high for strikeouts in a game, fanning 9 Pirates over 6.2 innings on April 27, though he lost the contest, 7-0...had a pair of 5-hit shutouts while with Iowa, and had a route-going win on July 3 fanning a season-high 11 vs. Oklahoma City...made a start for Orlando (AA) on July 9 during Iowa's All-Star break...was named by Baseball America as the possessor of the best breaking pitch in the American Association. 1996—Amaury got his first taste of major league action, opening the year with Iowa, but getting 25 tests, including 17 starts, for Chicago...made a solid first impression, in his debut on May 16 with a win over Houston...he no-hit the Astros in his first 5.2 innings of big league work, until Jeff Bagwell spoiled run at the record book with a single, the only hit Telemaco gave up over 7.0 innings, a 13-1 win...he followed that with a win at Atlanta on May 21, a 4-2 decision, working 8.0 frames allowing 2 runs on 6 hits...a 2-run homer by Marquis Grissom in the 6th inning snapped Tele's 12.1 inning shutout streak to inaugurate his big league career...was disabled from August 20-Sept. 4 with a strained right shoulder...upon returning to the Cubs, he worked exclusively out of the bullpen...recorded first 2 hits of his career on July 2 at Pittsburgh in a 15-7 win...his first hit was run scoring single off of Paul Wagner. 1995—He led the Cubs' farm system with 151 K's in 147.2 innings at Orlando (AA)...his strikeout total ranked 2nd in the Southern League, while his 3.29 ERA was 7th...he led the league in fewest baserunners allowed per 9-innings (9.6) and was 2nd in opposition batting average (.211). 1994—Combined 23 starts at Daytona (A) and Orlando to go 10-8 with 4 complete games and a 3.42 ERA...he began in Daytona, winning first 5 starts, and finishing 7-3 in 11 starts...was tied for the Florida State League lead in wins when promoted to Orlando on June 9. 1993—His first full season as a pro, going 8-11 at Peoria (A), fanning 133 in 143.2 innings...he recorded double-digit totals in K's on 4 occasions, including a dozen in 6.0 innings on July 14 at Cedar Rapids. 1992—Began pro career at Huntington (Rookie), going 3-5 in 12 starts...led the Appalachian League with 93 K's in 76.1 innings, while walking just 17...was promoted to Peoria toward end of year, going 0-1 in 2 games.

PERSONAL

Amaury Telemaco (Regaldo)...he and his wife, Deyanira, welcomed a son, Amaury Jr. just 2 days after the season ended on September 29...they make their off season home in La Romana, DR...he attended Cristo Rey High School.

1998 HIGHLIGHTS

Matt persevered through a pair of injuries that haunted him for the majority of the year, yet still managed to hit 20 home runs for the 9th consecutive season...in reaching the 20-homer plateau, he joined Barry Bonds, Albert Belle, Frank Thomas and Rafael Palmeiro as the only major leaguers to achieve that mark in each of the last 7 seasons...the campaign started well, featuring a season-high 10-game hitting streak from April 11-20, batting .324 (12-for-37), featuring home runs in 3 straight games on April 14-16 in St. Louis...the roundtripper streak began with his 6th career grand slam, a shot off of Kent Mercker, followed by solo blasts the next 2 games off of Todd Stottlemire and John Frascatore, respectively...he had a pair of home runs on April 25 at Florida, the 28th multi-homer game of his career, 27th with 2 blasts, taking Livan Hernandez deep in the 2nd, then winning the game with a 2-run shot in the 11th off Vic Darenbourg...he finished the night with his lone 4-hit game of the year (10th career)...Matty was hitting .309 on May 2, before a 7-game, 0-for-23 drought occurred, a tough week that included a left hand injury that limited his play for 5 days and hampered him throughout the season...after returning to action, he hammered his 2nd slam of the year and 7th career, a 5th inning shot on May 20 at Florida off of Andy Larkin...the injury bug bit again in early July, fouling a ball off his left foot on July 3 in Houston, and though he continued to play on the tender foot for 2 weeks, he was eventually diagnosed with a stress fracture and placed on the 15-day disabled list...he returned to action on August 3 in Chicago, and as luck would have it, he was hit on the right hand by a pitch in his first game back, forcing him to miss 4 more games...his average dipped to .255 by mid-September, but Matt hit safely in 10 of his last 12 games of the year at a .373 clip (19-for-51), including a season-ending 6-game hitting streak in which he batted .417 (10-for-24)...he totaled 8 games with 3 or more RBI, including 4 4-RBI tilts...he was 3-for-4 with a homer, 4 RBI and 2 stolen bases on August 30 vs. Milwaukee, and he added a 4-RBI affair on June 30 at Chicago, featuring a 3-run homer off of Mark Clark...he finished '98 with 11 errors, though he did not commit a miscue in his final 35 games...he was a .347 hitter on the first pitch of an at bat (34-for-98)...he batted .300 (39-for-130) against southpaws, with 5 home runs, while hitting .255 (97-for-380) with 15 blasts against righthanders.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

A 4-time National League All-Star (1990, 1994-96), though he was unable to play in '95 or '96 due to injury...Matt owns 4 Rawlings Gold Gloves and 4 Silver Slugger Awards...has eclipsed the 20-homer run mark in each of his 9 full seasons in the majors...finished San Francisco career 4th in club history in home runs (247) and 10th in RBI (732). 1997—Only year as an American Leaguer, Matt was part of a 6-player deal on November 13, 1996, and wound up participating in his 2nd World Series...earned his 4th Silver Slugger Award and was also rewarded for his steady defensive play with 4th Rawlings Gold Glove, first since 1994 with the Giants...led the Tribe with 105 RBI, 3rd time of 100+ RBI in his career, first since 1993, while 32 blasts marked 5th 30+ homer season...hit first A.L. home run on April 16 off of Boston's Steve Avery...hit 3 homers in a game for first time in major league career on April 25 at Milwaukee...followed the next night with more 2 home runs vs. the Brewers, tying the big league standard with 5 in 2 days, the 20th time in major league annals, 3rd by an Indian (Joe Carter-1989 and Albert Belle-1995)...all totaled, he had 6 multi-homer games on the year, 5 of the 2-homer variety...2-homer games also occurred on May 18 at Toronto, June 28 at New York, August 1 at Texas and Sept. 6 vs. Chicago (AL)...June 28 game at New York also tied career bests with 4 hits and 6 RBI...had another 6-RBI game on August 27 at Anaheim, collecting all 6 RBI in the 4th inning to equal a major league record (a 3-run homer and 3-run double off of Allen Watson in the 4th inning), Williams' 4th career 6-RBI game...2nd half of season included a career-high 24-game hitting streak (August 13-Sept. 8), hitting .357 (35-for-98) with 6 homers and 27 RBI...it was the 8th longest streak in Cleveland history, and 8 more games than his personal best of 16 accomplished twice previously...established a personal single-season best with 12 thefts, featuring his first career multi-steal game on June 8 at Boston, pilfering 3 bags...committed 12 errors in 402 total chances (.970 fielding pct.), 2nd best among A.L. 3rd basemen...hit just 7 of his 32 home runs in Jacobs Field, while his 25 road homers were 1 shy of Albert Belle's club record of 26 in 1996.

1997 POST-SEASON

Hit safely in 14 of the 18 games he played in during the post-season, including a 7-game hitting streak that began in the 2nd game of the Division Series and ran through the 3rd game of the ALCS...also hit safely in the first 6 games of the World Series.

DIVISION SERIES: Had a hit in each of the last 4 games of the New York series, including a home run in the 2nd game off of losing pitcher Andy Pettitte...knocked in a run with a single in the 5th and deciding game vs. Yankees.

LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES: Overall average was a .217 mark (5-for-23), but he was 4-for-12 (.333) in the first 3 games vs. the Orioles...went 2-for-4 with an RBI in 2-1, 12-inning win at home in game #3.

WORLD SERIES: Had an outstanding Fall Classic at the plate, going 10-for-26 (.385) in the 7 games against the Marlins, with a home run and 3 RBI...hit safely in first 6 games of the series, going 10-for-24 (.417)...he homered in game #4, driving in a pair in the 10-3 win...also walked 7 times during the series, including 3 times in game #7.

1996—Injury shortened campaign for 2nd straight year, playing in just 105 games due to right shoulder that eventually required surgery...became the first San Francisco Giant to start 8 straight opening days, on April 1 in Atlanta...collected his 1,000th major league hit on April 26 off of Florida's Kevin Brown...hit safely in 82 of the 105 games he participated in...homered in 3 consecutive games (May 3-7), the 5th time in his career...originally damaged shoulder on July 16 in Colorado attempting to break up a double play in a 6th inning collision with Walt Weiss...moved across to 1st base the following inning, then started 12 of the next 15 games at 1st before going on the D.L. on August 5...had the shoulder scoped on August 17 by Dr. Warren King in San Francisco, with the procedure revealing slight fraying of the labrum, bursa scarring and rotator cuff inflammation...was voted the National League's starting 3rd baseman in the All-Star Game, but was unable to play due to a severely bruised left elbow after being hit by a pitch in San Diego on July 6...it was his 2nd straight missed All-Star start due to injury, 3rd time overall he had been elected by the fans. 1995—Hit a career-best .336 with 23 homers and 65 RBI, but was limited to just 76 games...fractured the 2nd metatarsal bone in his right foot on a foul tip off a Paul Quantrill pitch on June 3 vs. Philly...Williams singled later in the game, but was removed after running to 2nd base on a subsequent single, and placed on the D.L. the next day...injury required surgery by Dr. King and Dr. Gordon Campbell, who inserted pins in the displaced fracture...missed a total of 68 games with the injury, with Giants going 28-40 in his absence, dropping 8.0 games in the standings...at the time of the injury, he was leading the league in avg. (.381), homers (13), RBI (35) and hits (50)...was named the N.L. Player-of-the-Month for May, hitting .405 (45-for-111) with 12 homers and 31 RBI...was elected to start All-Star Game in Arlington, TX, but was unable to play due to the injury...finished the year by hitting .419 (26-for-62) over final 16 games to wrap up with .336 average...hit 5th career grand slam, first since 1990, taking Cubs' Frank Castillo deep with bases loaded on Sept. 9 in Wrigley. 1994—Led the majors with a career-best 43 home runs in the strike-shortened 115-game season, setting an all-time franchise record (NY and SF) for homers by a 3rd baseman...at the time of the strike he was on pace to tie Roger Maris' then single-season major league record of 61...voted the starting 3rd baseman on the N.L. All-Star team, 1st time elected, 2nd appearance...finished 2nd in the MVP balloting behind Jeff Bagwell, while earning a spot on The Sporting News, Associated Press and Baseball America Post-Season All-Star teams...earned 3rd Rawlings Gold Glove, while also winning Silver Slugger Award...had more extra-base hits (62) than singles (57)...was just heating up at the time of the strike, hitting 5 home runs in final 8 games...40 homers through July 31 set then N.L. record, surpassing previous mark of 36 by Johnny Bench, Willie Mays, Willie Stargell and Mike Schmidt... also set N.L. mark with 33 home runs prior to All-Star break...hit career HR #200 off of Cincinnati's Erik Hanson on August 1...tied a then career-best 16-game hitting streak (July 20-August 6). 1993—Rebounded from sub-par '92 season to finish 2nd in N.L. in total bases (325), 2nd in extra-base hits (75), 3rd in homers (38), 3rd in slugging (.561), 5th in RBI (110) and 6th in runs (105)...finished 6th in MVP vote and was named the UPI Comeback Player-of-the-Year...was also named the top 3rd baseman in the majors by Associated Press...season mark of .294 was a 67-point increase over '92 season, the biggest gain in the N.L., and 53 points over career average entering the year...teamed with Barry Bonds (46 HR) to produce SF's first 40/30 homer tandem since Bobby Bonds and Willie McCovey in 1969... earned 2nd Rawlings Gold Glove, leading all N.L. 3rd basemen with .970 fielding pct...was on the D.L. from June 28-July 14 with strained abdominal muscle. 1992—Scuffled through .227 season, 2nd lowest in the N.L. among title-qualifiers (Tim Wallach hit .223)...hit a pair of homers on May 13 in Philadelphia, then had the longest home run drought of career, 128 AB's from May 22-July 7. 1991—Ranked 2nd in the N.L. in home runs (34), 4th in total bases (294) and 10th in RBI (98)...hit 33 home runs as the 3rd baseman, the most ever by a Giant 3rd sacker (also played 4 games at shortstop)...earned first Rawlings Gold Glove, joining Jim Davenport as only Giant 3B to win award...drove in runs in 10 consecutive games (August 27-Sept. 6)...hit career homer #100 off Darryl Kile on October 1. 1990—Led the N.L. in RBI (122), while ranking 4th in home runs (33), 4th in total bases (301) and 8th in extra-base hits (62)...RBI total was most ever by a Giant 3rd baseman, breaking Mel Ott's mark of 116 in 1938...established then personal best with 16-game hitting streak (June 3-19)...ranked 2nd in N.L. in fielding pct. with .959 mark. 1989—Opened the year as the Giants' 3rd baseman, but wound up splitting the season between S.F. and Phoenix (AAA)...hit 2nd career grand slam on April 9 in Cincy off of Danny Jackson...was hitting just .130 (7-for-54) on May 1 and was optioned to Phoenix...had a superb NLCS vs. the Cubs, setting a 5-game record for RBI with 9, featuring a home run and 4 RBI in game #4... homered off Dave Stewart in game #3 of the World Series vs. Oakland. 1988—Had a pair of stints with the Giants, recalled from Phoenix for the first time on June 2 and started 10 games at short in place of the injured Jose Uribe...hit 3 homers and drove in 9, including first career grand slam on June 4 off Houston's Nolan Ryan...had 2nd career 2-homer game on Sept. 24 at Los Angeles...while with Phoenix, tied a 25-year old PCL record with 4 homers on May 25 vs. Albuquerque. 1987—Assigned to Phoenix, but appeared just once before having contract purchased on April 11...had first major league hit that day off Dodgers' Orel Hershisier...hit first big league homer in Candlestick Park on April 19 off Atlanta's Jeff Dedmon...was the starting shortstop when Giants set major league record for most double plays in 3 games, (13) and 4 games (17), on April 24-27 in Atlanta...replaced Joel Youngblood (broken wrist) on the NLCS roster vs. St. Louis but did not play. 1986—Signed with Giants in June after being the 3rd overall pick in the June draft and reported to Everett (Rookie)...knocked in 10 runs in 4 games before earning quick promotion to Clinton (A).

...Snake Bite Love Those Gloves

There are 13 Rawlings Gold Gloves represented when the Diamondbacks suit up daily, featuring 7 among the active players and 6 more in the first base coaching box.

Matt Williams leads the pack among active players on the roster, earning his 4th in 1997 with the Indians. Steve Finley joined the Arizona outfield with a pair of leather awards for his play with San Diego (1995-96). Jay Bell snapped Ozzie Smith's reign at shortstop in 1993 while with the Pirates, his lone Gold Glove. First base and outfield coach, Dwayne Murphy, won 6 consecutive Rawlings Gold Gloves from 1980-85 while patrolling centerfield for the Oakland A's.

HOW OBTAINED: Acquired from the Pittsburgh Pirates in exchange for minor league outfielder Paul Weichard and a player-to-be-named, February 26, 1999.

1998 HIGHLIGHTS

Tony's 2nd full season with the Pirates, he led the National League in stolen bases for the 2nd consecutive year, pilfering 58 bases, the 2nd highest total in the majors to Rickey Henderson's 66...Womack became the first Pirate since Omar Moreno (1978-79) to lead the league in thefts in consecutive seasons...he established career bests in batting (.282), games (159), at bats (655) and hits (185), while tying his personal bests in runs (85) and doubles (26)...he was the 2nd toughest hitter in the N.L. to double-up, hitting into just 4 double plays, a 1 in every 164 at bat ratio (Andy Fox led the league with just 2 GDP's in 502 AB's)...Tony established a major league record by going 918 at bats without grounding into a double play (May 27, 1997 to August 5, 1998), spanning 220 games and 980 plate appearances...his 655 at bats were the 3rd most in the league and he became the first Pirate since Jay Bell (1992-93) to break the 600-AB mark in consecutive seasons...Tony led the Pirates with 56 multi-hit games, the 10th best total in the N.L....he had a career-high 32 infield hits, including 11 bunt hits...he was Pittsburgh's opening day 2nd baseman for the 2nd straight year, but closed the year with 5 starts in centerfield...he had a 3-hit game on April 9 vs. Atlanta, then hit a .143 slide (7-for-49) that spanned 12 contests...snapped out of the drought with a 9-game streak in which he batted .366 (15-for-41), upping his season average 59 points to .233...his first homer of the year was also his 3rd career leadoff blast, opening the June 1 game vs. the Mets with a long ball...he tied a career-high with 4 hits on July 5 at Wrigley Field...Tony had a career-best 16-game hitting streak from July 3-22, the longest streak by a Buc in '98, hitting a sizzling .507 (34-for-67), raising his season average from .241 to .284...a streak inside the streak featured 5 consecutive multi-hit games from July 12-16, going 12-for-22 (.545)...he had the 2nd inside-the-park homer of his career on July 13 vs. the Cubs, the 500th in franchise history...Tony went hitless in the first 2 games in July, then hit safely in 22 of 24 games and finished July hitting .406 for the month (46-for-113)...he hit .241 (85-for-352) over his first 84 games through July 2, then hit .330 (100-for-303) over his final 75 contests...his season average topped out at .291 on August 29, during a 12-game hitting streak...he swiped 20 consecutive bases from July 5-August 16, the 2nd best streak of his career...included was a 3-steal game to open the streak on July 5 in Chicago...Tony was 50-for-56 (89%) when attempting to steal 2nd base and 8-for-10 when trying to take 3rd...he was a .330 hitter with runners on base, while batting .259 with the sacks empty...he hit .321 from the 7th inning on...he led the Pirates with a .322 mark after the All-Star break.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1997—His first full season in the majors, Tony led the National League in stolen bases (60), the 3rd best mark among big leaguers in '97...he ranked 8th in the N.L. in hits (178) and 3rd in at bats (641)...he was the 6th toughest to double-up, grounding into 6 DP's, a 1 in 106.8 AB ratio...all 6 GDP's came before May 28...he led the Pirates with 51 multi-hit games, 8th best in the league, and had a team-high 28 infield hits, including 9 bunt hits...his 60 thefts were the most by a Pirate since Omar Moreno swiped 60 in 1982 (Moreno was also the last Pirate to lead the N.L. in steals with 77 in 1979)...Tony stole a club record 32 in a row between April 6 and July 4, breaking Max Carey's mark of 31 in 1922...he was named to the National League All-Star squad, just the 5th Pittsburgh 2nd baseman to be named to the team, joining Carlos Garcia (1994), Phil Garner (1980-81),

Bill Mazeroski (1958-59, 1962-64 & 1967) and Frank Gustine (1946)...hit his first major league homer on April 16 at San Diego off of Dario Veras...had a team-high 13-game hitting streak from April 30-May 14, hitting .436 (24-for-55)...collected first career inside-the-park homer on May 26 vs. the Cubs...Tony hit his first career leadoff homer on July 27 at San Francisco, hitting Mark Gardner's first pitch of the first game of a doubleheader...he then set a career-high with 4 hits in the 2nd game of the twinbill...added another 4-hit effort on August 3 vs. the Rockies, including a 2-run homer...he hit his 2nd game-opening homer on August 19 off of San Diego's Pete Smith in Three Rivers...he went 4-for-4 with a club record tying 4 stolen bases on Sept. 6 at Cincinnati (Moreno was also the last Pirate to swipe 4 in a game on June 2, 1980)...he closed the year with 13 consecutive thefts...he was 44-for-49 (90%) when attempting to steal 2nd base, and 16-of-18 (89%) when swiping 3rd...Tony swiped 2nd and 3rd in the same inning 6 times...he had off-season surgery to repair soft tissue injury in his left knee.

1996—He spent the full-season with Calgary (AAA), earning the fans' vote as the Cannons' Most Popular Player...he ranked 2nd in the PCL in stolen bases (37), while his 11 triples were the 2nd most in team history...he hit safely in 23 of the 25 games in April...went 5-for-5 on July 21 vs. Tacoma, tying the club mark for triples in a game with 2...he played 79 games at shortstop, 40 at 2nd base and 16 in centerfield...Tony led the PCL in sacrifice hits with 14...his contract was purchased by Pittsburgh on Sept. 4, and he made his first major league start in centerfield on Sept. 8 in Los Angeles...he was just 1-for-10 in first 8 games as a Pirate, then had 2 hits with 3 RBI on Sept. 15 at San Francisco in the 2nd game of a doubleheader...he made 3 starts in center and 2 at 2nd with the Pirates, while also playing rightfield on Sept. 27 at Chicago.

1995—Opened the year on the Calgary roster, but was optioned to Carolina (AA) on June 3...despite abbreviated season with Carolina, he led the club with 31 stolen bases...he stole home on August 7 at Port City...Tony homered on July 25 at Jacksonville, his first pro homer since May 24, 1993.

1994—Began the year with Buffalo (AAA)...he swiped 3 bases on April 17, the first Bison to steal 3 in a game since John Cangelosi on Sept. 4, 1990...he duplicated the 3-theft feat on May 2 at Louisville...he was recalled by the Pirates on May 31, appearing in 2 games for the Bucs, going 1-for-6...was optioned back to Buffalo on June 8...he had 3 RBI on July 7 vs. New Orleans, his only multi-RBI game of the year...was recalled again on July 20, going 3-for-6 in 3 games for the Pirates...included was a 2-hit game on July 21 at Houston...he was optioned once again on August 2, finishing the year with Buffalo...he led the club and ranked 2nd in the American Association in stolen bases with 41...set a Buffalo franchise record for most at bats in a year without a home run (421), breaking Felix Fermin's mark in 1988 (352 at bats)...led the Bisons with 30 infield hits, including 14 bunt singles...he also led the league in sacrifice hits with 12.

1993—Split the year between Salem (A) and Carolina, combining the 2 stops for a .301 mark with 41 RBI and 49 stolen bases in 132 games...was 2-for-19 in first 5 games with Carolina, then hit .320 (73-for-228) over his final 55 games with the Mudcats...his contract was purchased by the Bucs on Sept. 8 and he debuted 2 nights later as a pinch runner vs. Colorado...Tony made 5 starts at short for the Pirates and collected his first major league hit on Sept. 21 off the Mets' Dave Telgheder...picked up his first 2 major league stolen bases on Sept. 29 vs. Philly.

1992—Spent the entire year with Augusta (A), swiping 50 bases in 75 tries, ranking 4th in the league in thefts.

1991—His first professional season, Tony signed as a 7th round pick by the Pirates and spent the year with Welland (Rookie)...he tied for 4th in the league with 26 stolen bases (32 attempts).

PERSONAL

Anthony Darrell (Tony) Womack...he and his wife, Janet, have a daughter, Jessica (9/12/95) and were expecting a 2nd child in mid-March...Tony graduated from Gretna (VA) High School, lettering in baseball and basketball...his high school #7 was retired, the first Gretna athlete to have a jersey retired...he earned a bachelors degree in sports management from Guilford (NC) College, then received a master's in sports management from UNC Greensboro...Tony was the co-recipient with Kevin Young as the 1997 Clement Award honoree, an award given annually since 1973 by the Pittsburgh chapter of the BBWAA.

HOW OBTAINED: Signed as a minor league free agent on January 12, 1999.

1998 HIGHLIGHTS

Frank signed as a free agent with Detroit after spending all or part of 8 major league seasons in the National League...a starter in 175 of his first 180 big league appearances, he worked in relief 8 times for the Tigers, and was most impressive, allowing 3 earned runs over 24.0 innings for a 1.13 ERA...the ERA was best among all major league hurlers who worked a minimum of 24.0 innings out of the pen...Frank notched first professional save on Sept. 22 at Kansas City, pitching 4.0 perfect innings and striking out five of the 12 batters he faced...pitched 4.0 or more innings of relief on 3 occasions, including a 5.2-inning stint on June 19 vs. Kansas City, which was Detroit's longest bullpen appearance of the year...the move to the pen was a product of his trouble as a starter, going just 3-9 with an 8.32 ERA in 19 tries...his best work in that role was at Anaheim on May 9, going 8.0 innings with no walks and 9 K's in a 7-3 win that broke Chuck Finley's 14-game winning streak.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1997—Was acquired by Colorado on July 15 for Matt Pool and finished strong, winning 6 of 9 decisions for Rockies (14 starts)...he totaled 12 wins, a professional high...enjoyed a perfect July, going 2-0 for the Cubs before the trade and 2-0 for Rockies afterward...first Colorado victory was a July 25 decision over his old mates. 1996—After a 2-11 record at the All-Star break, he turned his season around by winning 5 of 8 decisions with a 2.73 ERA in his first 10 starts after the break...issued 2 or fewer walks in all but 5 of his 33 starts...walked only 24 in his last 103.2 innings pitched (2.08 per 9 innings). 1995—Ranked 8th in National League with career-best 3.21 ERA...he flirted with perfection on June 15 vs. the Giants, retiring the first 19 men in order before Mike Benjamin spoiled the bid with a 7th inning single...he tossed the first shutout of his career on Sept. 4 vs. the Rockies, allowing 5 hits with no walks in a 2-0 win...Frank had a no-hitter for 8.2 innings on Sept. 25 vs. St. Louis, before giving up an opposite-field triple to new D'Backs teammate Bernard Gilkey...wound up with a 1-hitter in a 7-0 victory, fanning a career-high 13 men, the most K's by a Cub hurler in 11 seasons. 1994—He was limited to just 4 major league starts, as his year did not start until May 12, missing the first 6 weeks after straining a finger on his pitching hand in spring training...he made a pair of starts for Iowa, then was optioned there and did not work in Chicago until late July...went 2-0 in 2 starts for the remainder of the season. 1993—Struggled on the hill, going 5-8 in 29 games (25 starts) for the Cubs...offensively, he enjoyed his first career multi-hit game on June 15 vs. Florida, going 2-for-3. 1992—First full year as a Cubs starter, he worked a career high 205.1 innings...ranked 9th in National League in opponents' batting average (.232), but suffered from lack of support as Chicago gave him 2 or fewer runs in 13 of his 33 starts. 1991—Was a solid finisher after being promoted to majors on June 27, hurling 4 complete games and working into the 9th inning on 3 other occasions...made big league debut as starter vs. Pittsburgh (left in 9th inning with no decision) on June 27...earned first victory on July 5 with complete game at St. Louis...just before his callup, he was named American Association Pitcher-of-the-Week for July 16-22. 1990—Missed the first half of the season with a fracture in his back before reporting to Charlotte (AA)...tossed 7-inning no-hitter on July 13 at Huntsville, striking out 10. 1989—Combined year for a 12-10 and 2.96 ERA between Winston-Salem (A) and Charlotte...named to mid-season Carolina League All-Star team...finished 3rd in Carolina League in ERA (2.51) and 2nd in complete games (8) despite being promoted to Charlotte on July 15. 1988—Missed 4 months of season while recovering from a stress fracture in his right shin suffered in spring training...named Midwest League Pitcher-of-the-Week after tossing a 1-hit shutout vs. Burlington (August 23) and a 3-hit shutout vs. Madison (August 27). 1987—Named Appalachian League Player-of-the-Year going 10-1 with 2.29 ERA...led league in winning pct. (.909) and wins, while tying for lead in complete games (5).

PERSONAL

Frank Anthony Castillo...he and his wife, Tracy, make their home in Cave Creek, AZ... Frank is a native of El Paso, TX, and graduated from Eastwood High School in 1987...he was prep teammate of pitcher Butch Henry...now that he's back in the National League, Frankie can try to record that elusive first extra-base hit...he's collected 36 singles in 327 career at bats.

Penny & Patterson Impressive in Cal League

Youth was served from the Diamondback organization in 1998 in the California League, as Brad Penny and John Patterson were tabbed the top 2 prospects in the league as members of the High Desert Mavericks.

The 20-year old Penny, the 5th pick of the D'Backs in the '96 June draft, pulled down all of the league's individual honors, earning Pitcher-of-the-Year and the Most Valuable Player Awards. The Oklahoma native was also named the righthanded pitcher on the Topps/NAPBL Class A All-Star team and was tabbed the Topps/NAPBL Trautman Player-of-the-Year.

Patterson, who finished with the league's top ERA (2.83), was named the #2 prospect in the Cal League.

Everybody into the Pool!!!

The Sun Pool Party Pavilion was a popular target during the inaugural season at Bank One Ballpark. A total of 10 home runs actually made a splash in the pool, while several others rattled around among the party goers. The Sun Pool Party Pavilion is available for rental on a daily basis and sits just beyond the right-centerfield fence.

A Grand Inning

The Diamondbacks were part of major league history on June 9 in Bank One Ballpark, as Yamil Benitez cracked the first grand slam of his career. Yamil cleared the bases with a 3rd inning shot off of Anaheim southpaw Chuck Finley. The grand slam was the 2nd of that frame, as Angel slugger, Cecil Fielder, hit a salami into the left field bleachers off of Willie Blair in the top of the inning.

The same frame slams marked the 6th time in major league history that a pair of bases loaded homers had been hit by opposing clubs in the same inning. The last time prior to June 9 was September 9, 1992, when Chicago's Ryne Sandberg and Pittsburgh's Jeff King each accomplished the feat in the 6th inning of their contest.

Congratulations to our "Fame"ous Friends

Robin Yount
Milwaukee Brewers

George Brett
Kansas City Royals

While last year was the first major league season for the Diamondbacks, the winter brought the joy of knowing some friends of the franchise were given their due in Cooperstown, NY. A pair of "lifers" with their respective franchises, Robin Yount and George Brett join Nolan Ryan this summer as first ballot inductees into the National Baseball Hall of Fame.

Yount, a Valley resident, played for 20 seasons with the Milwaukee Brewers, hitting .285 with 251 home runs and 1,406 RBI. A starting shortstop for the first 11 years of his career, Robin's big league career began as a 19-year old in 1974. After winning an American League Most Valuable Player award in 1982, he later made the switch to centerfield, and continued his outstanding career, earning another MVP honor in 1989. His career ended with 3,142 hits.

Brett, whose family owns the Diamondbacks' Class A club in High Desert, spent his entire career in Kansas City, winning the Most Valuable Player Award in 1980, the first of two trips to the World Series for his Royals, culminating with a World Championship in 1985. Brett won batting titles in three decades, finished with 3,154 hits and also made the substance pine tar famous with a home run he hit off the Yankees over the course of a 21-year big league career.

The Diamondbacks would like to congratulate each of these gentlemen as they take their rightful place in baseball history.

Expansion History & Diamondback Records

Opening night starter
Andy Benes tied a major league expansion record with 14 victories.

GUESS WHO'S A PROUD SPONSOR OF THE ARIZONA DIAMONDBACKSTM?

What a team! McDonald's[®] and the Arizona Diamondbacks.TM And now you can step up to the plate at any one of three great McDonald's[®] in the new Bank One Ballpark and score a great meal. So come on out and root for Arizona's first Major League baseball team. And remember when you get hungry, McDonald's[®] has all the bases covered.

DRAFT DAY DEALINGS

One of the few advantages for expansion clubs on draft day is the opportunity to draft a player that an existing club is interested in, then make a deal that will hopefully strengthen the new franchise. Such was the case for both Arizona and Tampa Bay, who each consummated deals following the draft proceedings.

The Diamondbacks acquired 3rd baseman Travis Fryman from the Detroit Tigers in exchange for Gabe Alvarez, Joe Randa and Matt Drews. Fryman was subsequently dealt to Cleveland on December 1 for 3rd baseman Matt Williams. Arizona also shipped Jesus Martinez to the Marlins for Devon White, and Scott Winchester to the Reds as the player-to-be-named in the Felix Rodriguez deal. The D-Backs also acquired Harvey Pulliam from Colorado for Chuck McElroy, but eventually released Pulliam so he could sign a contract in Japan.

Items of Interest

BATTING CHAMPIONSHIP QUALIFICATIONS: To win a batting title a player must have 502 or more actual plate appearances, the equivalent of 3.1 appearances for each of the 162 scheduled games.

EARNED RUN AVERAGE CHAMPIONSHIP QUALIFICATIONS: To win the ERA title a pitcher must have at least as many innings pitched as the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season and have the lowest ERA.

FIELDING CHAMPIONSHIP QUALIFICATIONS: The individual field champions shall be the fielders with the highest fielding average at each position, provided:

- (1) A catcher must have participated as a catcher in at least one-half the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season.
- (2) An infielder or outfielder must have participated at his position in at least two-thirds of the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season.
- (3) A pitcher must have pitched at least as many innings as the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season. EXCEPTION—If another pitcher has a fielding average as high or higher, and has handled more total chances in a lesser number of innings, he shall be the fielding champion.

(NOTE—These figures DO NOT determine the Gold Glove winners at the end of the season. Those are selected by a vote of managers and coaches.)

PINCH HITTING: A player shall be considered a pinch-hitter only if he enters the game as a substitute batter and then only on his first time at bat, which must be before he becomes a fielder. If the team bats around in the inning and a pinch hitter comes up a second time, he will not be considered a pinch hitter the second time.

ROOKIE QUALIFICATIONS: A player shall be considered a rookie unless, during a previous season or seasons, he has:

- (1) Exceeded 130 at bats or 50 innings pitched in the major leagues, or
- (2) Accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a major league club or clubs during the period of the 25-man roster (excluding time in military service).

SAVE RULE: A pitcher shall be credited with a save when he meets all three of the following conditions:

- (1) He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club, and
- (2) He is not the winning pitcher, and
- (3) He qualifies under one of the following conditions:
 - (a) He enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches at least one inning, or
 - (b) He enters the game regardless of the count, with the potential tying run either on base, at bat, or on deck (that is, the potential tying run is either already on base or is one of the first two batsmen he faces), or
 - (c) He pitches effectively for at least three innings.

SUSPENDED GAMES: For the purpose of this rule, all performances in the completion of a suspended game shall be considered as occurring on original date of this game.

How to Figure

BATTING AVERAGE: Divide the number of at bats into the number of hits.

EARNED RUN AVERAGE: Multiply the number of earned runs by nine, take that number and divide it by the total innings pitched.

FIELDING PERCENTAGE: Divide the total number of putouts and assists by total chances (putouts, assists and errors).

MAGIC NUMBERS: Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings from the closest opponent.

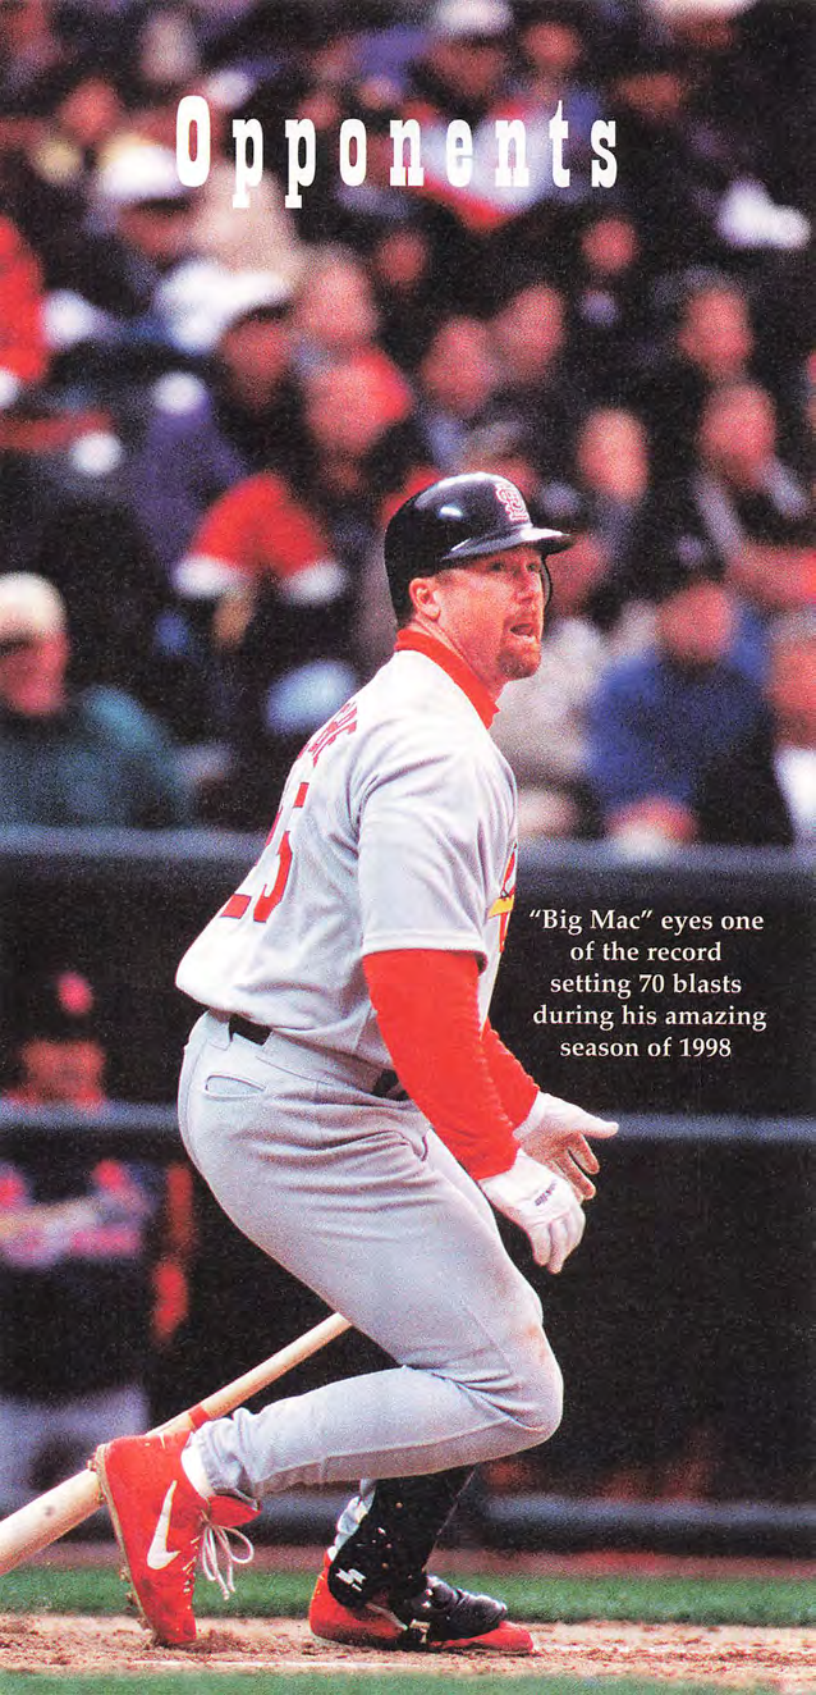

ON-BASE PERCENTAGE: Add the total of hits, walks and hit by pitches and divide by the total of at bats, walks, hit by pitches and sacrifice flies.

SLUGGING PERCENTAGE: Divide total bases by the total times at bat. (At bats do not include walks, sacrifices, hit by pitcher, or times awarded first base by interference or obstruction).

WINNING PERCENTAGE: Divide the number of games won by the total games won and lost.

Scouting Coordinators

Kendall Carter

National Coordinator

Kendall Carter was promoted to National Coordinator before the 1997 season after serving as the Diamondbacks' National Supervisor for the Western Region in 1996. He joined the Diamondbacks for the 1996 season from the Seattle Mariners, where he was area supervisor for Arizona, New Mexico, Colorado and Utah. Carter, a hometown product from Scottsdale, played for Arizona State from 1981-84. He holds ASU records for wins in a career (47) and single season (19). He compiled a 19-1 record and earned All-America honors for ASU's national title team in 1981.

Carter was an assistant coach at ASU from 1986-90. The Sun Devils advanced to the College World Series in 1987 and 1988, finishing second nationally in 1988 after losing the championship game to Stanford.

Clay Daniel

International Coordinator

Clay Daniel became the Diamondbacks' first full-time International Coordinator this season, after taking on those duties last year in addition to his job as National Supervisor for the Central area.

A resident of Jacksonville, Fla., Daniel joined the Diamondbacks in 1995 from the Cincinnati Reds, for whom he had been an East Coast supervisor and Latin-American supervisor since 1993.

From 1990-93 he was area supervisor in Florida for the Reds. He pitched professionally for six seasons after a University of Florida career that included selection to the 1984 all-SEC Tournament team.

Howard McCullough

Eastern Supervisor

Howard McCullough was promoted to National Supervisor for the East region in 1998 after serving the Diamondbacks for two years as area supervisor for North Carolina, South Carolina and Virginia. The Greenville, N.C., resident joined Arizona in 1995 after 10 years as a scout in the Boston organization, the last three as East Coast supervisor. Prior to that, he was an area scout, working North Carolina, South Carolina, Virginia, West Virginia and Tennessee for the Red Sox.

Mike Rizzo

Central Supervisor

Mike Rizzo is the newest addition to the Diamondbacks' lineup of National Supervisors. He comes to the organization from the Boston Red Sox, where he had been an area supervisor since 1992 along with duties as an international scout and advance playoff scout.

He scouted for the Chicago White Sox from 1987 through 1992, signing Frank Thomas, who became American League MVP in 1993 and 1994. Rizzo received the Chicago Pitch and Hit Club's Scouting Excellence Award in 1993. He played professionally in the California Angels organization from 1982-1985.

Steve Springer

Western Supervisor

Steve Springer, who began his scouting career with Arizona in 1995 as area supervisor for Southern California, took on new responsibilities after the 1997 season when he was promoted to National Supervisor for the West region.

He played professionally for 14 years, and reached the major leagues with the Cleveland Indians in 1990 and the New York Mets in 1992. He was a member of four minor-league championship teams. Springer resides in Huntington Beach, Calif.

Jim Marshall

Director of Pacific Rim Operations

A baseball expert on both sides of the Pacific Ocean, Jim joined the franchise in 1996 as the Director of Pacific Rim Operations. The Scottsdale resident is in charge of maintaining relations with baseball organizations in Japan, Korea, Taiwan and Australia. He has also been spotted donning the uniform on occasion in spring training and the regular season to impart his baseball wisdom.

Marshall played for 5 seasons in the majors, including a stint with the original '62 New York Mets. He also managed the Cubs from 1974-76 and the Oakland A's in '79.

He first visited Japan in 1960 on a goodwill tour as a player with San Francisco, then 3 years later was the first American player to leave the states and sign with a Japanese team (Chunichi). He averaged 30 homers and 100 RBI in his 2 seasons there.

International Scouting

Junior Noboa Coordinator - Latin-American

From their inception, the Arizona Diamondbacks have placed a high priority on searching for baseball talent wherever it might be found. The organization has scouted and signed players from nine foreign countries (Australia, Canada, Colombia, Cuba, Dominican Republic, Mexico, Netherlands Antilles, Nicaragua, Venezuela) and Puerto Rico as well as the continental U.S.

Junior Noboa, director of the Diamondbacks' baseball academy in the Dominican Republic, serves as Latin-American Coordinator. He was the Diamondbacks' first international hire, joining the team in August, 1995.

In Mexico, the Diamondbacks have a working agreement with the Monterrey Sultans of the Mexican League along with a strong scouting team, including Ossie Alvarez, who has been involved with the game in Mexico since 1952.

Minor League Coordinators

Bobby Dickerson

Field Coordinator

Born: September 4, 1965 in Laurel, MS

Ht: 6-0

Wt.: 182

Residence: Laurel, MS

Bobby moves up to field coordinator this year after a season as the minor-league infield coordinator. He came to Arizona in 1998 from the Baltimore organization, where he was both manager of the Orioles' Bluefield franchise in the Appalachian League and minor-league infield instructor last year. In two years at Bluefield, Dickerson's team won two championships and posted a combined 82-55 record. Dickerson played professionally for seven minor-league seasons, primarily as a shortstop, reaching the AAA level. He was originally drafted by the New York Yankees in 1987. As a collegian, he set Nicholls State records for home runs (28) and doubles (58).

Bob Mariano

Hitting Coordinator

Born: June 5, 1957 in Sewickley, PA

Ht: 6-0

Wt.: 195

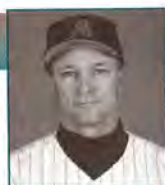

Residence: Phoenix, AZ

Mariano begins his second year as the Diamondbacks' minor-league hitting coordinator after coming from the Milwaukee Brewers organization. He began the 1997 season on the coaching staff of the Class AAA Tucson Toros and was named manager in a mid-season change.

He is an 18-year veteran of minor-league baseball and won a Silver Glove Award at third base for Fort Lauderdale in 1982. Mariano began splitting time between playing and coaching in 1985 with Class AA Charlotte. The next season, he began a three-year odyssey as a player-manager in the Italian Baseball Federation and Australian Baseball Federation. He was hitting instructor for the 1994 El Paso Diablos when the Texas League team posted the second-best record in the minor leagues.

He was All-Southeastern Conference as Louisiana State's third baseman in 1979, when he was also elected to the USA team that won the Intercontinental Cup in Havana, Cuba.

Gil Patterson

Pitching Coordinator

Patterson begins his third year as a roving minor league pitching instructor after coming to the organization from the Oakland Athletics. As a player, he reached the major leagues with the New York Yankees in 1977 and earned a World Series ring as a rookie. Injuries, however, cut short a promising career, and Patterson retired as a player after the 1983 season.

His coaching career began in 1984 in the Yankees' farm system, where he remained as a pitching coach until joining the Oakland organization in 1991.

Don Wakamatsu

Manager

Born: February 22, 1963 in Hood River, OR

Ht: 6-2

Wt: 200

Residence: Phoenix, AZ

PLAYING CAREER: After an All-America career as a catcher for Arizona State University, his professional playing career took him through the farm systems of seven organizations (Reds, White Sox, Dodgers, Rangers, Mariners, Indians, Brewers). He reached the major leagues briefly in 1991 with Chicago.

COACHING CAREER: Served as a playing coach at the Class AA level for both the Cleveland Indians and Seattle Mariners before joining the Diamondbacks for the 1997 season.

MANAGING CAREER: In his first full year as a manager, Don was named the California League Manager-of-the-Year as his High Desert Mavericks won the 2nd half championship in the Valley Division and advanced to the Division Championship series. He made his minor league managing debut in 1997, taking over the Peoria club in the early part of the campaign and keeping it in the race until the final week.

Year	Team	League	W	L	Pct.	Finish
1997	Peoria	Arizona	22	20	.524	4th
1998	High Desert	California	82	58	.586	3rd/1st

1998 Playoffs—Defeated Lancaster in best of 3 series, 2-0. Lost to San Jose in best of 5 Valley Division championship series, 3-2.

Dennis Lewallyn

Mark Davis

Pitching Coach

Born: October 19, 1960 in Livermore, CA
Ht: 6-4 Wt: 215 Residence: Scottsdale, AZ

PLAYING CAREER: Pitched professionally for 18 seasons until his retirement in March, 1998. Won the National League Cy Young Award in 1989, when compiled a league-leading 44 saves and a 1.85 ERA for the San Diego Padres. Broke into the major leagues with Philadelphia in 1980. After sitting out the 1996 season because of shoulder surgery, he signed with the Diamondbacks for 1997 and made a remarkable return to the major leagues, pitching at High Desert and Tucson before receiving a call from the Milwaukee Brewers.

COACHING CAREER: Beginning his first full season in full-time player development.

Louie Medina

Coach

Born: March 26, 1963 in Santa Monica, CA
Ht: 6-4 Wt: 200 Residence: Phoenix, AZ

PLAYING CAREER: After two stellar years at Arizona State, he played professionally for 11 seasons, reaching the majors with Cleveland in 1988, 1989 and 1991. He was the Midwest League MVP in 1986 and led the league in homers three times. In 1992, his uniform number was retired by Class AAA Colorado Springs.

PLAYER DEVELOPMENT: Louie remains a full-time scout with the organization, serving dual roles this year by assisting as a coach.

1998 Organizational Awards

Jason Conti
Player of the Year

Brad Penny
Pitcher of the Year

In his third season of professional baseball, 23-year-old Jason Conti led all minor-league players in runs scored with 125 as he helped the Tulsa Drillers win the Texas League championship. Conti was one of several players loaned by the Diamondbacks to the Drillers, the Class AA affiliate of the Texas Rangers.

He played in the mid-season Texas League All-Star Game and was the only member of the Tulsa roster selected to the Texas League's post-season All-Star Team. His dozen triples led the Texas League.

A product of the University of Pittsburgh, Conti was the Diamondbacks' 32nd round pick in the June, 1996, draft. He was signed by scout Greg Lonigro.

Brad Penny, playing his third season of pro baseball, earned both Most Valuable Player and Pitcher of the Year honors in the California League (Class A Advanced), posting a 14-5 record and 2.96 earned-run average, second in the league.

He led the league in wins and also in strikeouts, with 207 in just 164.0 innings pitched. The 20-year-old prospect held opposing batters to a cumulative .225 average and averaged 11.36 strikeouts, 1.92 walks and 7.57 hits per nine innings pitched.

Penny was the franchise's 5th round selection in the June, 1996, draft after a stellar season for Broken Arrow, Okla., H.S. He was signed by scout Chris Knabenshue.

Medical Glossary

The following glossary provides definitions of terms that are used during the course of the season by medical staff members of the baseball organizations. This glossary is provided by the Professional Baseball Athletic Trainers Society. (The numbers 1-21 correspond with the charts on pages 277 and 278 representing common baseball injuries.)

A.T.C.—Athletic Trainer Certified: athletic trainers with this designation have passed the certification exam administered by the National Athletic Trainers' Association (N.A.T.A.).

1 AC Joint—Acromioclavicular joint; joint of the shoulder where acromion process of the scapula and the distal end of the clavicle meet; most shoulder separations occur at this point.

Abrasion—Any injury which rubs off the surface of the skin.

Abscess—An infection which produces pus; can be the result of a blister, callus, penetrating wound or laceration.

Adhesion—Abnormal adherence of collagen fibers to surrounding structures during immobilization following trauma or as a complication of surgery which restricts normal elasticity of the structures involved.

Aerobic—Exercise in which energy needed is supplied by oxygen inspired and is required for sustained periods of vigorous exercise with a continually high pulse rate.

Anabolic Steroids—Steroids that promote tissue growth by creating protein in an attempt to enhance muscle growth. The main anabolic steroid is testosterone (male sex hormone).

Anaerobic—Exercise without the use of oxygen as an energy source; short bursts of vigorous exercise.

Anterior Compartment Syndrome—Condition in which swelling within the anterior compartment of the lower leg jeopardizes the viability of muscles, nerves and arteries that serve the foot. In severe cases, emergency surgery is necessary to relieve the swelling and pressure.

2 Anterior Cruciate Ligament (ACL)—A primary stabilizing ligament within the center of the knee joint that prevents hyperextension and excessive rotation of the joint. A complete tear of the ACL necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 month of rehabilitation.

3 Anterior Talofibular Ligament—A ligament of the ankle that connects the fibula (later ankle bone) to the talus. This ligament is oft times subject to sprain.

Anti-Inflammatory—Any agent which prevents inflammation, such as aspirin or ibuprofen.

Arteriogram—A film demonstrating arteries after injection of a dye.

Arthrogram—X-ray technique for joints using air and/or dye injected into the affected area; useful in diagnosing meniscus tears of the knee and rotator cuff tears of the shoulder.

Arthroscope—An instrument used to visualize the interior of a joint cavity.

Arthroscopy—A surgical examination of the internal structures of a joint by means of viewing through an arthroscope. An arthroscopic procedure can be used to remove or repair damaged tissue or as a diagnostic procedure in order to inspect the extent of any damage or confirm a diagnosis.

Aspiration—The withdrawal of fluid from a body cavity by means of a suction or siphonage apparatus, such as a syringe.

Atrophy—To shrivel or shrink from disuse, as in muscular atrophy.

Avascular Necrosis—Death of a part due to lack of circulation.

Avulsion—The tearing away, forcibly, of a part or structure.

4 Baker's Cyst—Localized swelling of a bursa sac in the posterior knee as a result of fluid that has escaped from the knee capsule. A Baker's cyst indicates that there is a trauma inside the knee joint that leads to excessive fluid production.

5 Bennett's Fracture—A fracture and dislocation of the base of the first metacarpal, the thumb.

Bone Scan—An imaging procedure in which a radioactive-labelled substance is injected into the body to determine the status of a bony injury. If the radioactive substance is taken up by the bone at the injury site, the injury will show as a "hot spot" on the scan image. The bone scan is particularly useful in the diagnosis of stress fractures.

Bruise—The discoloration of the skin due to an extravasation of blood into the underlying tissues.

Bursa—A fluid-filled sac that is located in areas where friction is likely to occur, then minimizes the friction; for example between a tendon and bone.

Calf—Large muscle located at the back of the shin that includes the gastrocnemius and the soleus muscles and is connected to the heel by the Achilles tendon. This is responsible for foot plantar-flexion and is instrumental in jumping.

Capsule—An enclosing structure which surrounds the joint and contains ligaments which stabilize that joint.

Cartilage—Smooth, slippery substance preventing two ends of bones from rubbing together and grating.

CAT Scan—Use of a computer to produce a cross sectional view of the anatomical part being investigated from x-ray data.

Cervical Vertebrae—Group of seven vertebrae located in the neck

Charley Horse—A contusion or bruise to any muscle resulting in intramuscular bleeding. No other injury should be called a charley horse.

Chondral Fracture—Fracture to the chondral (cartilaginous) surfaces of bone.

Chondromalacia—Roughening of the articular cartilage. Best known for the roughening of the underside of the patella, which can occur in any patellofemoral injury.

Clavicle—The collar bone.

Coccyx—The “tail bone”; a group of four vertebrae that are fused together, located at the terminal end of the spine.

Colles' Fracture—A fracture of the distal end of the radius with the lower end being displaced backward.

Computed Tomography (CT)—Method of visualizing the body's soft tissues. Using x-rays with the beam passing repeatedly through the body part, the CT scans while a computer calculates tissue absorption at each point scanned.

Concentric Muscle Contraction—A shortening of the muscle as it develops tension and contracts to move a resistance.

Concussion—Jarring injury of the brain resulting in dysfunction. It can be graded as mild, moderate or severe depending on loss of consciousness, amnesia and loss of equilibrium.

Congenital—Existing before birth; to be born with.

Conjunctivitis—Inflammation of the membrane lining the eyelids and covering the eyeball.

Contractures—Abnormal, usually permanent contraction of a muscle due to atrophy of muscle fibers, extensive scar tissue over a joint, or other factors.

Contusion—an injury to a muscle and tissues caused by a blow from a blunt object.

Costochondral—Cartilage that separates the bones within the rib cage.

Cryotherapy—A treatment with use of cold.

Cyst—Abnormal sac containing liquid or semi-solid matter.

Debridement—Removal of non-healthy tissues and foreign material from a wound or burn to prevent infection and permit healing.

Degenerative Joint Disease—Changes in the joint surfaces as a result of repetitive trauma.

Deltoid Ligament—Ligament that connects the tibia to bones of the medial aspect of the foot and is primarily responsible for stability of the ankle on the medial side. Is sprained less frequently than other ankle ligaments.

6 Deltoid Muscle—Muscles at the top of the arm, just below the shoulder, responsible for shoulder motions to the front, side and back.

Disc, Intervertebral—A flat, rounded plate between each vertebrae of the spine. The disc consists of a thick fiber ring which surrounds a soft gel-like interior. It functions as a cushion and shock absorber for the spinal column.

Dislocation—Complete displacement of joint surfaces.

Eccentric Muscle Contraction—An overall lengthening of the muscle as it develops tension and contracts to control motion performed by an outside force; of times referred to a “negative” contraction in weight training.

Ecymosis—Bleeding into the surface tissue below the skin, resulting in a “black and blue” effect.

Edema—Accumulation of fluid in organs and tissues of the body; swelling.

Effusion—Accumulation of fluid, or the fluid itself, in various spaces in the body. Commonly, the knee has an effusion after an injury.

Electrical Galvanic Stimulation (EGS)—An electrical therapeutic modality that sends a current to the body at select voltages and frequencies in order to stimulate pain receptors, disperse edema, or neutralize muscle spasms among other functional applications.

Electrolyte Drink—Fluid for replacing electrolytes.

Electromyogram (EMG)—Test to determine nerve function.

7 Epicondylitis—Inflammation in the elbow due to overuse.

Ethyl Chloride—“Cold spray” or “freeze”, a chemical coolant sprayed onto an injury site to produce a local, mild anesthesia.

External Rotation—Lateral movement of a joint or extremity to the outside.

Fascia—A connective tissue sheath consisting of fibrous tissue and fat which unites the skin to the underlying tissue.

Fat Percentage—The amount of body weight that is adipose, fat tissue. Fat percentages can be calculated by underwater weighing, measuring select skinfold thickness, or by analyzing electrical impedance.

Femur—Thigh bone; longest bone in the body.

Fibula—Smaller of the two bones in the lower leg; runs from knee to the ankle along the outside of the lower leg.

Flexibility—The ability of muscle to relax and yield to stretch forces.

Fracture—Breach in continuity of a bone. Types of fractures include simple, compound, comminuted, greenstick, incomplete, impacted, longitudinal, oblique, stress or transverse.

Gamekeeper's Thumb—Tear of the ulnar collateral ligament of the metacarpophalangeal joint of the thumb.

8 Glenohumeral—The shoulder girdle; consists of the glenoid capsule, head of the humerus and labrum. The type of joint that allows 360-degree motion, a “ball and socket” joint.

Glenoid—Cavity of the scapula into which the head of the humerus fits to form the shoulder girdle.

Grade One Injury—A mild injury in which ligament, tendon, or other musculoskeletal tissue may have been stretched or contused, but not torn or otherwise disrupted.

Grade Two Injury—A moderate injury when musculoskeletal tissue has been partially, but not totally torn which causes appreciable limitation in function of the injured tissue.

Grade Three Injury—A severe injury in which tissue has been significantly, and in some cases totally, torn or otherwise disrupted causing a virtual total loss of function.

Groin—Junction of the thigh and abdomen; location of muscles that rotate, flex and adduct the hip.

Hammer Toe—Condition when the first digit of a toe is at a different angle than the remaining digits of the same toe.

9 Hamstring—Category of muscle that runs from the buttocks to the knee along the back of the thigh. It functions to flex the knee, and is oft times injured as a result of improper conditioning or lack of muscle flexibility.

Heat Cramps—Painful muscle spasms of the arms or legs caused by excessive body heat and depletion of fluids and electrolytes.

Heat Exhaustion—Mild form of shock due to dehydration because of excessive sweating when exposed to heat and humidity.

Heat Stroke—Condition of rapidly rising internal body temperature that overwhelms the body's mechanisms for release of heat and could result in death if not cared for appropriately.

Hematoma—Tumor-like mass produced by an accumulation of coagulated blood in a cavity.

Hot Pack—Chemical pack that rests in water, approximately 160 degrees, and retains its heat for 15-20 minutes when placed in a towel for general therapeutic application.

10 Humerus—Bone of the upper arm that runs from the shoulder to the elbow.

Hyperextension—Extreme extension of a limb or body part.

Illiobtibial Band—A thick, wide fascial layer that runs from the iliac crest to the knee joint and is occasionally inflamed as a result of excessive running.

11 Impingement Syndrome—Pinching together of the supraspinatus muscle and other soft tissue in the shoulder. The most common (Throwing) arm injury, which represents many pathologies and generally involves supraspinatus overuse.

Inflammation—The body's natural response to injury in which the injury site might display various degrees of pain, swelling, heat, redness and/or loss of function.

Intermittent Compression Pump—Therapeutic modality that uses an air pump to send air into a sleeve worn over an injury, on an intermittent basis, in order to disperse edema and break up swelling at the injury.

Internal Rotation—Rotation of a joint or extremity medially, to the inside.

Interosseus Membrane—Uniting membrane between the tibia and fibula that forms a collagenous fibrous tissue. It has two functions: to serve as an origin for many of the muscles of the lower leg, and to transmit stress from the tibia to the fibula.

Isokinetic Exercise—Form of active resistive exercise in which the speed of limb movement is controlled by a pre-set limiting machine, such as Cybex or Biodex.

Isometric Contraction—Muscular contraction in which tension is developed but no mechanical work is done. There is no appreciable joint movement and the overall length of the muscle stays the same.

Isotonic Contraction—A concentric or eccentric muscular contraction that results in movement of a joint or body part, as in lifting a weight.

Labrum (Labrum Glenoidale)—The cartilage of the glenoid cavity in the shoulder. A lip-edge or lip-like structure.

Lateral Collateral Ligament (LCL)—Ligament of the knee along the lateral aspect that connects the femur to the fibula. It provides lateral stability to the joint.

Ligament—Band of fibrous tissue that connects bone to bone to bone to cartilage and supports and strengthens joints.

Lumbar Vertebrae—Five vertebrae of the lower back that articulate with the sacrum to form the lumbosacral joint.

Magnetic Resonance Imaging (MRI)—Imaging procedure in which a radio frequency pulse causes certain electrical elements of the injured tissue to react to this pulse and through this process a computer display and permanent film establish a visual image. MRI does not require radiation and is very useful in the diagnosis of soft tissue, disc and meniscus injuries.

12 Malleolus—Rounded projection on either side of the ankle joint; the lateral malleolus is the fibula and the medial malleolus is the tibia.

Mallet Finger—Injury of the finger tip in which the extension tendon is avulsed off the distal phalanx.

Maximal Aerobic Power (MAX VO 2)—The maximal volume of oxygen consumed per unit of time.

13 Medial Collateral Ligament (MCL)—Ligament of knee along the medial aspect that connects the femur to the joint.

Meniscectomy—An intra-articular surgical procedure of the knee by which all or part of the damaged meniscus is removed.

Meniscus—Crescent shaped cartilage, usually pertaining to the knee joint; also known as "cartilage." There are two menisci in the knee, medial and lateral. These work to absorb weight within the knee and provide stability.

14 Metacarpals—Five long bones of the hand, running from the wrist to the fingers.

15 Metatarsals—Five long bones of the foot, running from the ankle to the toes.

Morton's Neuroma—Involves the nerves and is usually the result of a trauma to the foot, causing inflammation and sharp pain, usually between the third and fourth toes.

Morton's Toe—A hereditary condition in which the second toe is longer than the first toe. This can cause mechanical imbalances which produce pain with weight bearing.

Myositis—Inflammation of the muscle.

Myositis Ossificans Traumatica—A benign ossification, usually following severe trauma to a large muscle mass.

N.A.T.A.—National Athletic Trainers' Association. The certifying and governing body of the athletic training profession.

Neuritis—Inflammation of a nerve.

16 Olecranon Process—Bony projection of the ulna at the tip of the elbow.

One Repetition Maximum—The maximum amount of weight that can be lifted by the player in a particular exercise at one time. This is used as a strength testing technique.

Orthotic—Any device applied to or around the body in the care of physical impairment or disability, commonly used to control foot mechanics.

Osteochondritis Dessicans—A piece of bone and/or cartilage loosened from its attachment after trauma and a cause of a lesion.

Paresthesia—Sensation of numbness or tingling, indicating nerve irritation.

Patella—The kneecap. The patella functions to protect the distal end of the femur as well as increase the mechanical advantage and force generating capacities of the quadriceps muscle group.

17 Patella Tendinitis—Inflammation of the patellar ligament; also known as "jumper's knee."

PBATS—Professional Baseball Athletic Trainers Society; the governing body of athletic trainers in professional baseball.

18 Peroneal Muscles—Group of muscles of the lateral lower leg that are responsible for evert- ing the ankle. Tendons of these three muscles are vital to the stability of the ankle and foot.

Phalanx—Any bone of the fingers or toes; plural in phalanges.

Phlebitis—Inflammation of a vein.

Phonophoresis—The technique of driving whole molecules of medication with ultrasound.

Plantar Fascia—The tight band of muscle beneath the arch of the foot.

Plantar Fasciitis—Inflammation of the plantar fascia; associated with overuse of acute foot injury.

Plantarflexion—Ankle motion such that the toes are pointed toward the ground.

Plica—Fold of the tissue in the joint capsule and common result of knee injury.

Pneumothorax—A collection of air or gas in the pleural space causing the lungs to collapse.

Posterior Cruciate Ligament (PCL)—A primary stabilizing ligament of the knee that provides significant stability and prevents displacement of the tibia backward within the knee joint. A complete tear of this ligament necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months of rehabilitation.

Progressive Resistance Exercise (PRE)—An approach to exercise whereby the load or resistance to the muscle is applied by some mechanical means and is quantitatively and progressively increased over time.

Proprioceptive Neuromuscular Facilitation (PNF)—An approach to therapeutic exercise based on the principles of functional human anatomy and neurophysiology.

19 Quadracep Muscles "Quads"—A group of four muscles on the front thigh that run from the hip and form a common tendon at the patella; they are responsible for knee extension.

Radiography—Taking of x-rays.

Radium—Forearm bone on the thumb side.

Referred Pain—Pain felt in an undamaged area of body away from the actual injury.

Rotator Cuff—Comprised of four muscles in the shoulder area that can be irritated by overuse. The muscles are the supraspinatus (most commonly injured), infraspinatus, teres minor and subscapularis.

20 Rotator Cuff Impingement Syndrome—A microtrauma or overuse injury caused by stress. The four stages are: 1) tendinitis with temporary thickening of the bursa and rotator cuff, 2) fiber dissociation in the tendon with a permanent thickening of the bursa and scar formation, 3) A partial rotator cuff tear of less than 1 cm, and 4) a complete tear of 1 cm or more.

SC Joint—Sternoclavicular joint; articulation of the collarbone with the sternum.

Sacroiliac—Junction of the sacrum with the hip bone.

Sacrum—Group of five fused vertebrae located just below the lumbar vertebrae of the low back.

Scapula—Shoulder blade.

Sciatica—Irritation of the sciatic nerve resulting in pain or tingling running down the inside of the leg.

Sciatic Nerve—Major nerve that carries impulses for muscular action and sensations between the low back and thigh and lower leg; it is the longest nerve in the body.

Shin Splint—A catch-all syndrome describing pain in the shin that is not a fracture or tumor and cannot be defined otherwise.

Soft Corn—A corn, softened by moisture, that is found beneath the toes rather than on the upper surface of the toe.

Spleen—Large, solid organ responsible for the normal production and destruction of blood cells.

Spondylitis—Inflammation of one or more vertebrae.

Spondylolisthesis—Forward displacement of one vertebrae over another below it due to a developmental defect in the vertebrae.

Spondylosis—Abnormal vertebral fixation or immobility.

Sprain—Injury resulting from the stretch or twist of the joint and causes various degrees of stretch or tear of a ligament or other soft tissue at the joint.

Sternum—The breast bone.

Strain—Injury resulting from a pull or torsion to the muscle or tendon that causes various degrees of stretch or tear to the muscle or tendon tissue.

Stress Fracture—A hair-line type of break in a bone caused by overuse.

Stress X-Ray—A continual x-ray taken when a portion of the body is stressed to its maximum in order to determine joint stability. This is a test utilized in some ankle injuries.

Stretching—Any therapeutic maneuver designed to elongate shortened soft tissue structures and thereby increase flexibility.

Subluxation—Partial dislocation of a joint. The term usually implies that the joint can return to its normal position without formal reduction.

Synovial Fluid—Lubricating fluid for joints and tendons, produced in synovium, or the inner lining of a joint.

Synovitis—Inflammation of the synovial lining of a joint.

Talus—The ankle bone that articulates with the tibia and fibula to form the ankle joint.

Target Heart Rate—A pre-determined pulse to be obtained during exercise when circulation in working at full efficient capacities.

Tarsals—Group of six bones of the foot consisting of the calcaneus, talus, cuboid and three cuneiform bones.

Tendinitis—Inflammation of the tendon and/or tendon sheath, caused by chronic overuse or sudden injury.

Tendon—Tissue that connects muscle to bone.

Tennis Elbow—General term for lateral elbow pain.

Tenosynovitis—Swelling of a tendon sheath caused by calcium deposits, repeated strain, or trauma.

Thoracic—Group of twelve vertebrae located in the thorax and articulates with the twelve ribs.

Thoracic Outlet Compression Syndrome—A neuro-vascular disorder of the upper extremity common in throwing.

Tibia—Larger of the two bones of the lower leg and is the weight-bearing bone of the shin.

Tomograph—A special type of x-ray apparatus that demonstrates an organ or tissue at a particular depth.

Trachea—The windpipe.

Transcutaneous Electrical Nerve Stimulator (TENS)—An electrical modality that sends a mild current through pads at the injury site which stimulates the brain to release the natural analgesic, endorphin.

Transverse Process—Small lateral projection off the right and left side of each vertebrae that functions as an attachment site for muscles and ligaments of the spine.

Trapezius—Flat, triangular muscle covering the posterior surface of the neck and shoulder.

21 Triceps—Muscle of the back of the upper arm, primarily responsible for extending the elbow.

Ulna—Forearm bone that runs from the tip of the elbow to the little finger side of the wrist.

Ulnar Nerve—Nerve in the elbow commonly irritated from excessive throwing.

Ultrasound—An electrical modality that transmits a sound wave through an applicator into the skin to the soft tissue in order to heat the local area for relaxing the injured tissue and/or disperse edema.

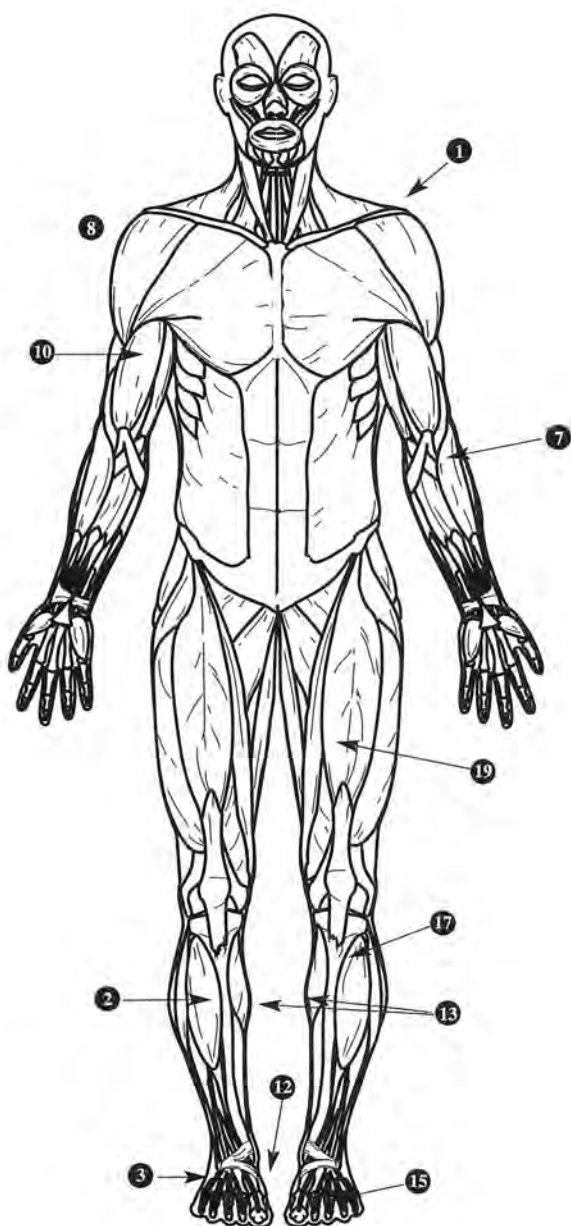

Whirlpool—Water bath in which the water is propelled by air to produce a massaging therapeutic action.

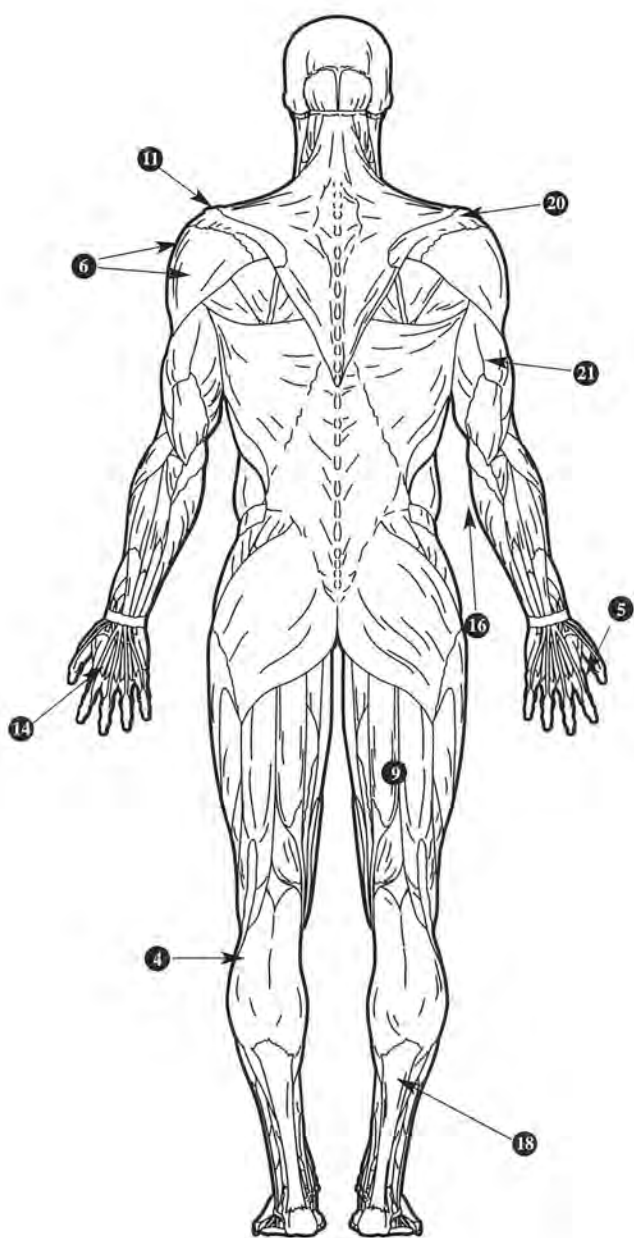

"Wind Knocked Out"—Syndrome describing a contraction of the abdominal nerve trunk, the solar plexus, as a result of an abdominal contusion.

Wrist—The junction between the two forearm bones (radius and ulna) and the eight wrist bones (trapezium, trapezoid, capitate, hamate, pisiform, triquetrum, lunate and scaphoid).

Zygoma—The cheekbone.

Diamondbacks On the Air

Thom Brennaman

Television and Radio Play-by-Play

While the Diamondbacks were cutting their teeth on the field last season, the organization had the good fortune of knowing they possessed one of the strongest television booths in the game. Thom Brennaman, who came to Arizona two years before a game was played, teamed with his weekend FOX Network partner, Bob Brenly, to describe the action on both 3-TV and FOX Sports Arizona. Brennaman also worked with Rod Allen for three innings a day on KTAR Radio, when Greg Schulte paid his daily visit to the television booth.

Brennaman's quick wit and ability to keep the game in perspective allowed Diamondback fans to enjoy the inaugural season via the airwaves. He and his partner had numerous guests in their booth, as evidenced by their "Wall of Fame," and twice took their duties poolside for telecasts.

A veteran at the youthful age of 35, Brennaman joined the D'Backs after a stint in Chicago with superstation, WGN, working both the radio and television side of Cubs' baseball. Thom's broadcasting career began in 1986 in Cincinnati, the same town his father, Marty, has been mikeside for Reds' baseball since 1974. The younger Brennaman worked for four years as a weekend sports anchor for WLWT-TV, then for a year on morning drive on WLW Radio. Thom broke into major league baseball in 1988, announcing Reds' baseball for two seasons, working with Hall of Fame catcher Johnny Bench on television, while his father was in the radio booth. Thom has also done college basketball play-by-play, including the University of Cincinnati Bearcats.

Thom graduated from Ohio University in 1986. He is single and makes his home in Phoenix.

Bob Brenly

Television Analyst

An All-Star catcher during his playing days, Bob Brenly has proven in a short period of time that the "tools of ignorance" actually provided him with an education that has been put to extensive use behind a microphone. No stranger to his partner in the booth, Bob teamed with Thom Brennaman on the radio side in Chicago, and they continue to work together on Saturday's during the summer months on their weekly FOX Network assignments.

Brenly spent nine seasons as a major leaguer, the majority of which was behind the plate, but he proved his value and versatility by also playing third base, first base and even dabbled in the outfield. His best overall campaign was 1984 with the Giants, hitting .291 with 20 homers and 80 RBI, including a spot on the National League All-Star team, playing in his home field of Candlestick Park. Bob hit 91 homers in his career, with 73 of those coming in a four-year span from 1984-87.

After retiring as an active player in 1989, Brenly spent two seasons in the radio booth in Chicago before accepting a coaching position with the Giants. He once again gave up the uniform for the booth in 1995, accepting his current role with the FOX Network, while eventually adding his Diamondback duties. Bob has also been in the booth for FOX with Joe Buck and Tim McCarver on post-season network coverage, including the World Series in both 1996 and last fall.

An Ohio native, Bob and his wife, Joan, have a daughter, Lacey (7/9/82), and son, Michael (10/14/86), and they reside in Scottsdale. When not in the television booth, Bob is an avid hunter, fisherman and can also be found on a variety of golf courses in the Valley.

Greg Schulte

Play-by-Play

Though an accomplished announcer in many other sports in the Valley, the 1998 season allowed Greg to achieve a lifelong dream, working as the play-by-play voice of a major league baseball franchise. Teaming for six innings a day with Rod Allen in the KTAR Radio booth, and working three innings on the television side, Schulte's career came full circle last summer. The former sports director at KTAR (620 AM), the flagship station for the network, Greg's voice has called some of the more memorable sports moments in the Valley since his arrival in 1979.

Prior to joining the Diamondbacks, Greg handled the color commentary for the Phoenix Suns broadcasts on KTAR, while also serving as an analyst on Arizona State University football and basketball. He has also shared the play-by-play duties on ASU baseball broadcasts.

A consummate professional, Greg is one of the early arrivals at the ballpark on a daily basis preparing for that day's broadcast. While waiting for the start of the 1998 season, Schulte and his radio partner, Rod Allen, traveled to several National League cities to get a feel for each other on the air. The extra effort worked, as the duo meshed throughout the inaugural season.

Prior to arriving in the Valley, Schulte was the sports director for WQUA radio in Moline, IL, handling the play-by-play for University of Iowa basketball. Greg and his wife of 25 years, Nancy, have two children, Scott (18) and Stephanie (14) and make their home in Glendale.

Rod Allen

Analyst

A veteran in the game of baseball, Rod experienced the "rookie" feeling all over again in 1998, his first full year behind a microphone. Teaming with Greg Schulte and Thom Brennaman in the KTAR Radio booth, Allen added an insightful player's perspective to the broadcasts on a daily basis. His arrival in the radio booth came about on the advice of Brennaman, who thought Rod had a future in broadcasting during the summer of '97 and convinced him to turn in his uniform for a microphone. Rod also had the opportunity to get his first television work in '98, filling in on a handful of weekends when Brennaman and Bob Brenly were on assignment for FOX.

A former player, he was the hitting coach for the Phoenix Diamondbacks in Rookie League in 1996 and managed the organization's Instructional League club before heeding the advice of Brennaman, who had told Rod that his knowledge of the game would be invaluable in a broadcast booth. Allen took that advice and spent some of 1997 studying the game from a different perspective and working on broadcasts of the Arizona Fall League.

His playing career spanned 15 years, including a trio of stops in the majors with Seattle (1983), Detroit (1984) and Cleveland (1988). Rod played from 1989-91 with Hiroshima in the Japanese League. In '91, Allen hit a pair of homers in the Japan Series against the Seibu Lions, and the previous season tied a Japanese League record with home runs in 4 consecutive at bats. He was originally drafted by the Chicago White Sox in the 6th round of the 1977 draft.

Rod is no stranger to expansion, working for the Marlins' organization as their hitting instructor from 1992-95. He and his wife, Adrian, have a son, Andrew (7/10/89), and daughter, Rachel (2/12/91). Rod also has a son, Rod Jr. (9/21/83) and daughter, Rhonda (11/13/76).

Amy Bender

Host/Reporter

Amy Bender returns for a second season in her role on 3-TV, though the show will take on a different look, as this year calls for her to anchor a weekly show that will not be limited to a particular game, but more feature oriented. Amy is no stranger to sports fans in the Valley, working as a sideline reporter for the WNBA's Phoenix Mercury and as a host/reporter for the NFL's Arizona Cardinals radio broadcasts. She has been the host of ESPN's College Cheerleading Championships, and has also been a sports reporter locally for KPNX-TV and on sports radio, KGME.

A Kansas City native, Amy made the move to Arizona in 1993 after four seasons in the P.R. and broadcast departments of the Utah Jazz. She graduated in 1988 from the University of Utah, also working in the sports information office and in the sports department of KSL-TV.

If the name rings a bell it's because announcing runs in the family. Her husband, Trey, is a sports reporter in the Phoenix market, and her father-in-law, Gary, is one of the television voices on Suns' basketball and has been a longtime network announcer.

Barry Buetel

FOX Sports Arizona Host

The most visible host in the Valley returns for his second season with a more expanded role in 1999. Barry Buetel once again anchors "Diamondbacks Countdown" before every FOX Sports Arizona telecast, including road games, and will continue to file in-game reports. It is a role familiar to the energetic Buetel, who has the same responsibilities on Phoenix Coyotes telecasts with "Coyote Countdown", both home and road, and anchors "Sun Devil Countdown" for Arizona State telecasts.

Barry came to Arizona in 1996 after covering the NHL's Buffalo Sabres and the AAA Buffalo Bisons for the Empire Sports Network. Since making the move to the Valley, he has also been spotted as a sideline reporter for Pac-10 college football and hosted the ASU/UA football pre-game show, "Duel in the Desert."

Barry's career has also included pre- and post-game work for WKNR Sports Radio 1220 in Cleveland, the Indians' flagship station. Buetel attended the Brown Institute of Radio and Television and the University of South Florida.

A newlywed, Barry and Shannon were married last September 19.

Behind the Scenes

Scott Geyer

Mark Reda

Scott Geyer is the team Director of Broadcasting and sits in the Director's chair in the truck for each telecast. This is his 19th year in sports television, 10 of which were as Producer/Director of the Phoenix Suns television package, while also managing the production and post-production division of America West Arena since its opening in 1992. Baseball is no stranger to Geyer, who directed a major league baseball package for FOX Sports Net in 1997 and spent 5 seasons directing the AAA affiliate in the Valley in the 1980's. He and his wife, Lisa, have two sons, Adam and Travis.

Mark Reda serves as Producer on all Diamondback telecasts. He has worked in sports television since 1982, including stints with the Los Angeles Dodgers, Oakland A's, Colorado Rockies, CBS, the Baseball Network and FOX. Mark's work has been awarded with 5 local Emmys and a national Emmy. He has a bachelor's degree in English from UCLA. Mark and his wife, Sheri, have a son, Anthony, and daughter, Brianna, and make their home in Mesa.

Diamondbacks en Español

The Diamondbacks will broadcast every home game on radio in Spanish, and some selected road games, with KPHX, 1480 AM serving as the flagship.

The Diamondbacks will also have 20 of their games televised regionally via Telemundo, KDTR-TV, Channel 64 in Phoenix. The Spanish telecast will also be available in Tucson on Telemundo, KHRR-TV, Channel 40.

Miguel Quintana

Spanish Television

A name synonymous with sports in the Hispanic community is the Spanish language television voice of the Diamondbacks, as Miguel Quintana is the team's television Hispanic announcer. He will work a 20-game television schedule that is ticketed for KDRX-TV, (Ch. 64), the Phoenix area's Telemundo affiliate, and KHRR (Ch. 40) in Tucson. Quintana will continue to host KDRX-TV's popular "Cinco en Punto."

Miguel began his career as a 15-year old sportswriter for El Sol in Agua Prieta, Sonora. In 1981, he joined KIFN (now KVVA) radio in Phoenix as a sports commentator, and later moved to Channel 33, eventually becoming sports director. Quintana's career also ventured to Los Angeles, where he was sports anchor and director at KVEA-TV. He returned to the Valley in 1995 as play-by-play voice of the Arizona Sandsharks soccer team.

Miguel has been a baseball commentator for the Mexican Pacific League and has done play-by-play for the Arizona Rattlers. He has three daughters, Lisette (15), Jasmine (10) and Jennifer (5).

Rene Boeta

Spanish Radio

In his second season in the Spanish broadcast booth for the Diamondbacks, the native of Merida, Yucatan in Mexico, Rene has been part of baseball on radio since the 1950's when he worked on the transmissions of the Peninsular League. He also worked on broadcasts of the Mexican Central League with Los Caneros of Mante, Tamaulipas.

Rene served as a special guest on the broadcasts with Los Leones of Yucatan and was a sportscaster on a variety of radio stations in Mexico and the United States. He has also worked on a baseball sports magazine in his hometown of Merida and has served as a Spanish commentator for Phoenix Suns basketball.

Rene and his wife, Stella, have two daughters, Renee (14) and Alejandra (12), and a son, Antonio (10).

Enrique Lopez

Spanish Radio

In his second year mikeside for the Diamondbacks, Enrique began working in radio in 1959. He was the baseball voice for the "Winter League of the Pacific" with AAA teams including Naranjeros de Hermosillo, Yaquis de Ciudad de Obregon and Mayos de Navojoa. He has also traveled to Venezuela for the "Serie del Caribe." Lopez has written for the Sports Press of Mexico, with articles appearing in several magazines and newspapers throughout the country. He has worked for KPHX Radio since 1987.

Enrique and his wife, Marta, have three daughters, Gabriella, Giovana and Mariela and a son, Enrique.

Remembering Our Friends

Two members of the media who dedicated their lives to sports coverage will be forever remembered in the press facility at Bank One Ballpark. The untimely passing of Channel 12's Steve Pascente and nationally known sportswriter Dick Dozer deprived each the opportunity to witness Major League Baseball in the Valley. The Arizona Diamondbacks are proud to honor each individual with a permanent tribute in the stadium.

Steve Pascente Memorial Press Lounge

Steve Pascente was one of the most dedicated at his craft and died while on location covering football in Washington D.C. His wife, Julie, has kept his memory alive with the Steve Pascente Charitable Foundation, which supports a variety of foundations including Widowed With Children, The Steve Pascente Memorial Scholarships at Arizona State University and The Andre House. When the Diamondbacks opened the 1998 season against the Colorado Rockies, Nick Pascente, the son of Steve and Julie, served as honorary batboy.

Dick Dozer Memorial Press Box

Dick Dozer spent the majority of his life covering Major League Baseball for the Chicago Tribune, but he was hardly a stranger to the Valley. After leaving the beat of the big leagues, he arrived in Phoenix and wrote for the Gazette, while also contributing his time in organizing the annual "Dream Game," an oldtimers contest that benefitted the Phoenix Memorial Hospital Foundation, and working with the Mesa Ho-Ho-Koms. Dozer was BBWAA Chapter President in 1976. He passed away in 1994, yet his memory lives on daily in the Diamondbacks' front office, as his son, Rich, is the team President.

Bank One Ballpark

In its first season of operation, Bank One Ballpark, the game's newest and most innovative venue, gave 3.6 million Arizona Diamondback fans an opportunity to enjoy major league baseball without worrying about the Phoenix area's summer heat. Owned by Maricopa County, this is the only sports facility in the world featuring a retractable roof, air conditioning and a natural turf playing field.

The 49,075-capacity Ballpark joins nearby America West Arena in making downtown Phoenix the sports hub of the Valley of the Sun. It is located just one block east of AWA, home of the NBA's Phoenix Suns and NHL's Phoenix Coyotes. The Ballpark is bounded by Jefferson Street on the north, Fourth Street on the west and Seventh Street on the east. Easiest freeway access is by taking the Seventh Street exit from either I-10 (turn south) or I-17 (turn north).

With an elevation of approximately 1,100 feet, Bank One Ballpark is the second-highest facility in the majors, trailing only Coors Field in Denver. Scientists have estimated that a fly ball will travel about 7 feet further for every 1,000 feet of altitude.

The Structure

Ground was broken on Nov. 16, 1995, for a construction project that took 28 months and cost $354 million.

Bank One Ballpark was designed by Ellerbe Becket, with architect Bill Johnson as the design principal. John Wasson was the project manager for the Arizona Diamondbacks, with Huber, Hunt & Nichols serving as the managing contractor.

The Ballpark incorporates the traditional look of red brick and green structural steel in a setting that blends into its surroundings. Many of the design details are borrowed from the warehouse district that surrounds it. One former warehouse, the Stern Produce Building, is actually preserved and incorporated into the south facade of the building. Appropriately, that former food warehouse is used as a commissary for the Ballpark's concessions stands.

The Roof

The retractable roof, comprising 9 million pounds of structural steel, operates on the same tried-and-true technology found in drawbridges and overhead traveling cranes. A pair of 200-horsepower motors open or close the roof in slightly more than four minutes, utilizing more than four miles of cable strung through a pulley system. Each half of the roof consists of three moveable trusses which telescope over a fixed end truss. The east and west sides of the roof can operate either in unison or independently. Either side of the roof can be opened to any position in order to maximize sunlight on the turf and minimize sunlight on the interior steel and concrete. In 1998, 45 home games were played under a closed roof and 36 under open skies. On a couple of occasions, the roof was gradually opened between innings as the evening air cooled.

Keeping Cool

The 8,000-ton cooling system is the equivalent of air conditioning for more than 2,500 typical Arizona homes. The system incorporates air handlers and a large cooling tower on the south side of the Ballpark. The air handlers will push 1.2 million cubic feet of air per minute across cooling coils containing water chilled to 48 degrees.

The system, which is designed to bring the temperature down by 30 degrees in three hours, is configured to deliver cool air only to the seating areas and concourses. It will not cool the entire volume of the Ballpark.

Seating and Tickets

Because Bank One Ballpark is a baseball-only facility, its sight lines are second to no other. More than 80 percent of the seats are inside the foul poles, and there is no upper deck around the outfield. What's more, the seats down the foul lines beyond the infield are slightly canted toward the infield so that no fan will not have to twist his or her body to look toward second base and the pitcher's mound.

All lower-deck seating is directly accessible from the lower concourse, which is at the same level as the outside pedestrian entry plazas and gates. The concourse itself is open to the playing field so fans can stay in touch with the game while using the concessions, merchandise store or other amenities.

The Infiniti Diamond Level is designed to provide exclusive locations and amenities. This level features lounges and dining areas servicing approximately 4,400 club seats. Above those seats are 69 private luxury suites designed to offer the utmost in comfort and catering.

One floor up from the suite level, the upper concourse will seat approximately 20,000 fans. Escalators on the west side of Bank One Ballpark take guests to either of the upper levels.

Finally, behind the centerfield wall is the Fry's Picnic Pavilion, with seats available to individuals or groups. The Pavilion has picnic tables on tiers to allow approximately 600 fans a full view of the action while enjoying a picnic or family gathering.

Fox Sports Arizona DiamondTown

While Bank One Ballpark offers fans up-to-the minute amenities and comfort, it also evokes a sense of baseball's history and tradition. Nowhere is this more evident than on the main concourse in Fox Sports Arizona DiamondTown.

Video walls, a graphic timeline and three-dimensional exhibits give Diamondbacks fans 10 themed areas featuring the best of baseball history.

Cox Clubhouse

Located behind the picnic area in center field, the Cox Clubhouse is an attractive destination whether or not there is a game at Bank One Ballpark. The area houses exhibits lent to the Diamondbacks by the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum in Cooperstown, N.Y., along with the "Extra Innings" games area and the "Dugout," an interactive experience.

Music

Traditional baseball means organ music, and Bank One Ballpark has some of the best in the talented fingers of Bobby Freeman. He moved into the major leagues without a hitch last season after being a long-time fan favorite as organist for the Pacific Coast League's Phoenix Firebirds.

Food

The Ballpark offers a wide variety of food and drink. Fans heading for the rotunda that marks the main entrance will have an opportunity to stop in at Leinenkugel's Ballyard Brewery in the plaza along Fourth Street. The brew pub's game-day menu, specially tailored to fans, features items that do not require utensils so guests can carry food to their seats. The 20,000-square foot building features a 60-foot, 6-inch mahogany bar in the main restaurant, mirroring the distance between the pitcher's rubber and home plate.

The main concourse and upper concourse feature approximately a quarter mile of concessions stands, offering traditional ballpark fare, while specialty stands located throughout the park give fans their choice of such treats as McDonald's (Bank One Ballpark is the only MLB facility in the United States to have the Golden Arches inside), Blimpie's sandwiches, Little Caesar's pizza and Garcia's Mexican food. Fans will also find specialty ice cream, yogurt, smoothies, shaved ice and specialty popcorn.

There's even a farmer's market. Fielder's Choice offers a selection of fresh fruits and vegetables.

Friday's Front Row Sports Grill in the left-field corner gives fans an opportunity to enjoy fine food and beverages while they watch the game from the terraced seating. The Sports Grill is open every day but Christmas.

The upper concourse houses two 6,000-square foot Miller Lite beer gardens that overlook the playing field.

On the Infiniti Diamond Level, the Arizona Baseball Club in the right-field corner fills the needs of fans in the club seats or luxury suites.

Sun Pool Party Pavilion

On a warm evening in Phoenix, some folks like to relax around the pool. Others prefer to go to the ball game. Patrons of the Sun Pool Party Pavilion at Bank One Ballpark are able to do both.

In recreating an upscale Arizona backyard, the Pavilion gives about 35 guests the opportunity to see the Diamondbacks play while enjoying a swimming pool, hot tub, fountains, catering and other amenities.

The Pavilion is located next to the outfield wall in right-center. With the pool approximately 415 feet from home plate, home runs occasionally make a splash. When a Diamondback hits one into the pool or into the stands, water cannons celebrate by firing streams 30 to 35 feet into the air.

Parking

Like any downtown sports facility, Bank One Ballpark utilizes the established parking infrastructure for its guests. An attached 1,500-car parking garage provides parking for guests on the Infiniti Diamond Level. Away from the park, downtown Phoenix boasts some 33,000 parking spaces within a 15-minute walk of Bank One Ballpark. The Diamondbacks estimate that about 15,000 spaces are necessary to accommodate a sell-out crowd.

The Field

In order to make Bank One Ballpark the first baseball facility to combine enclosed air-conditioned comfort with the traditional playability of natural turf, it was necessary to develop a new strain of grass.

Steve Cockerham, one of the leading turf agronomists in the nation and head of the Department of Agricultural Operations at the University of California at Riverside, oversaw extensive testing, in which several varieties of grass were kept in shaded conditions for longer and longer periods of time. The eventual choice was a zoysia blend known as DeAnza. The field has been completely resodded for the 1999 season, and the zoysia will be overseeded with bluegrass to provide a lusher field in the cool early-season weather.

The turf receives sunlight at every opportunity. Even on game days, the roof remains open until mid-afternoon to allow maximum exposure. When areas of the field receive too little natural sunlight, large growth lights will provide a substitute.

The unique layout of the field includes a strip of turf between the track and the wall. Another visible feature of the field takes baseball fans at Bank One Ballpark back in time almost 100 years. There is a dirt path between the pitcher's mound and home plate, reminiscent of the paths seen in very early pictures of the game.

In a way, that path is symbolic of the Bank One Ballpark experience: The best of baseball history displayed in a setting that features all the modern conveniences.

Grant Trenbeath

Head Groundskeeper

Though he is a knowledgeable professional in his role of Head Groundskeeper, nothing could have prepared Grant Trenbeath for the 1998 season. The first groundskeeper asked to grow grass in an indoor facility since the failed Astrodome experiment of the 60's, Trenbeath learned an immense amount about his trade under unusual circumstances and has made several adjustments for 1999. His role began with the Diamondbacks seven months before a game would be played on the Bank One Ballpark field. Grant supervised the move of the sod from southern California and is also the consultant to the club's spring training facility in Tucson.

Trenbeath is no stranger to baseball diamonds or growing grass in the desert, joining the Diamondbacks after working for the Oakland Athletics' organization. His responsibilities included the last three seasons as the head groundskeeper for the A's minor league complex at Papago Park, and for their Cactus League headquarters at Phoenix Municipal Stadium, long recognized as one of the best spring training surfaces in Arizona. Prior to moving to the Valley, Trenbeath spent three years as the head groundskeeper for Oakland's minor league affiliate in Medford, Oregon.

He attended Willamette University in Oregon. Though spare moments have been few since coming on board with the Diamondbacks, Grant and the former Trina Hettinga were married last November. They make their home in Chandler.

Trenbeath is assisted year-round by an outstanding crew that includes John Nichols, Karl Gant and Steve Dedo.

Did You Know???

- The building contains more than 60,000 cubic yards of cast-in-place concrete. That is enough to build a sidewalk 4 feet wide and 4 inches deep from Phoenix to San Diego.
- The roof structure weighs 41.7 pounds per square foot.
- When the roof is fully retracted, the opening is almost 5.5 acres. America West Arena could be lowered through the opening without touching any walls. Actually, eight America West Arenas would fit inside Bank One Ballpark.
- The roof is opened and closed by a pair of 200-horsepower electric motors. Each time the roof is opened or closed, it runs up the electric bill approximately $2.
- At peak demand, water usage will be 2,500 gallons per minute. Five hundred of those gallons are associated with evaporation in the air-conditioning system's cooling tower.
- Nobody likes to wait in line. That's why there are 340 restroom facilities for women and 276 for men.
- If all the truckloads of dirt that came out of the Bank One Ballpark excavation were lined up end to end along I-17, the line would stretch to Flagstaff, turn east on I-40 and extend past Winslow.

Bank One Ballpark Promotions

While the nightly focus will be on the playing field, the Diamondbacks also pride themselves with one of the most diverse promotional schedules in professional sports. Fans are not only treated to quality giveaway items throughout the season, there are several theme nights interspersed throughout the home schedule, encouraging fan participation.

The highly successful Disco Night returns for a second season, while other theme nights include Wild, Wild, West Night, Elvis Night, a Beach Party, Mother's and Father's Day promotions, Hispanic Heritage Month and Kids Run the Show Night.

Arizona Diamondbacks Charities

The Arizona Diamondbacks organization believes that it has an obligation as a corporate citizen of Maricopa County to assist in addressing and solving issues that are of concern to the community and its residents. Arizona Diamondbacks Charities is a newly established non-profit corporation which generates and distributes contributions to non-profit organizations which provide services to promote positive growth and development for the residents of Arizona.

Arizona Diamondbacks Charities' efforts are directed to housing for the homeless and low income residents; children's programs of all types, including education; and health maintenance and disease prevention programs for the indigent.

In its inaugural funding cycle, Diamondbacks Charities distributed over $472,000 to 73 non-profit organizations. With its second funding cycle underway, an additional $100,000 is expected to be distributed in March, 1999.

Funds are raised through events such as the annual Arizona Diamondbacks Golf Classic, the Bank One Ballpark tour program, scoreboard messages, miscellaneous donations, and other team related activities.

A 13-member board of team and county appointees are responsible for the acceptance and approval of applications for financial assistance. Board members are:

Diamondback Chronology

1990

June 28: A bill submitted by Rep. Chris Herstam, R-Phoenix, allowing Maricopa County to assess a quarter-cent sales tax for a baseball-only stadium, passes the Arizona Legislature. The tax can be levied only after a franchise is granted.

August 1: Twenty-six ownership groups are vying for new franchises. Denver, Phoenix, Buffalo and Tampa are top contenders. Baseball owners set franchise fee at $95 million.

1991

July 5: The Colorado Rockies and Florida Marlins are awarded National League franchises to begin play in 1993.

1993

July 25: Major League Baseball talks of adding new teams. Phoenix Suns owner Jerry Colangelo gets assurance from owners that Phoenix and Tampa are the top prospects. He begins a drive for investors and a stadium.

November 10: At a jam-packed news conference at America West Arena, Colangelo announces he will put together an ownership group that will apply for a Major League Baseball expansion franchise.

February 17: Maricopa County Supervisors vote 3-1 for the stadium tax, with one abstention. Baseball owners have until April 1, 1995, to award Phoenix a new franchise, or the stadium financing deal is off.

June 17: Ellerbe Becket beats out two other finalists working on the design of the new downtown stadium. A site just south of Jefferson Street and west of Seventh Street is selected for the retractable-roof, natural-grass showplace.

November 2: At a meeting in Chicago, the expansion committee hears presentations from Colangelo and other would-be ownership groups from Orlando and Tampa-St. Petersburg and two from northern Virginia.

February 13: Full-page ads appear in the Arizona Republic, Phoenix Gazette and Tribune newspapers kicking off a statewide Name the Team Contest. "The name won't be revealed until baseball awards a franchise," said Jerry Colangelo. "We anticipate that happening on March 9, and if it does, we want to have our colors and a name ready to show when the announcement is made. Tampa-St. Petersburg is doing the same thing."

March 9: At a meeting in Palm Beach, Fla., baseball's owners name the Arizona Diamondbacks and the Tampa Bay Devil Rays the 13th and 14th expansion teams in Major League Baseball history. The franchises are priced at a record $130 million apiece. Richard H. Dozer is named president and Joe Garagiola Jr. becomes vice president and general manager.

March 11: Season-ticket deposits are first taken at a celebration party on the plaza in front of America West Arena. Despite a soaking rain, more than 2,000 people show up to take part in the team's first official fan celebration.

April 5: The Diamondbacks finalize a deal with Bank One that will result in the new downtown stadium carrying the name of Bank One Ballpark.

Aug. 17: The Diamondbacks unveil their first farm team, the Lethbridge Mounties, soon to be renamed the Black Diamonds, of Lethbridge, Alberta, Canada in the Pioneer League.

November 15: Still two seasons away from Opening Day, the Diamondbacks have a manager. Buck Showalter, who was the American League's Manager of the Year in 1994 with the New York Yankees and who led the Yankees to a wild-card playoff spot in 1995, signs a 7-year contract that will put him in the dugout when the expansion team takes the field in 1998.

November 16: Ceremonies, including a game between two Little League teams, celebrate the groundbreaking for the Bank One Ballpark.

February 1: Righthanded pitchers Vladimir Nuñez and Larry Rodriguez, who defected from the Cuban National B team three months earlier, sign with the Diamondbacks for a combined $3 million.

May 17: America West Airlines rolls out a Boeing 757 painted in a Diamondbacks' theme, with a huge baseball logo on the tail. Immediately, fans, staff, sponsors and investors climb on board and head to Denver, where they see the Colorado Rockies defeat the St. Louis Cardinals, 12-11.

May 31: The Diamondbacks and Chicago White Sox jointly announce that they will share a new spring-training facility in Tucson, beginning in 1998.

June 4: Lefthanded pitcher Nick Bierbrodt of Long Beach, Calif., becomes the team's first-ever choice in the amateur draft.

June 24: More than 6,000 fans turn out at Scottsdale Stadium to see the Diamondbacks' Arizona League team make its debut. Outfielder Juan Garcia homers to lead off the first inning and then adds another, but Oakland's rookie-league team wins, 15-7.

October 5: Organizational Pitcher of the Year and Player of the Year honors go to Lethbridge righthander Vladimir Nuñez (11-0, 2.22 ERA) and outfielder Kevin Sweeney (.424, 14 HR, 72 RBI).

October 11: The Diamondbacks announce the signing of Olympic first baseman Travis Lee, the second overall choice in the June draft. He and three other players had been declared free agents by Major League Baseball. Three weeks later, another of the four, righthanded pitcher John Patterson, signs with Arizona.

January 16: Meeting in Scottsdale, baseball's owners vote to place the Diamondbacks in the National League's West Division.

March 3: Pitchers and catchers report to Yuma, Ariz., for the Diamondbacks' first minor league spring training camp. Players will be assigned to High Desert in the California League or South Bend in the Midwest League.

September 12: Affirming that they are a statewide team, the Diamondbacks sign a player-development contract that makes Tucson the franchise's Class AAA affiliate in the Pacific Coast League.

November 17: Shortstop Jay Bell becomes the Diamondbacks' first major leaguer when he leaves the Kansas City Royals to sign a five-year contract with Arizona.

November 18: Arizona and the Tampa Bay Devil Rays each select 35 players in the Major League Baseball Expansion Draft held at Phoenix Civic Plaza. The Diamondbacks' first choice is lefthanded pitcher Brian Anderson of the Cleveland Indians.

December 1: Third-baseman Matt Williams comes to the Diamondbacks from Cleveland in a headline-making trade that sends third baseman Travis Fryman and left-handed pitcher Tom Martin to the Indians. Williams signs a five-year contract extension which commits him to Arizona through 2003.

January 10: Single-game tickets go on sale for Opening Day on March 31 against the Colorado Rockies. All tickets are gone before lunch.

February 13: Pitchers and catchers take the field at Kino Veterans Memorial Sportspark in Tucson to inaugurate the Diamondbacks' first major-league spring training.

February 27: In the Diamondbacks' first Cactus League exhibition game, Edwin Diaz hits a ninth inning sacrifice fly that scores Kelly Stinnett with the winning run in a 6-5 victory over the Chicago White Sox at Tucson Electric Park.

Chronology (Continued)

March 20: Jerry Colangelo and county officials break bottles of sparkling water over the rotunda railings to highlight the official dedication ceremony at Bank One Ballpark.

March 29: The final exhibition game of the season serves as a trial run for Bank One Ballpark as 49,198 fans see the White Sox defeat Arizona, 3-0.

March 31: With 50,179 fans overflowing Bank One Ballpark, the Diamondbacks celebrate the first regular-season game in franchise history. Colorado wins, 9-2, but not before Travis Lee collects Arizona's first hit (a first-inning single), first homer, first run and first RBI.

April 4: Arizona celebrates its first victory, a 3-2 win over San Francisco that evens Andy Benes' record at 1-1.

July 30: Omar Daal pitches the franchise's first complete-game shutout, scattering four hits in a 4-0 victory over the Chicago Cubs at Bank One Ballpark.

September 4: A 3-1 win over Houston gives the Diamondbacks their seventh consecutive victory, equalling the longest winning streak by any expansion team in history.

September 13: Andy Benes comes within two outs of pitching a no-hitter in a 5-0 win at Cincinnati, highlighting a September in which he was 3-0 with an 0.47 ERA. Benes ends the season with a string of 27.1 scoreless innings.

November 12: The Diamondbacks begin their off-season roster overhaul, signing free agent lefthanded pitcher Greg Swindell to a 3-year contract and infielder Greg Colbrunn to a 2-year deal.

November 20: Free agent pitcher Todd Stottlemyre agrees to a 4-year contract.

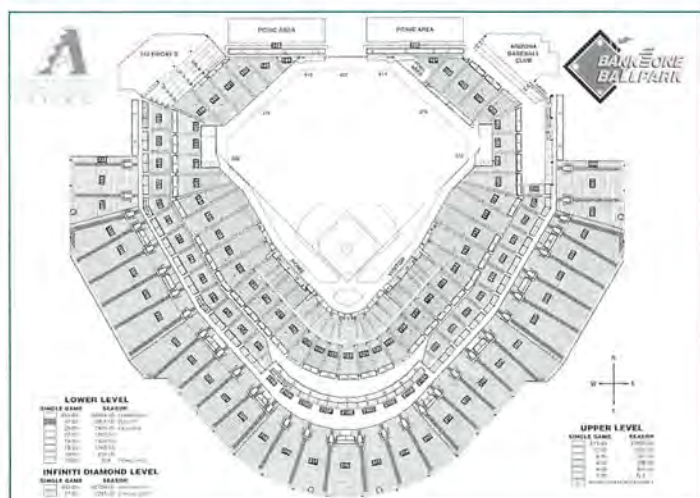

November 25: Free agent pitcher Armando Reynoso agrees to a 2-year contract.

December 1: Lefthanded pitcher Randy Johnson decides to pitch in his hometown and agrees to terms on a 4-year contract.

December 8: After acquiring 4 pitchers via the free agent route, the Diamondbacks turn their attention to the outfield and sign Steve Finley to a 4-year deal.

December 28: The Diamondbacks continue their winter upgrade, trading outfielder Karim Garcia to the Detroit Tigers for veteran outfielder Luis Gonzalez and cash considerations.

Arizona Diamondbacks

Public Relations Department

Director - Public Relations — Mike Swanson

Manager - Media Relations — Bob Crawford

Media Coordinator - Public Relations — Brenda Morse

Staff Assistants — David Pape, Jeff Munn and Chris Haydock

It is a privilege for our staff to be of assistance as you cover the Arizona Diamondbacks. Bank One Ballpark already ranks as one of the premier sports facilities in the world, and our department will do its best to take care of any reasonable requests. Following are the Public Relations policies for the 1999 season. If you have any questions, do not hesitate to ask any member of our staff and we will make every effort to fulfill your needs.

WORKING PRESS CREDENTIALS: Daily passes will be issued to media members who do not qualify for season credentials. Media who qualify for daily credentials include: freelance writers on a specific assignment for a publication, representatives of weekly and monthly publications working on special coverage, and additional radio and television representatives when the need arises for extra pre-game personnel (i.e. live shots, etc.). Requests for daily credentials must come directly from the affiliation editor, producer, or director, on company letterhead at least 48 hours in advance of the game being requested. Requests may be made via FAX only if the requesting affiliation is currently on file with the P.R. office.

PHOTO CREDENTIALS: Daily photo passes will be issued to photographers on assignment for legitimate news gathering organizations and representatives of companies licensed by Major League Baseball. Requests for photographer credentials must follow the procedure detailed above. The Arizona Diamondbacks will not issue credentials to freelance photographers. Please remember that priority in all photo areas will be granted to news organizations on nightly deadlines. Field photo space at Bank One Ballpark is at a premium and priority for space will be given to daily publications and wire services. For the 1999 season, we have also designated a small space for in-game photography in the front row of the press box. All photographs taken are to be used for news-gathering purposes or officially licensed products only. Any other use of photographs taken will be considered a violation of existing trademark and copyright restrictions.

AUTOGRAPH POLICY: Credentialed members of the media are prohibited from requesting autographs or equipment on the playing field, in the dugout or in the clubhouse. Any violation of these guidelines will result in immediate revocation of the credential and bar future use.

CLUBHOUSE ACCESS: All credentials will list specific locations in Bank One Ballpark where access is permitted. Members of the media must have a specific reason for clubhouse access to gain admittance. All media will be required to sign in at the clubhouse entrance. The clubhouse will close 50 minutes prior to the first pitch each day, and there may be times where the clubhouse will close earlier for team meetings. Generally, no more than a 10-minute "cooling off" period is applied after games. Post-game access to the visiting clubhouse will be determined by the individual club's policies.

FIELD ACCESS: All members of the media with field access provided on their credential will be allowed to conduct interviews during specified times prior to the start of the game. The field must be cleared 50 minutes prior to the beginning of the game, and at no time is the media permitted in fair territory, or outside the first and third base bags. These precautions are for the safety of all involved while batting practice is in progress.

LIVE TRANSMISSIONS: Non-rightsholders are permitted to transmit live reports from Bank One Ballpark prior to and after every game. All television live shots must be done in designated areas outside the clubhouse due to space limitations, or on the warning track area outside either dugout. Live television reports by non-rightsholders are prohibited while the rightsholder is on the air or the game is in progress. Radio stations and assigned correspondents for out of town reports are allowed to give inning or half inning score updates. However, at no time can they file reports once play is under way. Any violation of these policies will result in immediate revocation of credentials.

CELLULAR PHONES: The use of cellular phones for radio interviews is prohibited on the field or in the clubhouse. The only time a radio correspondent can use a cellular phone for an interview would be in either dugout after receiving advance permission from the player or staff member. Any other telephone interviews must be arranged through the Diamondbacks' P.R. Department.

ROVING CAMERAS: Television stations are prohibited from using a camera light in the seating area of the ballpark. Should a light come on, the game will be stopped by the umpiring crew. Separate credentials will be available for "roving" the stands prior to games. For the comfort of our fans, interviews are to be conducted on the concourse, not in the stands while the game is in progress.

WORKING PRESS BOX: The press box at Bank One Ballpark is located directly behind home plate. The writers' wing is on the first base side, while the broadcast booths are behind the plate and towards the third base side. Game notes and statistics will be available for pick-up at least 2 hours before game time in the area immediately behind the working press box. The Diamondbacks are also pleased to offer additional working space, with television monitors, in the area behind the press box. A fax machine and copier are available in the press box should the need for use arise. The press box is an active working area and cheering and loud conversation will not be permitted. At no time will guests be permitted in the press box. The Arizona Diamondbacks prohibit any person under the age of 18 from entering the press box level on game days.

PRESS DINING: The press dining room is located behind the press box. As is consistent with all National League clubs, pre-game meals for the media will be available for a nominal charge ($7.00), and will be served 2 hours prior to game time and up through the end of the first inning. Media members must be properly credentialed for admittance to the dining room.

PHONES FOR MEDIA: The Arizona Diamondbacks are fortunate to have an ample supply of Charge Call phones in the press box. If for some reason media members feel there are not enough lines available, they should investigate installing their own line for use during the season. To have a phone extension installed for the season, or for a single visit to Bank One Ballpark, please contact Vicki Berryman at (602) 462-6099.

Spring Training

Brian Anderson and former Sidewinder catcher Tom Wilson head to the bullpen in preparation for a spring start.

Spring Training '99

The Diamondbacks not only have the good fortune of training less than two hours away from Bank One Ballpark, they have the opportunity to work in one of the most modern spring facilities in baseball. Tucson Electric Park is the centerpiece of the Pima County Kino Sports Complex, that also includes six-field practice facilities for both the Diamondbacks and Chicago White Sox.

Tucson Electric Park has a capacity of 11,000, including 8,000 seats in the main grandstand and another 3,000 available on the outfield lawn. Also the summer home of the Tucson Sidewinders, T.E.P. features a major league clubhouse that the Diamondbacks use during the spring, and clubhouses for visiting clubs and umpires. The home clubhouse also has an indoor batting cage located on the lower level on the way to the playing field.

During the spring session, the Diamondbacks will dress daily in the major league clubhouse at Tucson Electric Park, while doing the majority of their work at the minor league complex across Ajo Way. Once the exhibition season begins, Arizona will take batting practice either on the stadium field, or on a diamond behind T.E.P., where the D'Backs also have a half-field for infield work. The Diamondbacks generally hit the field at 9:30 on a daily basis during the workout phase of camp.

The Diamondbacks posted a winning record in their initial spring season, going 16-15-1.

The spring of '99 marks the 53rd year for spring training in the Tucson community, with last season the first time that three clubs called the Old Pueblo home. While the D'Backs and White Sox work at the Kino Complex, the Colorado Rockies continue to call Hi Corbett Field their spring home.

Tucson Electric Park has a symmetrical playing surface, measuring 340 feet down each foul line and 405 to straightaway center-field. The spring home for the Diamondbacks is located at 2500 East Ajo Way in Tucson.
